Its fucking purple, and always runs its croaker telling other frogs how great it is. It has the brains of Derek Broughtn, and the skanky ass of KAthy thirty acres, and the dumbness of Galen.....Jan is a bit put off by it since it does nt have a vagina, only a big dick, in place of its head, hence its name the dick head rpm frog.....They acconplisehd this by swapping spit and frog spawn foam in their weekly / daily orgies with various natural fauna, which by the eway they have driven off and now wonder why.

I forgot more about ponds and koi than I'll ever know!

Listen up dumbass.Monistat works wonders for fungal infectns as well as yeast....just ask yur wife or momma! Tynk wll also swear to its use......along with Prep H, and Astro Glide! I bet if you look your momma or wife has some astro glide in her drawer, probably some remnants in her other "drawers" as well.

Why not give Mark a few more spelling lessons, "lilttle" Roger?

Here's some info on your medical problem, UnWiseman:

from: http://faculty.ncwc.edu/TOCONNOR/428/428lect16.htm

quote
DETAILED ANALYSIS OF THE SOCIOPATH

From the wild Irish slums of the 19th Century Eastern seaboard to the riot-torn anomic
neighborhoods of Los Angeles, our society has always produced sociopaths
who are quite often the products of illegitimacy, broken homes, and a lack of any bonding with male
or societal authority. Some 70% of sociopaths come from fatherless homes. Father absence produces many consequences similar to the symptoms of sociopathy --
early, precocious
sexuality; antagonistic, deprecating attitude toward the opposite sex;
lack of interest
in bonding with a durable, stable mate; aggressive acting-out; excessive boasting;
and risk-taking behavior. Some 30% of children today are born out-of-wedlock, and another 30% live in divorced homes. These conditions - a problem of unsocialization - produce sociopathy. Furthermore, sociopaths tend to reproduce themselves, that is,
they produce more than own their share of illegitimate offspring themselves.

So what is a sociopath? You won't find criteria in the DSM IV or official psychiatric nomenclature, but the construct refers to the largest subgroup of APDs.
Most are males,
but an increasing number are female. They have otherwise normal temperaments (as opposed to psychopaths who have abnormal temperaments). Some are aggressive, fearless sensation
seekers, and others are Machiavellian manipulators. A Machiavellian is a personality

type who is a cross between an antisocial personality and a narcissist, and someone who also has an extremely high sense of entitlement. The one thing that all sociopaths have in common is that they are "too much" to handle for their parents or anyone else. It's common to refer to them as unsocialized, but the dyssocial sociopath does socialize to the mores and values of a dyssocial outgroup, like a gang. Let's explore the four (4) subtypes of sociopaths:

COMMON SOCIOPATHS are the largest subtype and have a weak or unelaborated conscience.
They are not ashamed by the same things as you or I would be ashamed of. They are like feral children grown up, taking pleasures and gratifying impulses at every opportunity or temptation. They especially enjoy and take pride in bending or breaking the rules.
As teenagers, they are often runaways. As adults, they are often geographically mobile, living in shelters, or taking advantage of welfare systems. They are experienced shoplifters. They have quite active sex lives. They are usually of average intelligence, but don't do well in school and never seem to break out of low-paying dead-end jobs. Nevertheless, they seem genuinely happy with their lives, unburdened by any sense of negative self-worth or the fact that they have not been a functional,
contributing member of society.

ALIENATED SOCIOPATHS have never developed the ability to love, empathize, or affiliate in real life with another person. They will show more emotion toward their pet or a personal artifact than toward a person. Or, they may hate animals and live out their emotional life by watching TV (identification with soap opera characters is a common pattern). Dating and marriage relationships will be very barren and empty. They won't get along with the neighbors. They live in a shell. They have a cold, callous attitude toward human suffering or any social problem in the society they live in. They just don't care because it's outside their range of empathy. Most will believe they are justified in this because they feel they were cheated in some way themselves by society, and a few will be more than happy to rant and rave about it to anyone who listens. They are chronic complainers, and underneath it all, they would like to see nothing better than all of society destroyed.

AGGRESSIVE SOCIOPATHS derive strong, yet nonperverse gratification from harming others.
They like to hurt, frighten, tyrannize, bully, and manipulate. They do it for a sense of power and control, and will often only drop subtle hints about what they are up to.
They polish their aggressive, domineering manner in such a way to disguise any intimidation others might feel. They seek out positions of power, such as parent, teacher, bureaucrat, supervisor, or police officer. Their style is one of passive aggression as they systematically go about sabotaging the ideas of others to get their ideas in place. In their spare time, they like to hunt or occasionally do sadistic things like find stray dogs and cut them up. They are usually effective at getting their way, and are especially vindictive if resisted or crossed. They don't follow the social norm of reciprocity like others do.

DYSSOCIAL SOCIOPATHS identify and hold an allegiance with a dyssocial, outcast, or predatory subculture. Any subculture will do, as long as it runs counter to established authority. They are capable of intense loyalty, and even a feeling of guilt and shame, within such limited circles. They seem to continually fall upon bad luck and bad companions, however. While they will constantly complain that none of this is their fault, behind it all is a kind of self-defeating mechanism in the poor choices they made themselves.

I'm not going to repeat them. They're hurtful to me because they contained abuse that was directed against me by someone else at the time and which got picked up and thrown again in the trial. It is a matter of record but I won't repeat it here.

Why would "they" wish to assassinate your character?

Well, let's put it this way - just because this is the first time it's happened in this way, from these people, on this scale, doesn't mean that it hasn't happened before, on a lesser scale. At university there were people who quite overtly hated me and would have wished something nasty to happen to me. Because of where I went making the wrong sort of enemies is pretty deadly.

"They" would wish to assassinate my character because it had all been done before, and because they knew I would not be able to react in any other way than I'd reacted previously.

This was four, five years ago... sorry, I don't remember. I can remember individual incidents, words which were repeated by different people at different times in different locations.

Around the end of 1992 Private Eye rtan a front-cover with John and Norma Major, with the title "Major's support lowest ever" and John saying to Norma "Come back norma" on the front cover. What can you read in to that? Not a lot, seems like standard fare for PE. The first time I saw it I was in the pub with some people from work. One was expressing doubts to the other (let's call the first one Simon, shall we? and the second one Phil?) about whether what was going on was right. Phil's answer was that if Private Eye was doing it then it must be ok, "they're usually right".

A few days later, again near work, there were some students laughing in the street, "Were you COMING BACK later? But I thought you said you were COMING BACK ha ha ha?" Play on words, you see. Not very nice, either. I had start medication soon afterwards. Clever people, these chaps who think up PE titles. Just slightly lacking in any sense of morality.

What was the date of the broadcast ?
Out of 2 million plus listeners, why should you be the only one that Tarrant was allegedly referring to ?

Sometyime in spring 1994. I can't remember the date, I heard the broadcast in the car - I was going into the office from London that day and just happened to snap on the radio, and hey presto! Mr Tarrant gives us the benefit of his excellent understanding.

It's an alias. I'm not English by ethnic origin. If someone manages to pronounce

No. Never. Not directly.

>>> ##: Also, in summer 1992 I went on a trip abroad to Europe by coach,

What was the name of the coach company and your date of departure ?

It was a national express coach. At dover we boarded a ferry for Holland somewhere.
The company that organized the trip went out of business some time ago, so they won't have records of passengers - so we can't get any corroboration from anyone else that way. We tried all that last summer, ran into a brick wall.

The other thing is in summer 1992 I was visibly ill, so other people in the party might remember that more than anyone getting at me on the coach trip.

Why were you being painted as a "threat"; is this related Aaaarrrrgh. I think I should make clear that that's their created justification rather than the real reason. They started harassing first and then came up with the reasons for it.

>>> ##: I think I know who set me up.

Who ?

Someone who knew me some time ago. Someone who would have been able to talk this little campaign into existence.

Is this true ? What is the medication and dosage ?

Yes, I'm afraid so. Sulpiride, 200mg a day. It's designed to stop people coming up with the sort of ideas you've heard here for the last few weeks. Give him a higher dose!!

In the long term it causes tardive dyskinesia, tardive dementia and general nasty stuff to your brain. So it's three years of sulpiride talking to you here.

While all you want to do is force YOUR perversions upon those of us who view you as abnormal.

The word is not "pervertion", Mark. Even your third grade education should know better.

I haven't had any complaints concerning my writing ability, unlike you, who has received multiple complaints concerning your spelling and grammer. Furthermore, radio is in my vocabulary, I just don't discuss it with you because you don't know anything about radio. You are nothing more than a CB appliance operator.

Once again Mark tries to talk about something he doesn't know anything about, the diagnosis of mental disorders. He doesn't even know the proper name of the book his is quoting. Dumb Markie, the book is DSM-IV, not 4, idiot. You should stick with subjects that you know something about, but from all of your posts I've read, it appears that you don't know much about anything, other than trying to force your gay agenda onto the rest of the group.

Evidently your better at getting your fudge packed and giving blow jobs than you have been at removing cross posts TYNK! Your actually quite better at it than the one you used to accuse f being one ever was.....so I sure do not know why you used to bitch about Carol all the time. You certainly had no competition.....yu are quite the Top Dog in blow jobs, cross posts and fudge packing and feeding trolls.

Not a liar, because you don't count, you have zero credibility, and therefore your complaints are ignored.

Furthermore, I don't feel compelled to answer each and every point in each and every thread, that would be spamming, something that you are quite familar with doing. Unlike you, I don't dance like a rabid chimp to almost every thread and every post. Would you like me to Mark. Wrong! You DID make the statement that Gav is bisexual.

On March 4, 2007 you said...

"given the truth as it happens he knows I am bisexaul for that matter is something I have in common with his daughter. He does disaprove of it steve but it is not news to him..."

You are correct in part...you indeed did not say she "might" be bisexual,
you said she IS.

Now that we have that out of the way, why don't you stick to radio topics and stop whining about getting back the blog that you think is yours.

I personally do not care one whit about your or Gav's sexual proclivities and would prefer that you, once and for all, shut the F*ck up about it. You sound like one of those looped tape recordings that seem to go on and on and on and on and.....

I offered him a banana but chimpy refused. I think that Mark outed his wife and he is afraid it is going to get back to her, so he tries to lay the blame on me. I am considering mass mailing copies of his little admission to Gave. One is bound to get through. He says that Gave is fully aware of his internet behavior, but I bet she doesn't even know, does your wife know what you do on the computer? Mine doesn't, like most people, your spouse could care less.

Sure Markie, no one believes that BS, either a crime has been commited or it hasn't. LE looked at the facts and obviously said no crime or lack of evidence, either way, it all sounds like made up Mark Morgan BS to me and you never talked to anyone, I asked you for the Det. name and you wouldn't tell me, more MM fantasy. If a crime is committed they have a duty to persue, obviously no crime was commited.

So. Were you born a liar? As in Congenital? (before you punce, this has nothing to do with your genitals...)
Or did you develop your liar's skill while traversing your crooked path in

Somewhere along the way, you seem to have taken a few pages from Roger's

In reference to me, its all BS Mark, you have no proof that I did anything. I ask you once again, how can you have proof if you don't know who I am? How can you declare that a certain person performed an act if you don't know that persons identity. An act may have been commited, I don't know either way, but I did not do anything. I asked you for the Det. name to clear up the matter but you refused, case closed. Move on, I am not going to indulge your fantasy of criminal acts anymore.

> No BS it is assigned a case number and if I can turn enough evidence

Morkins. When someone lodges a complaint of alleged wrongdoing by contacting LE, it is commonplace for the responding officer to ask for, and be given a case number by Dispatch. Doing so is policy in most departments and in no way insinuates that a crime has been committed. It is only a report. Period.

If indeed a case number was generated regarding your complaint, post it for us to see. And while you are at it, post the name of the LE agency that took your complaint.

I further suspect that, IF you are not lying again, the responding officer was not 200 yards from your home before he shook his head and thought to himself, "I got another kook."

And, further. The officer who you allege took the report was most likely a patrol officer who doesn't follow up on such reports, instead turning them over to a Detective for follow-up.

In short? Your alleged complaint is going nowhere.

You are right. Dloyd (and myself) wisely hide our ID's. He does so not because, "he is afraid of what would happen to him" but because he (and others) has seen the pitfalls of being as stupid as yourself.

Show the proof Mark. You've been spouting for months about this alleged proof, yet you cannot provide one iota of evidence that I, Dloyd Lavies did anything illegal.

Yes you do you idiot. Your skewed logic and lie is starting to fall apart. To use someone else's quote, "More Markie Mularkie"

Yes you have, when you said you have proof that I commited a crime, thus declaring I commeted a criminal act. To know that a certain person commited a crime you have to know who that person's identity.
I hope you didn't go to LE and say Dloyd Lavies, did this to me, I'm sure they were covering the mouth piece and laughing.

Not a lie, I specifically asked you for the contact person who was handling your case, you refused to provide that info.
at that time I wanted a name and number, at this point I no longer care.

No you didn't, you refused to provide any names or phone numbers, citing some big conspriacy.

Replying is not indulging, indulging is calling the detective to provided usable information to assist YOU in finding the perps who allegedly took your credit information. At that time, I figured the sooner I got of the suspect list the better, so LE could focus on finding the real perps. Its your credit (if it even happened) not mine, I was willing to cooperate, at this point in time I don't really care, and no longer have any interest in this matter and your lie of a crime.

No, Roger doesn't even go there or have any interest in that, and besides, he wouldn't want to catch Marqueer's AIDS.

Once again Mark C. Morgan, KB9RQZ is proven to be a liar. He outed his wife on this news group but denies such and attempted to put the blame on another.

Yet, here we have Mark doing exactly what he said he did not do,
"out" his wife.

Mark. Wrong! You DID make the statement that Gav is bisexual.
On March 4, 2007 you said...

"given the truth as it happens he knows I am bisexaul for that matter
is something I have in common with his daughter. He does disaprove of it steve but it is not news to him..."

You are correct in part...you indeed did not say she "might" be bisexual,
you said she IS."

The lesson here is don't believe anything that Mark C. Morgan has to say. IMO he is a pathological liar and his behavior is consistent with such. "Pathological liars often actually convince themselves that they are telling the truth. Some have observed that when caught in a lie, pathological liars tend to become hostile or try to disregard the fact they lied."

Not hiding at all, I am easily accessible here, through e-mail, and on my blog, www.kb9rqz.blogspot.com. The truth is that I didn't access any credit information and you have no proof that I did because it didn't happen, but you want to spread this lie in an attempt to bolster support for your eternal "victum" status. When are you going to accept responsibility for your actions of crapping on the NG for years, bickering with anyone who complains about your behavior, and accept that no one likes you here because you are a spammer, kook, and an asshole. BTW let me know when Lloyd Davies changes his name to Dloyd.

No such admission or fear, and nothing would happen except your constant whining and spamming of my personal e-mail box. Just like nothing happened to Steve. I am just wise enough to know why it is not smart to use your real identity on a public news forum, you of all people should understand that. But of course you are not that bright, and since you are a pauper, you have nothing to lose except that junkyard you call home.

Yes, stupid, but not at 12:30 AM.
Mainly it's open during the daytime hours.

No wonder you had to wait until the FCC lowered the standards to get your General. Oh, and tell us why you faked those EME contacts.

Mark, don't back pedal now. You are the one who came out and told the world that your wife is a bi-sexual. It was no assertion, based on your admission she participates in lesbianism and you posted the information weeks before I posted Google's cache of the book information. Why don't you be a man and admit that you outed your wife and stop blaming someone else, namely me, for your error. Besides all of that, since you posted it, what does your wife's sexual behavior has to do with Radio?

I bet Gave would smack the shit out of you for broadcasting her personal information on this NG. You are a poor excuse for a husband.

I see Gareee aka GAry Tabar must have finally after umpteen dozens of hours and much o money and postsgotten his el cheapo sterilite filter to half ass work.......now he is looking for a lilly to lick the dew off. I would have figured him to be looking for a hard tail like his buddy Derek or San Diego Joe

I guess that leaves our old buddy the trans sexual TYNK out of the picture too, but Gareee would probbaly love it ...Hey Gareee want me to set you up with a date with that sex change dude TYNK, or maybe just get Tynks buddy Jan or Gill to set you up with her/him /it!

No you didn't, I am not going to call a LE agency and give them some stupid ass case number that I do not even know if it is real. I wanted a name and number, yet you can't provide such, more reason of why I believe nothing ever happend, furthermore, you said in the beginning that only a few cards were taken, then you tried to bolster your claim by changing it to dozens of cards. Thus losing credibility.

bullshit.

Good job Mark, you successfully trashed RRAP again (with my prodding). Keep on dancing and I will keep on cranking out the melody on the Hurdy Gurdy (notice how I avoided the O word). I don't want Mark getting aroused.

For the same reason the moderators on rec.ponds are afraid to be called on their actins on not following the charters as agreed on.
Typical though from what I hear for l cocksucker types anyhow.

Guess the moderators n rpm all have that don;t give a shit cocksucker

Have you ever heard of the zero point field? It can be used to heal or to kill. There's an organization just forming that has begun sending negative energy to you phallocephalic crossposting fecocerebrals, so your cells will begin to die off. We pick five subjects a month to kill in this completely legal manner. Watch your numbers begin to atrophy.

If you think this is a joke or bullshit, I suggest you note the uncanny sick feeling that is just now beginning to come over you.

What, that you let someone that you don't even know influence you, yes
I agree, you are that infantile.

You keep accusing me of lying, yet you can't prove any of you accusations, just because you don't agree with my opinion does not mean what I say is a lie.

Okay Mark, I stand corrected, you actually posted about 75+ posts per day in March, still excessive when most people only post about 10 or less.

Apparently you are the fool because only your posting behavior is influenced by other people. Most everyone else on here is pretty much in control all of the time and know that one thread of a subject is sufficient. However, you seem to think it is ok to go on a spamming tirade and hijack everyone threads and duplicate your subject title on each and every thread.

I'm about to get on the road (long-haul) as a new trucker and I'm trying to get a handle on what would be a good CB for the truck I hope to get assigned (a Pete 387).

A trucker friend said that he thought Galaxy is a good brand to go with. So, I'm thinking of going with one of their models, but don't know which one to pick. I gather the DX-959 has been a popular model. OTOH, the new 979 looks like it has a smaller form factor that might fit in the dash.

Any and all advice is welcome. Thanks ahead of time.

Now that has to be the funniest thing I have heard in a long time.
But considering it comes from someone, who by their own rationale, is not sane. What would you expect.

So, this brings me to my question about 10 Meter radios. Are these like CB radios on steroids?

I see the disclaimer that operating these radios is unlawful without an amateur radio operator's license. Does this law ever get enforced?

In terms of practical usage, are 10 meters preferable to CBs? What I mean is, does the extra power really matter in the day-to-day real world life of your typical trucker?

Thanks.

that does depends on the radio

Yes it does

and BTW the license is NOW very easy to get a single exam 35 q's and 75 perecent score required get a fair section of 10 a second exam the same size gives the rest of 10 and most of Ham HF

check arrl.org for details

Plonk! Gotcha! Another one gone. Like weeding a garden.

No, actually, what's pathetic is people like you and your pals wasting a human life for such sad, sick pursuits. When it ends, one day soon, and you look back on what you did with your ever-dwindling time on Earth, that will be all the Hell you deserve and perhaps a bit more.

This was once a valuable source of information and a forum for those who love the original Minis and Mini Coopers. Then you types came in and expressed yourselves by shitting in the ice cream instead of enjoying the party and ruined it for the people who did enjoy it.

Now, you and the rest of you know that there's not a damned thing I can do to stop your execrable behavior, but that's not the point: you are already paying the price for what you're doing, by being the kind of humans who do such things. It's a miserable human who chooses this path.

People who are pleased and successful in their lives do not waste their precious time crossposting adolescent nastiness. It works both ways.

What I would like to see here is a group of Mini enthusiasts, who would like to take back this newsgroup by filtering out all of the misbehaving juveniles and those who crosspost crap.

It's like, the filter makes them go to another dimension, where it doesn't matter what they do, since they are invisible and inaudible.

I expect this to be my last reply to a crossposted message.

Trust me. I had the 949. Go with Uniden. I had to re-align the Galaxy every 2 weeks, especially in winter. Luckily, they emailed me a quickie alignment procedure. But that bordered on the ridiculous. I stuck a freq counter on my Uniden, and the thing is rock steady. And that was the same freq counter I had on the Galaxy.

Rarely. Mostly at the vendor's side, not the buyer's side.

If you are going to talk on channel 19 only, the Uniden is fine. If you want to take on any 40, the Uniden is fine. If you want more power and the ability to talk off of the CB frequencies, then get a 10 meter.

But again, most 10 meter radios are the Galaxy, Ranger, Connex, etc, type. Most are made by the Ranger company, and they drift terribly. Cobra came out with the new 10 meter, but they make them in China, and I heard they perform like they are made in China.

It looks increasingly like Uniden would be the way to go. And I can live with the amber backlight!

Question: what does a frequency counter do? What does it do for the CB radio user? And related to this, what would be a good make/model to use with the Uniden PC78ELITE?

Sorry to couple so much ignorance with so many questions. But I sure do appreciate the help.

Thanks.

I use it for Sideband, to lock in off-frequency stations. You don't need it for AM. I had it on my Galaxy 949, and that is how I noticed the drift. It's also useful if you have extra channels added to the Uniden, otherwise, you don't need it. The radio I replaced the Galaxy with is, the Uniden Grant LT. They stopped making it, and it's the Sideband version of the radios you are looking at. My backlight is light green.

No big deal. Galaxies are immensly popular, more so than Uniden. They are loud on AM. But I had both, and the Uniden is superior. The Galaxy drift problems are also no secret. Get a nice noise canceling mic like the Turner or Astatic. Also, there is a noise cancelling power mic which is called the Road Devil. Stay away from roger beeps and echoes. Half the trucker I here with echo, I cannot understand. They sound like complete shit.

Vinnie, thanks a lot for all the input. I'll probably leave the 10-bands to some future (if ever) point in time -- perhaps, if and when I develop more of an interest in ham radio, etc. So, I'll go with the PC78ELITE. BTW, I find it interesting that Uniden doesn't appear to market any 10-bands

Someone else posted a link to a Magnum radio being sold at copper.com and they seem to have a really good price on the Uniden:
http://www.copper.com/cart/product_info.php?products_id=617

Copper Electronics looks like an established and (I hope) reputable seller. So, I'll probably order from them and try to get my antenna from them as well.

Thanks again for all the help.

Carefull with Copper. I have heard horror stories about their return policy.
Once they sell it to you, they won't take it back. Even if you have to pay $10 or so, get it from a place that will accept returns.

Here is Amazon for $20 more than Copper, but they have free shipping:

http://www.amazon.com/Uniden-PC78-Elite-40-Channel-Ergonomic/dp/B0001YFW1C

I have had great satisfaction with Amazon. They have a great return policy.

>Thanks again for all the help.

No problem. I heard that Road Devil mic is pretty good for truckers in a high noise environment:

You can get the Road Devil cheaper on ebay:

http://tinyurl.com/2a2dmy

Also, I think the radio you have has weather. If you don't need it, don't get it. I think the all the Elite have weather and backlight. If you get the PC78XL or 68XL, they are essential the same without the weather and backlight.

Whoah! Thanks for the warning on Copper. The last thing I need right now is a return hassle, as I'm trying to get myself equipped to hit the road so I can... hit the road! I'll probably avoid them per your advice, thought their prices tempt me to at least research their stated return policy.

I'm all for getting one of the mics you recommend, but this brings a question: it seems that the PC78ELITE comes with a mic. Should I just assume that the include mic will just not be up-to-snuff?

Thanks again.

It seems that tinurl may have glitched your link. When I click it, I

Seems like the weather service would be a good idea... but then again, I say this from the perspective of newbie who don't know much! And as much as I'm not nuts about amber, I'd rather have an amber backlight that none at all.

Thanks for your comments.

10 meter radios are not CB and require an Amateur (Ham) Radio operator's license issued by the FCC to transmit on the 10 meter ham band. You have to take a test to get a ham license. For you to use a radio on the 10 meter band without a license is illegal and the FCC is monitoring 10 meters for such activity.

I think being on ch 19, other truckers would give you as good weather info as

I guess you're right. But...

I was on the road last winter (with a trainer) and he kept the CB on a lot. And I have to admit that sometimes I got pretty tired of listening to what seemed like a lot of BS'n around. But maybe that wasn't channel 19. If it was, then it seems like one might want to hear about the weather from other truckers but might not be able to amidst all the chatterboxes out there. In such a case, it occurs to me, it might be good to have a dedicated weather channel as a fallback.

No, actually you posted it first and made it a topic of interest on RRAP, on March 4, you posted that your wife was bi-sexual, I didn't post anything pertaining to the subject until March 27. What say you now?

No wonder ham radio is populated with so many aging bald-headed bellybulging bigots.
I saw em parade by on the Dayton Hamvention camera never seen such a pathetic
looking bunch since the last model train and toy show I visited.

What does 8.913mhz have to do with 75 meters? And if you knew anything about CW, if you run a 250hz CW filter like a lot of cw ops do, you usually won't even hear anyone on the frequency with you if they are using voice (thus no jamming going on, just sharing the frequency). Furthermore, someone sending code does not mean they are a cw op or even passed an cw exam, a lot of no code techs use CW send with a keyboard not a key. Nevertheless,that is why CW is superior for passing traffic under poor conditions when compared to voice.

Yes you did, this is what you said:

"given the truth as it happens he knows I am bisexaul for that matter
is something I have in common with his daughter. He does disaprove of it steve but it is not news to him..."

You said that you are bi, it is something that you have in common with your wife. Therefore, you said your wife is bi-sexual. Couldn't be any clearer than that.

It became eveyone's affair when you posted it on this PUBLIC News Group. It was your choice to post the information abougt sex on this amateur radio news group, you have no one to blame but yourself.

I am not stalking you, I am exercising my right to respond to your

the net or send you email. I keep my comments to the NG's and my blog.

It doesn't matter who you were giving a response. The fact remains and the point I am making is you unwarrantly accused me of revealing private information about your wife by implying she is a lesbian/bisexual, when in fact you did so yourself, four weeks before I posted the info, you made the information not private when you posted your revelation about your wife's sexuality to this very public news group. So therefore, the fact is YOU outed your wife, no one else did. She was already out before I posted anything. So be a man own up to your mistake and aplogize to your wife for your screw up.

No Mark, I really don't. Although I would like to read your outlandish extrapolated claim of how 8.913 mhz has anything to do with a band which the frequency range is 3.900 mhz to 4.050 mhz, or did you screw up again and not know your bands, appliance operator. 8P

Mark calls my response raving. Mark always whines about responses that are one more than one sentence because, a. Mark can't handle that much information at one time, and b. Mark is not capable of authoring anything more than his little one line snippits without making his response look like someone ate alphabet soup and then threw up on your

On rec.ponds MiMi made mention of "An email from Tynk" about what we are doing.
I "replied to author" on Swarvergorilla's post to me about being a baby, etc and wanted to test to see if they were either MiMi, a puppet, or to be trusted.
Obviously, they failed bigtime. It's either MiMi herself, or somebody who knows her private email address and fed her my bullcrap.

The proof is here: ((Read this parti n particular aimed at Carol Gulley, its intentionally meant to screw with yu and create turmoil))

I made up an email, yet made it sound good too. I added all sorts of links to her posts in other screen names, etc.
I said "we're trying a new tactic...making fun of her". Of course this wasn't true as none of us have had a pow wow about doing so. It was a completely made up test email. I was fishing, so to speak.
Well...Swarve who ever they are, failed bigtime. All of a sudden Carol is talking about (made 2 referrences to this email on the pond groups and the aquaria misc group) how she knows the "new plan" and that she got an email from Tynk.
I just wanted to give you folks the behind the scenes look at what she and Swarvegorilla are up to.
So be careful what you say and to whome.
If I go "fishing" again, I'll let you guys in on it first though.

So TYNK and GILL Passman and Jan Jordan admit they intentionally created a stir in the grups just to fuck with Carol Gulley and create a mess to promote a moderated group....

I forgot more about ponds and koi than I'll ever know!

Evidently some of the moderators from rec.ponds. moderated got loose again and are breeding. TYNK was probably in season and accounts for a large portion olf the roach infestation

Now don't go changing my post and try to backpeddle. You orginally posted " and hearing cw used to try and jam 8.913mhz" but your are to much of a kook and weirdo to admit your mistake.

I know the ham band allocations, but unfortunely you do not.
Apparently, 8.913 mhz has nothing to do with 75 meters, and when you learn to spell, maybe we can talk.

Why don't you admit your mistake, instead of backpeddling, and trying to cover it up with your lie and forgery.

It wasn't personal, your wife posted the information to a public profile and web page, and actually I did not give it out, Google did when I performed a simple search. I just posted to the NG to refute your claims of "so many friends". No crime no personal information whatsoever.

What demands, that you stay off of my blog and stop crapping on my posts. Simple requests that most normal people can comprehend and respect, but since you are a kook you can't, you seem to think you have the right to do and say whatever you want, but when others do so you whine like a little girl. Its simple do you want to disengage, or do you want to continue, so far the score is Dloyd 3 Mark 0.

Yep. Markie probably couldn't figure out 8.913 MHz is between the 41 and 31 meter bands.
Plus it's a Marine band frequency.

First I am not Steve, you seem to think you know my identity, and you haven't even been close. But concerning accusations, you falsely accuse people all the time without on shred of evidence, and you want to talk of proof. You should wake up and pull your head out of your

What rules??? How about the rules you break when you crap on everyone's posts, talk about sex, spamm the group with your posting tirade? Nevertheless, I can choose who I like and who I don't. You appear to think just because you have a ham license, you somehow have some special significance with others, guess what, you don't.

I don't need to prove it, that information is on a need to know basis, and you don't need to know. You just want to keep guessing hoping that you will get it right one day, fat chance.

Bull, as an example, you accused me of hacking into accounts and stealing data, the data that you wife posted on a public accessible web page, yet you still haven't shown one iota of proof of any hacking or stealing, just your lies and buffoonery.

Too late, you already jacked this thread when you took itto a personal level with you snide comment about me and changing the title about me, once a thread has been jacked, it can't be done twice. Once again YOU are the thread jacker.

I don't read Morse Code, I hear and decipher Morse Code by ear, again if you knew anything about amateur radio and put forth the effort you claimed you did trying to learn the code, you would know exactly how Morse Code works.

Yes you did, you indicated that your wife is a bi-sexual four weeks before I posted anything about your wife. I would love to speak with your wife, I would like to know if she has full knowledge of your level of particpation in this fiasco, that you are no "victum" and are just another participant.

> I never added to the sm total of materail conerning the multiyears

Your right, instead you confirmed the very fact that you attempted to conceal for years, four weeks before the info was posted.

So, no laws were broken, your wife provided the evidence on a publicly accessible web page that was cached by Google, it was her who added the evidence to the fire, so to speak.
> I acusse you only of what you have done

No, you accused me of a criminal acts of hacking and stealing protected data, when in fact it was not protected and no hacking occurred. Once again I ask you were is the proof that I did anything illegal. Why don't you admit that you over-reacted, erred on the side of caution, and voluntarily cancelled the cards on your own , like a reasonable person would do. Instead of the ridiculous hacking story that you keep harping.

You give me too much credit with the hacking story, and the truth would make you look like a more rational person that the stupid "victum" role you like to play. Do you really think anyone here or in LE believes that I hacked into Amazon. Amazon would be out of business if any joe schmoe could just hack in anytime they wanted. Net security is their number one priority, because they know that without first rate security, they wouldn't stay in business very long.

Your groundless allegations count for nothing. Nada. More empty accusations from an equally empty head.

Keep up these baseless accusations and Steve may well have actionable grounds...

Not at all. No Red Herring. None at all. You made a baseless accusation that Steve committed a felony. In effect, without any proof, you lied. What is new?

Apparently you cannot do so.

The topic was, and is, about YOUR accusations that Steve is a felon. Don't change the topic.

A Felony does not occur because YOU think it has, regardless of the elements. You are not the Prosecutor, you are not the Judge. You have no expertise in Law Enforcement. None at all.

Headline for you, Dufus. It is not your call to accuse someone of a Felonious act. This is beyond your scope.

Wrong! Get this thru your thick head. Because you say so, does not make it so.

Yet you have no qualms regarding accusing others of "made-up" crimes in your scheme of things.

Oh, sure. Just like you are a Geologist, a Geophysicist,(sp?) an authority in magnetic resonance, an authority in just about anything you care to lie about on a particular day.
It might surprise you, Morkie, to find out that I have far more LE training than you claim to have. And I was not a Reserve...I walked the walk. You are a phony.

The rest of your idiocy was lost on me when you said, "Nothing I post allows steve t blacktry and blackmail me a s he has done In usenet and Private email"

Sorry, Mark, but that was pure gibberish.

indeed as you YOU attack mine

as whn steve made many TOTALY and proavbly false accusation about me that was ok with you

Atacking someone name is not a crime (or steve would be in prison by now most likely)

but steve has no good name

Yes here is the proof, this is exactly what you said on March 4, 2007:

"given the truth as it happens he knows I am bisexaul for that matter
is something I have in common with his daughter"

You said that you are bi, it is something that you have in common with your wife. Therefore, you said your wife is bi-sexual, thus outing her.

I have plenty of business talking to her. I would inform her about how you posted her private business on RRAP and then try to convince everyone that someone else did so. How you are spreading her personal affairs all over Usenet, you are a low life piece of shit for what you did to your wife.

So what? I'll tell you what, you were discussing sex on an amateur radio NG. So again I ask, what does your wife's sexuality has to do with ham radio?

I am telling the truth, you informed the group that your wife was bisexual, thus outing her. I don't care about the years you spent entertaining others with your whining. I for one haven't cared to follow your continuing soap opera on here.

Why can't you own up to the fact that no one outed your wife but you?

Because you went on a tirade of "Why is sex a topic on a radio NG"
When the true facts is you also brought it up, you try to imply that we are all guilty of such and you are so innocent. When the fact is you are just as much a participant as the rest.

Still I ask, why can't you own up to the fact that no one outed your wife but you?

You do that too by bringing up yours and your wife's sex proclivities.

Still I ask, why can't you own up to the fact that no one outed your wife but you?

lying. You don't work much DX on 20 meters at night, stupid.

Revision for June 14, 2007: As of 1600 UTC, Mark has made a total of 103 drivel posts today. K4YZ forgeries have been included in the count.

Mark is living proof that Hughes Net sucks.

In message <1174929882.797290.192310@d57g2000hsg.googlegroups.com>, Mark Morgan admitted that he is trying to disrupt the news groups by saying, "... I am aware that I do anoy them and as an inicdental to main main objective distrupt their NG experence that is regreatble and regrreted [sic]" -- By so stating, he admits to violating the terms of service of all major ISPs.

No lie; just a count of articles on my news server. Specifically, you posted 8 articles to rram and 95 articles to rrap as of the stated time. My news server retains articles for three years after they are posted, and it is very easy to write a script to count articles for any given date, as well as to do scans for the true identities of current anonymous posters.

Posts forged in your name are filtered out, but your recent forgeries of K4YZ are not filtered out. Thus, my count is accurate.

In message <1174929882.797290.192310@d57g2000hsg.googlegroups.com>, Mark Morgan admitted that he is trying to disrupt the news groups by saying, "... It is YOU who are the lying sack, and I'm going to prove it by giving you and the other readers of this post a little lesson in reading headers.

Last Monday, a sizeable number of posts was made with headers like the following:

>- From: k4yz-1@hotmail.com
>- Newsgroups: rec.radio.amateur.policy
>- Subject: markie at play
>- Date: Mon, 11 Jun 2007 18:07:01 -0700

STOP RIGHT HERE and look at the line above which was added by Google.
It gives the IP address of the submitting host. That host is also known as AC5-Webproxy31.direcpc.com, and it is a web proxy belonging to HughesNet.

Are you going to tell us that Steve has a direcpc account?

Let's go on and look at the headers from a post you made today (6/14).
They are:

>- From: an_old_friend <konstans@hotmail.com>

STOP RIGHT HERE. Notice the leading spaces in the From: header? Odd, isn't it, that they're the same as in the previous k4yz-1 post?

>- Newsgroups: rec.radio.amateur.policy
>- Subject: Dloyd Lavies, Usenet Moron and Thread Hi-Jacker and Supreme hypocrtie

>- NNTP-Posting-Host: 66.82.9.44

STOP RIGHT HERE. See that IP address above? Weird, isn't it, that that IP address was only slightly different than the earlier IP address and belongs to AC5-Webproxy45.direcpc.com?

Of course it isn't weird. Both posts were made by you, and in the first post YOU DID INDEED FORGE K4YZ'S IDENTITY!

In your own words, that makes YOU the lying sack of shit!

No, lie, and no thread jacking, the topic was the topic of sex on this NG, which I am still posting in reference to your continued sex talk on this NG. I case you haven't noticed, threads evolve, unfortunately, something you apparently are unable to do.

Actually, Mark is upset because we won't let him have free reign to crap on everyone's post and attempt to force other hams to accepting his abnormal sexual behavior.

In Leviticus 18:22 and 20:13, the Torah prohibits "mishkivei isha", a man laying with another man as he would lay with a woman. Historically Judaism has understand this mitzvah as directly or indirectly prohibiting homosexuality. Outside of Judaism, most of Western civilization has usually seen homosexuality as a willful perversion, or a rebellion against God's will.

The Torah states "Do not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it is a to'evah" (Leviticus 18:22, New JPS) and "If a man lies with a male as one lies with a woman, the two of them have done a to'evah; they shall be put to death." (Leviticus 20:13, New JPS).
The word to'evah is usually translated as "abomination" and is used in the Bible to refer to a variety of forbidden acts including incest, idolatry, eating unclean animals, and acts of economic injustice.

No, Markie, when you spam like this, you ARE upset.

>Dloyd you are the one pissed you can't use the NG freely

But, Markie, if you "aren't gay" as you claim, how can anybody be "gay bashing" you?

You are either lying about being gay or sticking your idiocy in where it doesn't belong...sort of like when you stick your schlong in your 17 year old boyfriend's rectum.

No, no thread jacking, the topic was the topic of sex on this NG, which I am still posting in reference to your continued sex talk on this NG. In case you haven't noticed, threads evolve,

unfortunately, something you apparently are unable to do.

It took me a while to figure out your reference, since "John Smith" is in my kill file most of the time.

John Smith is, of course, a poser who knows far less about the Internet than he pretends.

When you connect to Google, you can't fake your IP address. You are either arriving through a proxy, or else you are arriving directly.
Either way, Google inserts that address (which it obtains from the incoming tcp packets) into its NNTP-Posting-Host header. If the IP packets had a forged return address, the tcp connection couldn't be maintained and the post couldn't be made. That's the way that TCP/IP protocol works, and you can't avoid Google knowing which machine has connected to it.

Oh, someone could find a badly configured news server (one which accepts the IHAVE command from anyone), and in that case he could forge almost everything. Everything, that is, except the Path header. The only thing he could do with the Path header is to preload it.

I won't go into any more detail, except to say that the Path header in the posts I examined says that the forged K4YZ posts really did come from Google, thereyby making the NNTP-Posting-Host header reliable. It isn't a preloaded Path header, because it has the correct attributes when viewed via two different NSPs. You can't preload the Path header well enough so that it isn't obvious when viewed via several different NSPs.

In my expert opinion, the posts in question were forged by you. "John Smith's" opinion is technically naive and without merit.

You are a forger who made the mistake of lying about it to a hacker whose experience goes back to the ARPANET days of the 70's. Q.E.D.

You haven't won, I have. I have completely made you look like a total moron and boob, playing you like the puppet you are for months. You see, I can walk away, get on the air and nobody knows the difference and knows no connection between me and RRAP, but for you, your rep is about as tarnished as you can get, when you get on the air, especially 75 meters, those who read RRAP will not work KB9RQZ because you look like an odd ball, a weirdo, and kook. Your just too stupid to realize, but I have been winning for months, and will continue to win as long as I can make you keep dancing, posting like a rabid monkey.

Keep on Dancing Mark. Listen good, the old Hurdy Gurdy is about to play another tune.

International Museums Weekend

The International Museums Weekend takes place on the 16th and 17th of June. This amateur radio special event has grown in popularity since the first event was held in 2002.

Among past participants are The Tower of London, HMS Belfast and the US battleship New Jersey. The Howth Martello Radio Group will be participating again this year, operating from the Vintage Radio Museum in Howth. Visitors are welcome to call and operate the station over the weekend. The museum web site is www.qsl.net/ei5em/museum.html. A full list of participating museums and further information of the event is available from the organiser's web site www.ukradioamateur.co.uk/imw.

Tipperary Amateur Radio Group

The next monthly meeting of the Tipperary Amateur Radio Group will take place in Raheen House Hotel Clonmel on Thursday next the 7th of June at 8.00 p.m.

South Eastern Amateur Radio Group

Two theory revision classes will take place prior to the theory exam in June. The date of the first class is this coming Tuesday the 5th of June. The following revision class will take place two weeks later on Tuesday the 19th of June. Classes start at 7.30 p.m. and will be held at the usual venue of the Roanmore Centre, Waterford.

A committee meeting will take place on Monday the 4th of June at 8.00 p.m. Committee members are asked to attend.

Rallies

Bangor & District Amateur Radio Society Rally will take place on Sunday the 17th of June in the Crawfordsburn Country Park, Helen's Bay, Co. Down. The Cork Radio Club Rally will take place on Sunday the 23rd of September in the Blarney Park Hotel, Blarney, Co. Cork and the Mayo Radio Rally will be on Sunday the 18th of November in the Belmont Hotel, Knock, Co. Mayo.

A full listing of upcoming rallys is available on www.irts.ie.

Marconiï¿½s Wireless Telegraph in Ireland, ï¿½Alpha/Omega Tourï¿½

In 1907, Guglielmo Marconiï¿½s dream of fixed point-to-point wireless telegraph stations linking North America and Europe became a reality. Derrygimla near Clifden, County Galway served as the site of his wireless station. Over the next 15 years, spark-induced blue flashes generated by the stationï¿½s massive 20 kV generators sent tens of thousands of wireless messages across the Atlantic, linking to its North American counterpart at Glace Bay, Nova Scotia.

2007 marks the centennial of those first sparks generated from Marconiï¿½s historic Clifden station. To commemorate this significant event, as well as radioï¿½s first-ever commercial venture at Ballycastle-Rathlin, Hal W8HC announces a special amateur radio operation from both locations central to Marconiï¿½s fame and success as a pioneer in wireless technology. Ballycastle-Rathlin was his first wireless telegraph station and the Clifden station would be his last, ceasing operation in 1922.

On Saturday and Sunday, August the 4th and 5th. Hal will operate from Ballycastle as GI/W8HC/p. He will be also taking part in the annual Marconi Festival at Ballycastle with the Marconi Radio Groupï¿½s MNï¿½MRG special event station on Sunday the 5th of August. On Monday the 6th of August, he will ferry over to Rathlin Island (EU-122) and operate from East Lighthouse (ARLS designator NTI 011).

He will arrive in Clifden on Wednesday the 8th of August where he will operate as EI/W8HC/p at the Derrygimla site on Thursday and Friday the 9th and 10th of August. It is hoped that some operating time can also occur from nearby Letterfrack, site of an ancillary receive station built in 1912 to allow for full duplex operation of the transatlantic signals.

All QSOs will be confirmed via LOTW and special QSLs from each of these historic Marconi locations will be printed and sent via GlobalQSL www.globalqsl.com. In addition, a specially designed certificate will be issued to those stations making contact with both GI and EI operations from either Ballycastle or Rathlin and Derrygimla or Letterfrack. In keeping with the historic connection, all QSOs from these locations will be CW only. Limited mobile phone operation will take place during transit in both GI and EI.

Contests

The CW field day will take place in two weeks time on the 2nd and 3rd of June and the VHF/UHF field day will take place on the weekend of the 7th and 8th of July.

The RSGB IOTA contest will be held on the 28th and 29th of July.

Ladies Mini Marathon

The 2007 Flora Ladies Mini Marathon takes place on Bank Holiday Monday the 4th of June at 3.00 pm. It starts from Fitzwilliam Square, and finishes in Stephens Green Dublin 2. Sadly this yearï¿½s event will happen without the familiar voice of Donnchadh Oï¿½Shea who traditionally operated the net control station. This yearï¿½s public service event will be dedicated to his memory. The co-ordinator for the event again this year will be George Adjaye who may be contacted by phone on 086 2586103 or Fax 01 4908546 or email ï¿½george_adjayeg at dcu.ieï¿½.

Theory Examination

The next Theory Examination for the Experimenters Licence will be held on Thursday the 28th of June next. Places for the examination are limited and will be allocated on a ï¿½first come first servedï¿½ basis. Intending candidates should forward the appropriate fee to Seï¿½n Nolan EI7CD, 12 Little Meadow, Pottery Road Dunlaoghaire, Co. Dublin. The fee is 50 Euro or 25 Euro for full time registered students, those who are retired, are unemployed or have a disability. In addition to the exam centre at the ComReg offices in Dublin an examination will be held on the same date and with the same paper at the Community Centre, Carrigtwohill, Co. Cork.

The closing date for the examination is the 16th of June and it will be strictly adhered to. Sean's e-mail address for further enquiries is "ei7cd at gofree dot indigo dot ie".

EI75IRTS

Just a reminder that as part of the Societyï¿½s Jubilee Celebrations, the IRTS has been allocated the call sign EI75IRTS for the duration of 2007. The licence holder is Finbarr Buckley EI1CS, and with his agreement, the call sign may be used by individual and club members holding a current Radio Experimenterï¿½s licence.

Individual and club members of the IRTS can apply to use the call sign EI75IRTS during the rest of the year. More information is available on www.irts.ie.

Items for inclusion in next weeks Radio News should be forwarded to Mark Wall, EI7IS at QTHR or by phone to 051-853806 or 087-6302026. Items for the radio news can also be faxed to 087 5 6302026. News should be submitted via e-mail to ï¿½news at irts dot ieï¿½ for automatic forwarding to both the radio and printed news services. Please note that items for the radio news should reach the editor no later than midday on Friday in order to be guaranteed inclusion in the following Sundayï¿½s bulletin.

Irish Radio Transmitters Society
Radio News Bulletin

Sunday June 10th 2007

CW Field Day

Three Irish field day stations were heard during last weekend's CW Field Day. Shannon Basin Radio Club, using the call sign EI3Z/P, and South Dublin Radio Club (EI2SDR/P) battled it out in the grounds of Garbally College in Ballinasloe, County Galway, while well known EI contester Paul EI5DI operated with the "GI Brass Pounders" (call sign GI6YM/P) in County Antrim. Although the weather was not so kind, band conditions were generally good. There was a lot of Solar activity over the weekend, following the M3 flare on Friday 1st June, making band openings unpredictable. However 10 metres and 15 metres were open for some hours on Saturday and also briefly on Sunday.

The majority of QSOs were with other field day stations in IARU Region 1, particularly UK and German stations. However all participants reported calls from DX stations, with Australian, African and South Pacific call signs in the logs.

Theory Examination

Next Saturday, the 16th of June is the closing date for those intending to sit the theory examination for an Experimenter's Licence to be held on Thursday the 28th of June.

As announced last week all of the places for the exam centre at the ComReg offices in Dublin have already been allocated. In addition to the Dublin exam centre an examination will also be held on the same date and time and with the same paper at the Community Centre, Carrigtwohill, Co. Cork. Anyone who intends sitting the exam at this centre and who has not already done so would need to forward the appropriate fee immediately to Seï¿½n Nolan EI7CD, 12 Little Meadow, Pottery Road, Dunlaoghaire, Co Dublin.

The fee is 50 Euro or 25 Euro for full time registered students those who are retired, unemployed have a disability or are repeating the examination. Remember, the closing date for applications is Saturday next the 16th of June and for administrative reasons this date has to be strictly enforced. Seï¿½n's e mail address for further enquiries is ei7cd at gofree dot indigo dot ie and his postal address may be found in the call book section of the IRTS website at www.irts.ie.

International Museums Weekend

The International Museums Weekend takes place on the 16th and 17th of June. This amateur radio special event has grown in popularity since the first event was held in 2002.

Among past participants are The Tower of London, HMS Belfast and the US battleship New Jersey. The Howth Martello Radio Group will be participating again this year, operating from the Vintage Radio Museum in Howth. Visitors are welcome to call and operate the station over the weekend. The museum web site is www.qsl.net/ei5em/museum.html. A full list of participating museums and further information of the event is available from the organiser's web site www.ukradioamateur.co.uk/imw.

South Eastern Amateur Radio Group

The date of the next theory revision class will take place on Tuesday the 19th of June at 7.30 p.m. in the Roanmore Centre, Waterford.

The next general meeting will take place on Monday the 26th of June at 8.00 p.m. in the Roanmore Centre, Waterford.

Comeragh Cycle Race

The national under 23 road racing championship will take place in Waterford on the 1st of July. Richie EI9HR is event Co-ordinator and he is being assisted by John EI8JA. This years race will be on a greater scale with over 160 riders taking part. The Civil Defence have come on board this year to help with marshalling and RTE will be filming the event.

AREN will provide the communications for safe traffic management and accident reporting. There will be more radio reporting points and mobile stations than last year so more radio operators are required. Again newcomers are welcome and training will be provided on the morning of the race. This is an excellent opportunity for operators to put their radio skills to good use in a very enjoyable and rewarding way for the benefit of the Community. All operators irrespective of experience are welcome.

Please contact Richie on mobile 085-1465465 or evenings on 051-854315. You can also contact Richie by e-mail at "ei9hr at yahoo dot com".

Rallys

Bangor & District Amateur Radio Society Rally will take place on Sunday the 17th of June in the Crawfordsburn Country Park, Helen's Bay, Co. Down. The Cork Radio Club Rally will take place on Sunday the 23rd of September in the Blarney Park Hotel, Blarney, Co. Cork, the Waterford Rally will take place on the 21st of October 2007 in the Woodlands Hotel, Waterford and the Mayo Radio Rally will be on Sunday the 18th of November in the Belmont Hotel, Knock, Co. Mayo.

A full listing of upcoming rallys is available on www.irts.ie.

Items for inclusion in next weeks Radio News should be forwarded to Mark Wall, EI7IS at QTHR or by phone to 051-853806 or 087-6302026. Items for the radio news can also be faxed to 087 5 6302026. News should be submitted via e-mail to news at irts dot ie for automatic forwarding to both the radio and printed news services. Please note that items for the radio news should reach the editor no later than midday on Friday in order to be guaranteed inclusion in the following Sundays bulletin.

This is WIANEWS for week commencing JUNE 3 2007

New National Standard Built Around Amateur Radio

The Commonwealth Department of Education Science and Technology has endorsed
a new competency standard, called:-
"Operate and maintain an amateur radio communication station".

The standard approximates the syllabus for a Standard amateur operators certificate of proficiency.

This means the there is now a nationally recognised standard built around amateur radio. This is a link between amateur radio and education and industry. Competency to this standard can be an element in an electro-technology qualification.

It certainly should make amateur radio as an activity much more attractive to schools.

However, it is important to note that holding the competency will not qualify
the holder for an amateur licence which still requires WIA certification to ACMA of competency in the theory, regulatory and practical elements of the syllabus.

WIA President Michael Owen VK3KI welcomed the Departments endorsement, saying that he hoped that schools would be encouraged to support amateur radio activities and also acknowledged the work of the WIA's Nominated RTO, Fred Swainston VK3DAC in achieving this recognition of amateur radio.

Previous Editor of Westlakes Amateur Radio Magazine, Frank, VK2FJL in his May edition told how, on May 16 Barry VK2BZI was awakened by a telephone call from the Australian Search and Rescue in Canberra requesting he locate an EPIRP that the Westpac helicopter said was near the 16 ft. Sailing Club at Belmont NSW.

With RDF receiver, a Potomac FIM 71 Field Strength meter, x Government Auctions he left home and as he neared Belmont Bay the familiar signal of an EPIRB was starting to be heard.

At Belmont 16 footer Sailing Club the signal was very strong, bearing parallel to the shore. The transmitter was either in the club or west of the club and west of the club is not easy access.

VK2BZI called in the water police to help check west of the club and proceeded to check out the club premises.

The club is built over water and it was necessary to send a volunteer under the club in case a floating device had washed underneath.

However with some sleuthing on Barry's part he found the EPIRP laying behind some flowers in the front garden of one of the houses west of the club where it had been left running, actually he located its position not by the RDF but by the switching noise it made whilst it transmitted.

His well used and slightly deaf human ear found the device.

Finally disabling he advised ASAR and thanked all who assisted and was back hom e
by morning cuppa time.

BPL INTERFERENCE - THE BATTLE CONTINUES

WIA Director Delivers BPL Presentation to 2007 IIR FleetMobile Conference in Sydney.

WIA Director Phil Wait (VK2DKN) delivered a presentation on BPL to the IIR 2007 FleetMobile conference held at Star City in Sydney, over the 28-30th of May.

The conference was attended by about 100 executives and business managers responsible for communications and IT in Government Radio Networks including State, Federal and New Zealand Police, Fire Departments, Defence, Emergency Services, and representatives from ACMA and commercial organizations such as Telstra, Motorola and Cisco.

The theme of the conference was the converged future of communications-realizing significant operational benefit by achieving intelligent mobile communications strategies.
Discussion cantered around new communications technologies which bring together disparate communications systems and technologies into a single operational platform, and where ad-hoc communications links can be easily and quickly formed between different agencies or different parts of an agency to suit the immediate communications needs.

Shortly all forms of information such as, voice, data, location and mapping, video, SMS GPRS and GSM, Email and Internet, will be able to be shared seamlessly between different operators using quite different communications systems. This is especially valuable in disaster response situations where emergency services have at times had difficulty establishing robust communications links with each other.

In short, the traditional divide between voice and data transmission is no more.

This was a very valuable opportunity for the WIA to highlight its concerns about the potential for BPL interference to HF radio communications.
As Phil stated, "the unique thing about HF radio is that, unlike other newer technologies, it does not require infrastructure which can easily be destroyed in times of disaster or conflict. There will always be a place for HF radio and its utility must be protected".

The WIA's presentation was extremely well received. A copy of the PowerPoint presentation and the video can be downloaded from the WIA's BPL page. This is a large file and will require a broadband connection and a copy of Microsoft PowerPoint. Clubs and others are welcome to use this presentation without modification.

Sadly, Bill Rice VK3ABP an old stalwart of the Federal WIA, at age 80 years old a week ago, passed away quietly sitting in his favourite chair at about 5.00 pm Tuesday.

Bill will be remembered by many as the longest ever serving editor of Amateur Radio magazine. Bill joined the AR Publications Committee in 1972, became editor in July 1984 and continued in the position until December 1999.

Older amateurs will remember Bill as a keen 2 m operator and constructor.
The VK3ABP 2 m valve converter, described in Amateur Radio around 1970, is arguably the most replicated radio equipment ever described in the magazine.

Next week we will bring you a special tribute to this new octogenarian, now sadly silent key. VK3ABP

School radio club calling CQ IRLP

The Bishop Druit College Radio Club at Coffs Harbour on the mid-north coast of New South Wales is looking VK, ZL or Asia-Pacific contacts on IRLP.

The students who have been experimenting with building simple FM radio receivers are also keen to have some on air operating experiences.

IRLP contacts with interested parties or similar school electronic/radio groups would be great - but the club only has limited time during the local lunchtime period.

The station equipment has been provided by Peter McAdam VK2EVB - and the club is QRV Fridays 0315 - 0345 UTC, on the IRLP node 6625 which is via its local repeater VK2RDO.

The Hunter Radio Group Contesters will be operating in the Trans Tasman 160 meter phone event on July 7th this year at Luskintyre Tiger Moth Airport.

There will be some fun type foxhunt also held round the airport.
The group extends a cordial welcome to all operators.
This will be an ideal training event for the up coming RD contest at the same location.

Food, drinks and accommodation will be available.
Accommodation will be on a first to book basis
As in all Hunter Radio Group functions, having fun will be the main objective For further information, or to confirm your attendance please contact Grahame VK2FA on 02 49-548-688 before June 24th 2007

Whilst in the Hunter, they'll hold their next licence assessments on 23rd &
24th of June at 9.00 am at the Print Makers Workshop, 27 Popran St Adamstown.

For further information, again contact the Examination Group Leader, Grahame O'Brien VK2FA on 02- 49548688. It is important that Foundation candidates have a copy of the foundation manual and have studied it before attempting an assessment.

Manuals are available from the Hunter Radio Group.

Some places will be available for candidates wanting to upgrade from foundation licences to standard or advanced licences and the Hunter Radio
Group will be having a sausage sizzle on both days for lunch.

The seminar is titled -
NIKOLA TESLA ? THE MAN WHO LIT UP THE WORLD

The Seminar marks the 150th anniversary of the birth of Nikola Tesla whose theoretical work at the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century created the conditions for the electrification of the world via a multiphase ac electricity supply.

Good morning listeners
This is John VK5DJ for the South East Radio Group.

The Australian Fox Hunting Championship is coming up very soon on the Queen's Birthday long weekend in Mount Gambier. Action starts on Saturday 9th June starting from the Scout Hall in Margaret Street, Mount Gambier.

Events begin at midday on the Saturday with the 2 metre sniffer hunt and finish on Sunday with event 10 the 1.2GHz foxhunt at 4.00pm.

Catering will be by Phil VK5HAM and his team.

Once again there will be a home brewer's competition and as always there are really good prizes to be won. Amateurs are encouraged to bring their latest projects for display.
They need not be fancy or complicated. We look for a range of construction projects from the simplest antenna, antenna coupler or crystal set to the most complex of equipment.
Ham radio has an interest for all but at the heart of our hobby is the home brewer. Support out home brew competition. Entries are judged on creativity, interest to others, workmanship and documentation. But even if your project doesn't fit these criteria it could well win a prize because the judges just thought it was a great little project.

Sunday afternoon we have arranged for a cruise up the Glenelg River for the partners.
The cost at $25 is very reasonable and the voyage aboard the Nelson Endeavour is really worth every cent.

So put it in your diary now - the South East Radio Group Convention and Australian Fox hunting competition on the Queen's Birthday long weekend in June. It's worth coming just to see some of the technology some of the fox hunters have in their cars and atop them.
On our part we enjoy making it hard to find the foxes in the forests and beautiful country side of Mt Gambier.

Check the SERG website for details.
See you there, June 9 and 10.
John VK5DJ

The next meeting of BARC will be a combined Club meeting with North East
Radio Club at their clubrooms, Ardtornish Primary School Hall, Saarinen Avenue, St Agnes on Friday June 8 at 7.30pm.

If you require further details contact Ian VK5AIC on 85245029 or Norm
VK5NR on 85642522.

DISCUSSION POINT

This in from the NZART InfoLine

Plasma TVs

"I wonder what we can do about the proliferation of Plasma TVs? They seem to be producing horrendous interference on HF - up to half a kilometre or more radius.

I'm certainly affected, since about five weeks ago, by, I believe, one of these 'unintentional radiators'.

160, 80, 40 and 20m unworkable due to S9+ noise.

Plasma TVs generally FAIL US FCC Class A (commercial) requirements, which are looser than FCC Class B (residential) requirements. Yet these appliances are introduced into the residential environment without concern to the requirements of non-interference to other services.

What can be done to manage the interference caused to the amateur service by these devices?

INTERNATIONAL NEWS READ BY Rob VK5MM

"Sometimes we could hear them, but they couldn't hear us. But we knew they were out there."

They were the words of John Hackney of Orono, who joined the crew of a Trans-Atlantic sailing expedition in the British Virgin Islands.

A father and son crew from Bangor, along with an assortment of additional mates, completed the last leg of a journey that took them from Bangor to ports throughout Europe and back again over the course of two seasons of sailing.

Dan Cassidy, 58, and his son David, 23, left Bangor in May 2006 to start the voyage that would cover nearly 18,000 miles and take them to 10 different countries.

And Amateur Radio went along for the ride.

In a smaller boat, rotating watches have to keep an eye out for other, larger vessels and an ear out for the weather forecasts.

For those communications, they relied on a Ham radio contact with an inland operator who monitors weather conditions for mariners.

The Ham radio also allowed Fleana's crew to send e-mails, which sometimes were more reliable than voice communications. Those e-mails were a godsend for family members.

"We were getting some information," said Deena Cassidy, Dan's wife. "We knew things were going well, so I didn't really worry."

Thanks to Amateur Radio.

Special Authorizations for Canadian Amateur Radio Experiments at 135 kHz and 5 MHz to Cease 30 June 2007.

Since 2001, at the request of RAC, Industry Canada has granted a number of special authorizations to some Canadian radio amateurs to conduct experiments in the band 135.7 - 137.8 kHz and at 5 MHz.

These experiments have had, as one objective, the provision of data that would support the objectives of RAC and the IARU for possible new allocations to the Amateur Service at these frequencies.

In accordance with the agreement between RAC and Industry Canada, all the special authorizations to Canadian radio amateurs will be terminated and transmissions must cease as of 30 June, 2007.

Further special authorizations will depend on the outcomes of WRC-2007, scheduled for October - November, at which, on the initiative of Canada, a new, worldwide, secondary allocation to the Amateur Service at 135.7 - 137.8 kHz is on the agenda.

A secondary allocation near 5 MHz may also arise at WRC-2007 as a consideration in the review of radio services in the band 4 - 10 MHz.

Per the agreement for special authorizations, each experimenter is required to prepare a summary report of his experiments, which may be in the form of an article for TCA.

NEWS FROM ARNEWSLINE

DAYTON HAMVENTION: NEW PRODUCTS

What about this years hot new products. Over the next several weeks Newsline's Fred Vobbe, W8HDU, will be highlighting a number of them.
One of the first to catch his eye was at the Vertex Standard booth.
The folks who make Yaesu brand products:

Fred Vobbe, W8HDU: Were here at the Yaesu booth with Dennis. Tell us, what is the new hot product that Yaesu has come out with this year?,

Dennis Motschenbacher, K7BV: "We have two very interesting products and both are very unique. Its been quite a while since we had a good HF radio for entry level and we have developed our FT-450 which a radio with a goal being to be in (priced) at under $1000, weigh under 10 pounds with 100 watts. It came out to be a really good radio because we had the learning curve from the FT-2000 and we were able to drop that IF DSP into that radio. O, in a very small package that only weighs 8 pounds, it's a heck of a (good) receiver and its going to be a good radio for the desktop as well as being able to go mobile."

CQ ANNOUNCES HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

CQ Amateur Radio magazine has announced this year's inductees into its CQ Amateur Radio, CQ Contest and CQ DX Halls of Fame.

This year there are 15 inductees into the Amateur Radio Hall of Fame. We do not have time to list all of them, but there are several that will be easily recognizable. These include such well known hams as NASA Administrator Michael Griffin, NR3A, Swan Electronics founder Herb Johnson W6QKI, along with S-S-T-V pioneers Copthorne MacDonald, VY2CM, Don Miller W9NTP and Farrell Winder, W8ZCF.

Also being honoured this year is ARRL Senior News Editor Rick Lindquist, N1RL. Maybe best known as the voice of the ARRL Audio News, Lindquist has also been responsible the past decade for keeping the amateur community updated on new developments, via the ARRL Letter and the ARRL Web news pages. The honour comes at a very special time since Rick will retire from the Headquarters staff on Friday, June 1. We at Amateur Radio Newsline wish him well along with a lot of good D-X in the days, months and years ahead.

There are three new inductees this year into the CQ DX Hall of Fame. Roger Western, G3SXW, and Nigel Cawthorne, G3TXF, were nominated together. Both are avid DXpeditioners and have activated many rare locations with their two-man, CW-only, expeditions. Also inducted was Mauro Pregliasco, I1JQJ, the co-editor of Europe's 425 DX News.

The CQ Contest Hall of Fame inducts three new members this year as well. They are Fred Capossela, K6SSS, Tom Taormina, K5RC, and the late Phil Goetz, N6ZZ.

The announcement of this years lists of inductees was made public at the Dayton Hamvention on Saturday, May 19th. Check www.cq-amateur-radio.com for more

In DX, word that the West Lancashire Scouts' Expedition to Renland, East Greenland will be taking place from the 23rd July to 20th August. A party of 50 Scouts and Leaders from West Lancashire in the U-K will be exploring the ice cap and mountains of Renland. As well as mountain exploration a number of scientific and wildlife studies and experiments are being carried for various academic bodies. The Expedition will also be operating an amateur radio station for a considerable period of time. Operation will be on the 40, 30 and 20 meter bands using SSB, data and some CW, under the call sign G3WGU portable OX. QSL as directed on the air. Special station LZ07KM will be active on 1st to 31st May to celebrate Ss Kiril and Methodius' Day. QSL via LZ1PJ direct, or bureau requests can be sent to mailto:lz1pj%40qsl.net.
Lastly, HF750C, which will be active through the 30th of June. This, to celebrate the 750th anniversary of Krakow Poland's city rights.

QSL via SP9BRP. Also, you can expect also a large number of local operators to use special prefix SN0 during the year.

NEWS SOURCED TO THE RSGB NEWS SERVICE AND READ BY G4NJH FROM GB2RS NEWS

Two British amateurs were inducted to the prestigious CQ Magazine DX Hall
Of Fame at the Dayton Hamvention. Roger Western, G3SXW, and Nigel Cawthorne, G3TXF, were jointly honoured for their many years of activating rare RX locations. To date, Nigel has operated from 44 DX locations, and Roger has activated 37. Nigel has what may be the world's largest collection of QSL cards. In fact, he recently completed a house extension solely to house his QSL collection!

In addition to his trips with Nigel, Roger is a founding member of the "Voodoo" contest DXpedition group, a member of the CQ Contest Hall of Fame, and an international adviser to the CQ World Wide DX Contest Committee.
He has also written two books, on DXpeditioning and Contesting.

Finningley Amateur Radio Society is delighted to announce the success of a very exceptional lady. Vera Tomlinson, an octogenarian, passed her M3 Foundation examination at the second attempt.

What makes this an outstanding achievement is that Vera is registered blind.

Vera was subjected to the same stringent rules as any other candidate with the exception that Club President, John Swift M0UTX, was allowed to act as a reader for her.

Lead instructor, Peter Myers G3UWT, was full of praise for Vera and stated she was a delight to teach and is now looking forward to a QSO on air.

Prefixes for Montenegro and Serbia

When Montenegro first became an independent country, the prefix YU6 was tentatively allocated to it. However, it now has a call sign block of its own. The ITU now lists 4O (that's "four Oscar") as Montenegro's prefix.

This means Montenegro stations may use 4O0 through 4O9, while Serbian stations will continue to use YT and YU prefixes for all call districts,
0 through 9.
The ITU reportedly wants the two nations to complete the transition to new call sign blocks as soon as possible.

The ITU has taken back the former 4N and YZ prefixes for future reassignment.

Members that use computer logging software should update their software
to reflect these new prefix allocations

WW SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS --- ATV (Every pixel tells a story)

QRP ATV

Past Editor of Westlakes News Bulletin Frank VK2FJL in his May edition tells of yet another ATV record attempt.

Ho Hum, how boring, Do you say?

But wait a minute, what about an Australian ATV record using stock standard
A/V sender/ receivers sold by Jaycar, utilizing 15mW over 175km?
Remember, these units are designed to show Video from Foxtel set-top boxes from

to room, say up to 100m.

This is really a story about how you, the amateur can get on 5.7Ghz
with minimal equipment.

The authors' 5.7G units, are in our Amateur 6cm band.

In the last John Moyle field day contest Dan VK2GG and Graham VK2DWL found
a spot whilst Jack VK2TRF travelled some 175km away.

Jack ended up at Mt Gibraltar, a very busy site, having all kinds of nasty RF installation which could hamper any record attempt, or swamp the puny 15mW from the transmitter.

On the other hand, the other pair were on Mt Warrawalong, a Forestry Fire
tower site, with mainly forestry UHF yagi's on it.

It turns out 5.7Ghz is a remarkable band. For this attempt, Dan made a "tuppeny" feed out of WR137 waveguide, which he attached to his 1.2m dish.
Jack used a "Golden Dish" for improved gain.

P5 pictures were received at each end of the link.

How's that for minimizing spurious RF emissions, using QRP for a record
attempt?

Further successful ATV transmissions on 10Ghz and 2.4Ghz were made along
the link for the purpose of the John Moyle event.

GB2RS NEWS Sunday 10 June

The news headlines

* British ARDF Championships go well

* Centenary of Marconi's Clifden station

* Club marks Amelia Earhart's solo Atlantic flight

The British ARDF Championships were held over the Spring Bank Holiday weekend as part of a three day International Festival of ARDF and attracted visitors from Germany, China and Kazakhstan.

RSGB president Angus Annan visited on the second day. In spite of poor weather, the participants set out with determination to find their allotted hidden transmitters which had been placed in Bucknell Woods, Shropshire. Angus presented the new 3.5 MHz ARDF trophy to Michael Dunbar, RS195082, whose time on the M40 course was the fastest of the day for the host country participants.

This year marks the centennial of those first sparks generated from Marconi's historic Clifden station. To commemorate this event W8HC has announced a special amateur radio operation from both locations central to Marconi's fame and success as a pioneer in wireless technology.

Ballycastle-Rathlin was his first wireless telegraph station and the Clifden station was his last, ceasing operation in 1922. In 1907, Guglielmo Marconi's dream of fixed point-to-point wireless telegraph stations linking North America and Europe became a reality. Derrygimla near Clifden, County Galway served as the site of his wireless station.
Over the next 15 years, spark-induced blue flashes generated by the station's massive 20 kV generators sent tens of thousands of wireless messages across the Atlantic, linking to its North American counterpart at Glace Bay, Nova Scotia.

On August 4 and 5 Hal W8HC will operate from Ballycastle as GI/W8HC/p. He will also be taking part in the annual Marconi Festival at Ballycastle with the Marconi Radio Group's MNO/MRG special event station on 5 and 6 of August, he will ferry over to Rathlin Island (EU-122) and operate from East Lighthouse (ARLS designator NTI 011).

He will arrive in Clifden on 8 August where he will operate as EI/W8HC/p at the Derrygimla site on 9 and 10 August. It is hoped that some operating time can also occur from nearby Letterfrack, site of an ancillary receive station built in 1912 to allow for full duplex operation of the transatlantic signals.

All QSOs will be confirmed via Log of The World and special QSLs from each of these historic Marconi locations will be printed and sent via GlobalQSL www.globalqsl.com. In addition, a specially designed certificate will be issued to those stations making contact with both GI and EI operations from either Ballycastle or Rathlin and Derrygimla or Letterfrack.

Foyle and District Local Amateur Radio Club recently linked up with an amateur radio group in the Newfoundland on the 75th anniversary of aviation pioneer Amelia Earhart's solo Atlantic crossing. She took off from Harbour Grace airfield en route to Paris and despite a gruelling passage and storms she landed safely in Gallagher's field at Ballyarnett on 21 May 1932.

A live link up was set up on 20 to 21 May with their counterparts in Newfoundland where the epic flight began. The amateur radio group in Conception Bay and Harbour Grace added a further historic dimension to the event as they transmitted on vintage radio equipment from their local museum. Civic dignitaries, including the Mayor of Habour Grace, sent good wishes to the people of Derry.

2 On 24 July to 8 August both the 21st World Scout Jamboree in Chelmsford in the United Kingdom and Brownsea Island will be on the air with their own fully equipped amateur radio stations. Both will offer a radio programme to the participating Scouts. The stations are operated by an international team of Scout radio amateurs.

During the Sunrise Ceremony on 1 August, GB100J will have a central role in connecting the world together. It will be part of the Sunrise Network.

The staff at GB100J offer a full radio-scouting set of activities to all Jamboree participants. The station is located at the Central Plaza of the camp site and will be active on all HF bands. Arrangements are being made for a contact with the International Space Station on one of its passes over the Jamboree.

Following the resignation of Bill Mahoney, G3TZM, after 21 years service to the Repeater Management Committee, a new committee member is sought for the West Midlands Area. The Chairman and Members of the RMC would wish to place on record their sincere thanks to Bill for his long and loyal service to the repeater community and wish him all the very best for the future.

Duties of committee members include dealing with all repeater issues
in their area, advising on feasibility and vetting of proposals, liaison with local repeater groups, representing the RMC at rallies and attendance at RMC meetings.

Those RSGB members interested in applying for this interesting position should send their CV detailing experience in amateur radio and particularly in respect of repeaters to John McCullagh, GI4BWM, the RMC
Chairman. John can be contacted by email at gi4...@ukrepeater.net or by post via RSGB HQ. The closing date for receipt of applications is 31 July.

Falkland Remembrance Weekend takes place next weekend 16/17th June, marking its 25th anniversary. The Firepower Museum, located in the former Royal Arsenal site at Woolwich will be holding a special display
over the weekend, including visits from vehicles similar to those involved.

GB2FR will be operated on HF and VHF by the Museum Station, by members of the museum club station from 10am on Saturday 16th until 4pm on Sunday 17th. QSL Cards and certificates will also be available for working this unique special event call.

Visitors are most welcome on site and will be extended the courtesy of the microphone if they bring their identification with them. There is a free museum car park adjacent to the Museum. And now for the details of
rallies and events for the coming week

[Note to newsreaders: please exercise your judgement on which of the 10 June events to read, based on your service area and time of transmission].

On Sunday 10 June the Elvaston Castle National Radio Rally takes place from 9am at Elvaston Castle Country Park, Elvaston, Derby. Details from Les on 01332 559965 or on the web at www.elvastonrally.co.uk. On Sunday
17 June the Newbury and District ARS rally and boot sale takes place from 9.30 at the Newbury Showground, near M4 Junction 13. Email carb...@nadars.org.uk for more information. On Sunday 17 June the East

Suffolk Wireless Revival takes place from 9.30 at Suffolk Showground, Felixstowe Road, Ipswich. More details from John, G3XDY, on 01473 717830 or Steve, M1ACB, on 07720 412648. More details of these and future events can be found on pages 88 and 89 of the June edition of RadCom.

Now for the news of special events GB25FC is the special event call sign that will be active until 18 June to commemorate 25 years since the end of the Falklands conflict. Up to four independent stations working from the Wyke Regis Amateur Radio Training Centre. They will be using Morse, SSB, digital modes, RTTY SSTV & UI-View, and there will also

3 be a station working through the local radio internet links. Anyone who is licensed and would like to help work one or more of the stations is invited to contact the organisers by email to gb2...@wykeradio.org.

GB1EPC will be active until 28 June to celebrate the European PSK Club 1st birthday. EPC number is EPC#2000. The station will be setup at Bridge Street in Glasgow. Anyone is welcome to operate at the station -
PSK modes only of course. QSL cards via MM0DFV. Roger Greengrass, G4NRG, plans to operate as GM4NRG/P from the Isle of Lismore Scotland, EU-008, until 15 June. He will try and put a spot on the DX cluster when operational. Operation will be on HF and 6m, holiday style, on SSB and digital modes. QSL via home call.

On the 10 June several members of the Marcon section of ARI in Italy will join the operations relevant to the Museum Ships Weekend 2007, in coordination with A.R.M.I. (Italian Mariners Radioamateurs Association). This weekend will see the simultaneous activation of many military and commercial ships around the world.

The Bolsover Amateur Radio Society will be operating as GB2PF on Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 August to commemorate the birthday of local man Peter Fidler, who was a famous surveyor in Canada in the 1790s. The club intends to operate as many bands as possible, HF, VHF and UHF, from the new club shack located at the Coalite Sports and Social Club, Moor Lane, Bolsover.

And now the HF DX news compiled from 425 DX News, the Ohio-Penn DX Bulletin and other sources.

Isido, I1XOI, Piera, IK1AIF, Mario, IW1PZC, Giovanni, IZ1DFG, Giorgio, IZ1HGP, Mauro, IW2KVT, Giuseppe, I2AZ and possibily Emanuele, IW2NOD will be active as IG9/homecall from Lampedusa Island (AF-019, IIA AG-001) on 9 to 19 June. They plan to operate SSB and CW on the HF

bands plus 6 and 2 metres. QSL via home calls, direct or bureau. In June and July 1944 the BBC war correspondents used the tower of the chateau at Creully as a radio studio, from where the first reports of the Battle of Normandy were broadcasted. Look for special callsign TM5BBC to be aired again from Creully until 15 June. QSL via F2UW.

Six operators from the Flying Dutch DX Group will be active as HB0/PA0ABM from Triesenberg, Liechtenstein on 15 to 22 June. They will operate on 160 to 10 metres CW, SSB and some digital modes with two stations. Logs will be available at www.logsearch.de/ and will be uploaded to Log of The World. QSL via PA0ABM, direct or bureau. The White Tower DX Team's operation from Skyros Island (EU-060) is expected to take place on 16 to 22 June. Nine operators SV0XAW, SV2FPU, SV2HNZ, SV2HOB, SV2HPP, SV2HPY, SV2HRT, SV2HSV and SV2GNQ will be active as SY8WT with six stations, five amplifiers and a wide range of beams, verticals and dipoles. QSL via SV2HPP, direct or bureau. Look for RV3ATS, RV3ATT and RU3AVF to operate on 10, 15, 20, 40, 80 and 2 metres as RV3ATS/p from 16 mountains located in various different Russian Districts between 19 June and 21 July. They also plan to participate in a number of contests on the VHF and HF bands. QSL via RV3ATS, direct or bureau. The Polish 3B6 Agalega Islands DXpedition Team will be operating until 18 June. In an announcement by team leader Witek, SP9MRO, the group's call sign was confirmed as 3B6DX. For more details and updates, visit www.3b6.godx.eu. Francois, ON4LO, will be active as CT/ON4LO/p from a couple of Portuguese lighthouses namely Cabo de Sao Vincente (ARLHS POR-012) and Ponta Sagres (ARLHS POR-043) until 29 June. He plans to operate

4 SSB and digital modes on 10 to 40 metres. Marq, CT1BWW, will operate as CQ4IPY on 9 to 15 June and to celebrate the 4th International Polar Year. Expect him to be active on 10 to 80 metres SSB, CW, PSK31, RTTY and SSTV. QSL via home call.

Special event station TM2RHC, which stands for 2nd Regiment Helicoptere Combat, will be active on 10 to 24 June before and during an air show at Le Luc le Cannet, France. QSL via F4EUN.

ARI Versilia will activate special event station II5MD on 11 to 13 June for the Meucci Day. Antonio Meucci was recognized as the first inventor of the telephone by the United States Congress in its resolution 269 dated 11 June 2002. QSL via operator's instructions.

Celebrating the 750th anniversary of Krakow's city rights is HF750C, which will be active until 30 June. QSL via SP9BRP. Expect also a large number of local operators to use special prefix SN0 during the year.

Now the contest news The RGSB 80m Club Championships takes place between 1900 to 2030 on 13 June on the 3.5MHz band, CW. The exchange takes the form of RST and serial number. The All Asian Contest takes place from 0000 on 16 June to 2359 on 17 June on the 1.8 to 28MHz bands, CW. The exchange takes the form of RST and Age. The RSGB 432MHz activity takes place between 2000 to 2230 on 12 June on 70cm, all modes. The exchange takes the form of RST, serial number and locator. The RSGB 50MHz Trophy Contest takes place between 1400 on 16 June to 1400 on 17 June on 6m, all modes. The exchange takes the form of RST, serial number and locator. The RSGB 50MHz Backpackers takes place between 1100 to 1500 on 6m, all modes. The exchange takes the form of RST, serial number and locator. Now the solar factual data for the period from 28 May to the 3 June compiled by Martin Harrison, G3USF. After weeks with low or very low solar activity, a big new sunspot that appeared on the 1st quickly brought the largest batch of flares this year, with 7 M-class and 4-C-class flares on the 2nd and 3rd, triggering several sudden ionospheric disturbances that affected the low bands. The solar flux increased from 67 to 87, with the weekly average rising from 70 to 76. However, the 90-day average remained at 73. X-ray flux levels were initially minimal but surged to B1.0 on the 1st. Geomagnetic levels were in single figures every day except the 3rd, when a high-speed coronal stream resulted in an Ap figure of 10. The average was a lowly 6 units. Solar wind speeds ranged between 277km/sec on the 31st and 531km/sec on the 3rd. Particle densities were mostly low but reached 31 per cubic centimetre on the 2nd, when the interplanetary magnetic field showed its maximum variation of plus 10 and minus 5 nanoTeslas. HF propagation was variable, with some disappointing days but others with good openings to Asia and the Pacific and evening propagation to South and North America and Japan. Thanks to the low geomagnetic field transpolar paths were more reliable. Sporadic-E was reported every day at 28 and 50MHz, with occasional 4-metre openings on 4 metres and at least one on 2 metres to Spain and Italy.

5 And finally the forecast. That big sunspot will still be making itself felt, though it will have passed the central meridian. It seems set to sustain the solar flux in the 80s for most of the week, though the level may dip into the 70s towards the weekend. Geomagnetic levels will be variable. There is a possibility of flare-induced disturbances over the next few days and a recurring coronal hole will bring higher geomagnetic levels around the 14th or 15th. MUFs at equal latitudes will reach 18MHz in southern Britain and 15MHz in the north on the quieter days, but will be a couple of MHz lower during disturbed periods. Darkness hour lows should be about 10MHz. Paths to South America will have a maximum usable frequency around 23MHz; but 24 and 28MHz openings will be possible on the better days. The optimum working frequency, giving a 90 per cent chance of a contact, will be about 18 MHz. The best time will be between 2000 and midnight UTC. Expect 28 and 50MHz sporadic-E on a daily basis, with openings at 70MHz on several days. A vigilant watch on 144MHz may catch brief, intense openings there, mainly through bearings from east to south. And that's all from the propagation team for another week.

The Marconi Radio Club of Newfoundland (MRCN) station VO1MRC will be conducting a propagation experiment from 0000-2359 UTC on the 15th and 16th of June. During this period, a CW beacon will be in operation on 5269
kHz. The station will be open briefly for 2 way contacts starting 0001 UTC
each of these days and will operate simplex on 5260.5 kHz CW.
Following this it will transmit on 5327.5 USB and receive 5346.5 USB for stations
authorised to transmit on 60 metres and 3807.5 kHz LSB for other stations.
Please note that only stations so authorised by their respective administrations may transmit on 60 metres.

The experiment was proposed by MRCN, endorsed by Radio Amateurs of Canada and authorised by Industry Canada. Further information may be found by searching for VO1MRC on the internet.

RAC Bulletin

Recently an Internet Worm programme, a type of virus that spreads from computer to computer over the Internet, has been circulating which purports to originate with RAC. A copy is attached below.

RAC does not report SPAM back to the originator and we have no Mail System Administrator who would send out such a report to users of the e-mail forwarder. SPAM is dumped when detected.

If you receive an e-mail like this one please just trash it and DO NOT FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS. If you do, the worm could be installed on your computer!

Dear user v...@rac.ca, Mail system administrator of rac.ca would like to let you know that,

We have detected that your e-mail account has been used to send a huge amount of spam during the recent week.
Probably, your computer was compromised and now runs a trojaned proxy server.

Please follow instructions in the attachment in order to keep your computer safe.

SOUTH AFRICAN RADIO LEAGUE

SARL NEWS SUNDAY 03 JUNE 2007

You are listening to Amateur Radio Station ZS6SRL of the South African Radio League, the National Body for Amateur Radio in South Africa, with a news bulletin that is broadcast every Sunday at 08:15 CAT in Afrikaans and at 08:30 CAT in English. This broadcast can also be heard on Echolink by connecting to ZS6FCS. To listen to a web stream go to www.sarl.org.za, click on ARMI and follow the links. This, and previous bulletins, can be downloaded from the web site of the SARL i.e. www.sarl.org.za. You can also read or download previous bulletins from there and subscribe to receive future bulletins by email.

This transmission is by Hans, ZS6KR, on 145,725 and 7,066 MHz from Pretoria with relays on 3,695, 10,135, 14,235 and 51,400 MHz as well as 438,825 MHz in the Pretoria area. (Other newsreaders please change to suit).

SILENT KEY

It is with regret that we have to announce the passing of Johan van der Mescht, ZS4VDM, on Sunday 27 May 2007 following a serious motorcycle accident.

We extend our sincere condolences to his wife, Esme, family and friends.

In the news today:

UPDATE ON POWER LINE TELECOMMUNICATION NOW ON THE WEB

LAUNCH OF SUMBANDILASAT DELAYED

NEW ZU CALL SIGNS ON THE AIR!

ADHERENCE TO THE BAND PLANS

You are listening to ZS6SRL. Stay tuned for more detail on these and other important and interesting news items.

UPDATE ON POWER LINE TELECOMMUNICATION NOW ON THE WEB

During last week's President's Net SARL President, Graham Hartlett, presented an update on the position of Power Line Telecommunication in South Africa. The full text is now available on the web at www.sarl.org.za by selecting PLC in the left hand vertical menu table.

The latest tests have confirmed to ICASA that PLT has an inherent interference potential and that this must be taken care of in new type approval specification for PLT systems. ICASA has also recognised that it would need to strengthen its interference complaint handling capability and has asked the EMC working group of the TC80 SABS committee to work on type approval specifications and how to deal with interference should it occur. It is recognised that these specifications would be an interim measure and in no way pre-empt international specifications. Once international standards have been agreed, the interim specifications will be revised and brought into line. It is expected that an international agreement on PLT interference, how to measure it and acceptable limits could be some time away.

The SARL web pages on PLT include audio clips and a link to a video clip.

HAVE YOU GEARED UP FOR THE YOUTH DAY EVENT ON 16 JUNE?

The SARL Youth Day event is gaining momentum. If you or your club are planning to host young people to talk to Mark Shuttleworth via Amateur Radio, do not delay in booking a slot by sending an email to a...@sarl.org.za. Please let us know where you are setting up a station and how many learners you believe will attend. The live link will be available from 145,750 MHz in Pretoria, 145,650 MHz in Durban and local repeaters in Port Elizabeth and Cape Town. Limited HF links will be available. Send us as much detail about your event as possible. For a club wishing to host a station at one of the FET colleges, full details were mailed to Club Chairmen in the SARL Letter.

A guideline will be available on the web a week before the event.

LAUNCH OF SUMBANDILASAT DELAYED

The launch of SumbandilaSat has been delayed due to administrative problems. Some paper work is still to be completed before the launch can go ahead. SA-AMSAT is awaiting an official statement from the Department of Science and Technology.

CONTEST RESULTS

The Autumn QRP Sprint was run on Sunday 22 April 2007. The Contest Committee received 5 logs for this contest. Jan, ZS4JAN, takes top honours with 1 640 points, followed by Andries, ZS6VL, with 864 points, Ian, ZS5IAN, with 720 points, Pierre, ZS6BQS, with 560 points and Franz, ZS6EU, with 480 points.

The ZS3/ZS4 40 Metre Sprint was held on Sunday 06 May and the Contest Committee received 7 contest logs and 1 check log. Jan, ZS4JAN, takes first place with 97 points, followed by Allan, ZR1AAH, with 74 points, the Bloemfontein RAC with 60 points, Marius, ZS4MP, with 46 points, the Sasolburg ARC with 42 points, Ian, ZS5IAN, with 41 points and Bradley, ZS5BG, with 39 points. Denis, ZR6DNS, submitted a check log worth 16 points.

The SARL Hamnet 40 Metre Simulated Emergency Communications Contest was run on Sunday 04 March 2007. To date, the SARL Contest Manager has not seen any of the results.

NEW ZU CALL SIGNS ON THE AIR!

The Magalies Amateur Radio Club assisted the new ZU Radio Amateurs with vigour by ensuring that 12 new ZU stations were on the air within one week after passing the exams. Thanks to the commitment of Louw, ZS6LME, and Theo, ZS6ATO, who obtained second-hand radios, reprogrammed them, had the output reduced to 20 watt and with the able assistance of Marten, ZS6ZY, called on the new amateurs at their homes to help them set up the radio and antennas correctly.

The newly formed school club has also in the mean time obtained its own call sign namely ZS6JVT. The newly built, fully equipped radio centre will be officially opened by Hans van de Groenendaal, ZS6AKV, on Youth Day at 08:30, where after the new amateurs will proudly operate their own club radio station. Everyone is invited to join them on this memorable occasion, which promises to be a day full of excitement. The youngsters will also attempt to make contact with Mark Shuttleworth on that day.

ADHERE TO THE HF BAND PLAN

Radio amateurs in Southern Africa are reminded to adhere to the IARU HF Band Plan, which came into effect on 1 January 2006. The band plan is available for download from the SARL web site at www.sarl.org.za. Please obtain a copy and distribute it between club members and make sure you understand the various allocations.

The allocations per band have been calculated using the maximum bandwidth in hertz and users must keep their transmissions within that bandwidth.

Listening around the bands, it has been noticed that stations are operating outside band limits or operating phone in CW segments. The lowest dial setting for phone on 160, 80 and 40 metres is 1 843, 3 603 and 7 043 kHz. The South African allocation for 160 metres is 1 810 to 1 850 kHz.

ADHERENCE TO VHF AND UHF BAND PLANS IS IMPORTANT TO ACHIEVE MAXIMUM USE OF THE SPECTRUM

VHF and UHF band plans are devised to achieve maximum use of the spectrum allocated to Amateur Radio and adherence to the plans ensures interference free operation and ultimately that great satisfaction of hearing a weak or satellite signal and making a QSO.

Amateur satellites have a very broad footprint and to ensure world-wide interference free operation certain segments of the various frequency bands are set aside for this.

For instance, for FM voice communication with the International space station and other manned space vehicles 145,200 MHz is set aside for simplex operation or 145,200/145,800 for transponder type operation. Please do not use these frequencies for ordinary ground based QSOs. The segment 145,800 - 146,000 MHz is set aside for satellite operation. Please do not use this segment for terrestrial operation. Similarly, the segment 435,000 - 438,000 MHz is also set aside for the amateur satellite service.

The International Amateur Radio Union internationally coordinates band plans by mutual agreement. Band plans are available on www.sarl.org.za, look in the left hand column for licences, open the page and then click on band plans.

DIVISION 6 BAND PLANNING COMMITTEE MEETING

The next meeting of the Division 6 Band Planning Committee will be held at the NARC from 9:00 - 12:00 on Saturday 9th June 2007. All clubs in the region are invited to send a representative.

For further information kindly contact Piet Badenhorst ZS6PJB at 082 574 4829 or by email at zs6...@gmail.com.

PROPAGATION REPORT

Hannes Coetzee, ZS6BZP, reports that the expected solar activity will continue at very low levels. The geomagnetic field is expected to range from quiet to active levels on 3 to 4 June. The expected Effective Sun Spot number for the coming week will be less than 5.

20 and 15 metres will provide best opportunities for DX. There is a possibility of 20 metre openings towards India from about 15:00 CAT. 40 metres may open towards Australia from 20:00. From about 16:00, there may be 15 and 20 metre openings towards Europe. At about 16:00 short 20 metre openings towards the West Coast of the USA is possible. Otherwise, contacts to the USA are going to be very challenging. For the CW and digital enthusiasts, it may also be worth monitoring 10 MHz.

Although the DX predictions may currently not be too exciting, now is the time to work towards your 80 metre Worked All ZS during the evenings. Remember that HF always has the capability to surprise you. You will never know what you are missing unless you switch your rig on, listen and call CQ.

Please visit www.spaceweather.co.za for further information.

DIARY OF EVENTS

16 June - SARL Youth day; 30 June - Closing date for updating of SA DX Survey; 2 August - Class B RAE; 18 October - Class A RAE.

SARL News depends on clubs and individuals for news items of importance and interest to radio amateurs. The one and only way to ensure that your contribution will reach the SARL News team, is to place it in www.sarl.org.za/newsinbox.asp not later than the Thursday preceding the bulletin date. It will be appreciated if you will do it in both Afrikaans and English.

The SARL also invites all listeners to listen to the program Amateur Radio Mirror International this Sunday morning at 10:00 CAT on 145,750 MHz in the Pretoria area with relays on 7 082, 7 205 and 17 695 kHz. Audio is also streamed on www.zs6mrk.org and on Echolink from ZS6FCS as for this bulletin. A repeat transmission takes place on Mondays at 21:00 on 3 215 kHz. Telkom and Sentech sponsor the ARMI transmissions on the non-amateur frequencies.

You have been listening to a news bulletin by the South African Radio League, which was compiled by Dennis, ZS4BS.

A prosperous week to all, 73.

This is WIANEWS for week commencing JUNE 10 2007

NATIONAL WIA STORIES

ROBERT BROOMHEAD AND SILENT KEY

It is with sadness that the WIA advises the passing of Bill Rice VK3ABP,
who at age 80 became a silent key whilst sitting in his favourite chair
in his home in Altona.

It is a sad yet reflective occasion on which to remember a unique character.

Bill was the longest serving editor of the Wireless Institute of Australia's
journal Amateur Radio magazine. He joined its Publications Committee
in 1972,
became Editor in July 1984 and continued in the position until December 1999.
It was a role in which he relished and able to contribute in so many ways.
As Editor he was also a member of the WIA Federal Executive for a number of years.

Bill was a quietly spoken gentleman, with the persona not unlike that of a yester-year stereotypical bearded scientist, with a brilliant mind.

He had been an active radio amateur for 60 years, first as VK5BP at Murray Bridge South Australia moving in 1948 to Adelaide to attend university.

On relocating to Melbourne in 1960 be became VK3ABP. He was from the era when radio amateurs built their own equipment. Synonymous with the callsign
VK3ABP was his valve two-metre converter that featured in AR magazine
and became a very popular project enabling many to get on to that band.

While a good listener and being very personable, Bill talked little about his occupation in the defence research and development field and the leading edge technology that it involved.

Retirement from work gave Bill extra time for amateur radio projects

Bill had many friends and I have on the line Ron Fisher VK3OM ...
(Ron Fisher online recording)

Some of Bill's other activities included history and sailing. He often sailed in Gippsland - a personal achievement was to sail on the rarely filled inland salt Lake Eyre in South Australia.

In 2001 he was awarded honorary life membership of the WIA for his long and meritorious service, which he accepted with genuine humility.

One of Bills other close friends was Bill Roper VK3BR and I have Bill on line to share a few words....
(Bill Roper online recording)

A service was held Tuesday at St Eanswythe's Church, in Altona with about 200 people attending.

Bill will be sadly missed and his passing is a great loss to amateur radio.

New National Standard Built Around Amateur Radio

The Commonwealth Department of Education Science and Technology has endorsed
a new competency standard, called:-
"Operate and maintain an amateur radio communication station".

The standard approximates the syllabus for a Standard amateur operators certificate of proficiency.

This means the there is now a nationally recognised standard built around amateur radio. This is a link between amateur radio and education and industry. Competency to this standard can be an element in an electro-technology qualification.

It certainly should make amateur radio as an activity much more attractive to schools.

However, it is important to note that holding the competency will not qualify
the holder for an amateur licence which still requires WIA certification to ACMA of competency in the theory, regulatory and practical elements of the syllabus.

WIA President Michael Owen VK3KI welcomed the Departments endorsement, saying that he hoped that schools would be encouraged to support amateur radio activities and also acknowledged the work of the WIA's Nominated RTO, Fred Swainston VK3DAC in achieving this recognition of amateur radio.

P29 revival underway

A strong effort is being made to increase amateur radio activity in Papua New Guinea and a recent P29 CQ Day is only just the beginning.

Wilfred Kilepak Amai P29PG/VK3DWA initiated the very successful special activity day outside the Parliament Building in Port Moresby. There were plenty of interested on-lookers.

The radio administration PANGTEL is supportive of any steps to achieve a greater participation in amateur radio.

Wilfred says PANGTEL is aware of the Australian licence restructure that occurred in October 2005 that includes the Foundation Licence, but has not yet followed suit.

Traditionally P29 has mirrored the VK licence system, due to the strong relationship between Papua New Guinea and Australia that was established before it gained independence in 1975.

And Papua New Guinea could also have its first ever YL operator with an individual who qualified for a licence in Australia now being considered for a P29 callsign allocation.

I'm Jim Linton VK3PC and you're listening to VK1WIA.

Help amateur radio continue to grow

Do you know someone who could be interested in joining our hobby? Then encourage them to enrol in a Foundation Licence training course.

Next Foundation Licence course, and Standard / Advanced assessments

NEW SOUTH WALES

The Hunter Radio Group
They'll hold their next licence assessments on Saturday 23rd & Sunday the 24th of June at 9.00 am at the Print Makers Workshop, 27 Popran St Adamstown.

For further information, please contact the Examination Group Leader, Grahame O'Brien VK2FA on 02- 49548688. It is important that Foundation candidates have a copy of the foundation manual and have studied it before attempting an assessment.
Manuals are available from the Hunter Radio Group.

Some places will be available for candidates wanting to upgrade from foundation licences to standard or advanced licences and the Hunter Radio Group will be having a sausage sizzle on both days for lunch.

HANDS UP IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO GO TO HAM COLLEGE?

Thought that would get your attention. In VK6 we now have HAM College offering courses for the foundation, standard and advanced licences. The next Foundatio n course is to be held on the 21st & 22nd of July - get your name in early to sec ure
a place in the classroom.

Is anyone interested in obtaining their Advanced licence - the next course is scheduled to start in July/August.

How about Morse code.....yes there is even a course run for Morse - why not sto p procrastinating and sign up today.

The next date for those wishing to sit Exams is June 30th.
Go to www.warg.org.au under the foundation licence page to view additional cour se
and exam dates or you can contact VK6BDO Neil or myself for further details.

CONGRATULATIONS - RESULTS

Congratulations go out to new Radio Amateur Robert Young VK4FRJY who has recently received his new callsign from ACMA after successfully completing Foundation Assessment with the WIA Exam Service in Townsville.

Congratulations to 10 new Ham College graduates who obtained their Foundation licences over the past couple of weeks, as well as 1 standard and 1 Advanced.
Look forward to making contact with you all in the near future.

Amateur Radio Victoria say that the Mt St Leonard 70cm repeater VK3RMU north-east of Melbourne is now on its new frequency of 439.800MHz.

Amateur Radio Victoria made the very recent QSY was mainly due to persistent interference from a suspected low interference potential device (LIPD).

The Sunday VK1WIA broadcast will also adopt the new frequency later this month.

In south-west Victoria at Warrnambool the VK3RWL repeaters on 2m 147.050MHz and 70cm 439.650MHz are getting plenty of use by locals.

Early indications are that the range of VK3RWL is excellent with reports from Ballarat, Horsham, Hamilton and Portland being received.

While the repeaters are up and running there's still a little bit more work to do before the project is complete.

With the arrival of the winter rains and cold weather access to the site is becoming difficult.

Many thanks to Russell Lemke VK3ZQB who with others have worked to restore the repeaters, that were required to meet rigid and costly commercial site requirements, borne by Amateur Radio Victoria.

Early indications are that the range of VK3RWL is excellent with reports form Ballarat, Horsham, Hamilton and Portland being received.

DISCUSSION POINT

Often around this time in the WIA National News we bring you "Discussion Point", Today we bring you BOILING POINT, thanks to Frank VK2FJL, Previous editor of Westlakes Magazine.

It seems a person decided to have a cup of coffee. He took a cup of water and put it in the microwave to heat it up (something that he had done numerous times before).

I am not sure how long he set the timer for, but he wanted to bring the water to a boil.

When the timer shut the oven off, he removed the cup from the oven. As he looked into the cup, he noted that the water was not boiling, but instantly
the water in the cup "blew up" into his face.

The cup remained intact until he threw it out of his hand but all the water had flown out into his face due to the build up of energy. His whole face blistered and he suffered 1st and 2nd degree burns to his face.

Worse he may have lost partial sight in his left eye.

While at the hospital, the doctor who was attending to him stated that this is a fairly common occurrence and water (alone) should never be heated in a microwave oven.

If water is heated in this manner, something should be placed in the cup to diffuse the energy such as: a wooden stir stick, tea bag, etc.

It is however a much safer choice to boil the water in a tea kettle.

WHY IS IT SO???

Micro waved water and other liquids do not always bubble when they reach the boiling point.
They can actually get superheated and not bubble at all. The superheated liquid will bubble up out of the cup when it is moved or when something like a spoon or tea bag is put into it.

To prevent this from happening and causing injury, do not heat any liquid for more than two minutes per cup. After heating, let the cup stand in the microwave for thirty seconds before moving it or adding anything .

WORLDBEAT - GERMANY: THE DL 100 AWARD

In news from around the world, German hams are on the air throughout June with a special celebration. This with members of the radio clubs of Norddeich and Hage commemorating the 100th anniversary of the well known coast station Norddeich Radio. Operations are planned for 160 through 10 meters on various modes. The special callsign, DL100DAN is being used and a special D A N 100 award will be available. More information can be found at http://norddeich-radio.de/ (OPDX)

WORLDBEAT - JAPAN: JARL TO CELEBRATE INTERNATIONAL QRP DAY

The Japan Amateur Radio League's QRP Club will be running five special event stations, 8J1P, 8J3P, 8J4P, 8J5P and 8J6P on June 17th to celebrate the International QRP Day. International QRP Day was designated by the IARU Region 1 Conference held in April 1984 in Italy to stimulate QRP operation worldwide. It was reaffirmed by the IARU Region 3 Conference in New Zealand in December of 1985 (JARL)

WORLDBEAT - UK: GB3RAL PROPOSED 40 AND 60 MHz BEACONS ON THEIR WAY

In VHF news, work from the United Kingdom that the new GB3RAL 40.05 and 60.05MHz beacons are due to receive government clearance in mid-June but both have already cleared their key Primary User stages. Assuming that regulatory clearance is also obtained the sponsors will go forward to for final clearance and approval sometime this summer.

If approved, it brings ham radio in the UK closer to the prospect of a unique 40, 50, 60 and 70 MHz co-located beacon system at the Rutherford
Appleton Labs location near Oxford. While not in amateur bands, the 40 and 60 MHz beacons should prove to be extremely useful propagation study markers both in the UK and world wide. (GB2RS)

ON THE AIR: CELEBRATING IN INDY WITH HAM RADIO

Back in the United States, Indianapolis, Indiana has been a hotbed of special event stations during May and it continues in June. Fire up that new HF rig and get ready to copy. Jack Parker W8ISH has this report from the Circle City.

If you have your HF rig fired up and your antenna pointed toward Indianapolis you many score some great contacts in the next few weeks. Beginning Friday evening June 8th the Indianapolis Radio Club will begin making contacts from the site of the USS Indianapolis Memorial. The USS Indianapolis was sunk during World War Two after delivering atomic bomb components that were later used in the attack on Hiroshima.
Listen for the W9IND call sign during the 44 hour event or check the Indianapolis Radio Club web page for more information.

The pace continues to quicken as the United States Grand Prix rolls into town on Fathers Day weekend, June 17th. Special event station W9IMS will be on the air, taking check-ins, during that weekend . This world class special event station operates during each one of the major races at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. If you don't catch W9IMS during the Formula One race you have another opportunity to snag a special QSL card during the Brickyard 400 NASCAR race the weekend of July 29th.

And last but not least, many central Indiana clubs report gearing up for Field Day 2007 on June 23rd and 24th. Maybe we'll catch you on the HF bands.

Reporting for Amateur Radio Newsline this is Jack Parker W8ISH.

The USS Indianapolis Memorial station will join nearly 70 other special event stations around the world as part of the Museum Ships Weekend. (W8ISH)

MORSE ON YOUR iPoD - we are joined by VK1KEP Peter Ellis.

This interesting contribution from Mark Sullivan ZL3AB appeared on the KiwiDX Group cluster.

In an attempt to improve CW comprehension and speed it was decided to load some CW files onto an iPoD to listen to on the way to work.

To start you need to create a CW sound file in "wav" format.

To do this, look for a great little freeware program on the net called WinMorse 2.0. Its a 482kb download and extremely easy to use.

http://winmorse. mark-bellamy.qarchive. org/

Once you open the software you can set the speed you want the CW sent at and then type/paste some text into the window.

All you need to do then is choose the output as "wav" from a drop down menu and the software does the rest.

Once you save the file you can then open it in the iTunes software that will convert the file into AAC, the default format for the iPoD and you can then copy it onto your iPoD and play it.
This process will also work for any MP3 player that has software that can convert wav files into MP3. If your software does not do that there are a number or wav to MP3 converters on the Net.

GB2RS NEWS Sunday 3 June

The news headlines

* Amateur becomes Mayor of Cambridge

* Canadians lose 136kHz and 5MHz

* Major product launches at Dayton Hamvention

Jenny Bailey, G0VQH, became Mayor of Cambridge in the local council election on 24 May. Jenny was first elected to Cambridge City Council in 2002, serving East Chesterton ward and becoming an executive councillor. She has spent the past 12 months as deputy Mayor. Apart from her usual civic duties, she hopes to bring a better understanding of amateur radio to local and national government.

Since 2001, a number of special, time-limited authorisations have been granted to some Canadian radio amateurs to conduct experiments on 136 kHz and at 5 MHz. All of these special authorisations will expire and transmissions must cease on 30 June, 2007. Further special authorisations will depend on the outcomes of WRC-2007, scheduled for 22 October - 16 November. At the suggestion of Canada, the agenda includes a new, worldwide, secondary Amateur allocation at 135.7 - 137.8 kHz. A secondary allocation near 5 MHz may also arise at WRC-2007 as a consideration in the review of radio services in the band 4 - 10 MHz.

A number of major companies chose last weekend's Dayton Hamvention to launch new products. Elecraft, FlexRadio, Icom, TenTec, Kenwood and Yaesu all announced new transceivers. Dishtronix and Tokyo Hy-Power announced kilowatt-class solid state linears, and other well-known names such as MFJ and Palstar also had new offerings. Look for news of these and other new products in forthcoming issues of RadCom.

CNN International is to end its analogue satellite distribution in Europe on 4 June, when its current contract with Astra expires. CNNI is already available free-to-air via other satellites and even terrestrially via DVB-T in some areas. The analogue satellite transmissions at 19.2 degrees East are still used by around half the satellite viewers in Germany, but SES Astra wants to phase out the analogue services and complete its transition to digital.

Current DAB radios may be unable to receive anything in a few years time, according to Pure Digital. This is due to the introduction of DAB
Plus, which uses the new AAC Plus audio coding. The new DAB standard is incompatible with existing DAB receivers, and will render them obsolete. The new coding system is twice as efficient as the MP2 system currently in use, meaning that the number of channels per multiplex could double. Manufacturers are expected to quietly switch to producing dual standard receivers before any changeover occurs. The British DAB system is unlikely to be affected for many years.

And now for the details of rallies and events for the coming week [Note to newsreaders: please exercise your judgement on which of the 3 June events to read, based on your service area and time of transmission].

2 On Sunday 3 June the Red Rose QRP Festival takes place from 11am at Formby Hall, Alder Street, Atherton, Manchester. Details form Les, G4HZJ, on 01942 870634.

On Sunday 3 June the Spalding & DARS Annual Rally takes place from 10am at the Sir John Gleed Technical School, Halmer Gardens, Spalding. Details form Ambrose, M0DJA, on 07989 636 520. On Sunday 10 June the Elvaston Castle National Radio Rally takes place from 9am at Elvaston Castle Country Park, Elvaston, Derby. Details from Les on 01332 559965 or on the web at www.elvastonrally.co.uk. More details of these and future events can be found on pages 88 and 89 of the June edition of RadCom. Now for the news of the special events

GB1EPC will be active until 28 June to celebrate the European PSK Club 1st year birthday. EPC number is EPC#2000. The station will be setup at Bridge Street in Glasgow. Anyone is welcome to operate at the station. PSK modes only of course. QSL-cards via MM0DFV. Roger Greengrass, G4NRG, plans to operate as GM4NRG/P from the Isle of Lismore Scotland, EU-008, from approximately 3 to 15 June. He will try and put a spot on the DX cluster when operational. Operation will be on HF and 6m, holiday style, on SSB and digital modes. QSL via home call. On 9 and 10 June several members of the Marcon section of ARI in Italy will join the operations relevant to the Museum Ships Weekend 2007, in coordination with A.R.M.I. (Italian Mariners Radioamateurs Association). This weekend will see the simultaneous activation of many military and commercial ships around the world. The Bolsover Amateur Radio Society will be operating as GB2PF on Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 August to commemorate the birthday of local man Peter Fidler, who was a famous surveyor in Canada in the 1790s. The club intends to operate as many bands as possible, HF, VHF and UHF, from the new club shack located at the Coalite Sports and Social Club, Moor Lane, Bolsover. And now the HF DX news compiled from 425 DX News, the Ohio-Penn DX Bulletin and other sources.

In June and July 1944 the BBC war correspondents used the tower of the chateau at Creully as a radio studio, from where the first reports of the Battle of Normandy were broadcasted. Look for special callsign TM5BBC to be aired again from Creully on until the 15 June. QSL via F2UW.

Simone, IZ4DYQ will be active as IA5/IZ4DYQ from Elba Island (EU-028) until 13 July. He plans to operate mainly SSB on 20 and 40 metres. QSL via home call, bureau preferred.

The Polish 3B6 Agalega Islands DXpedition Team is on course to start operation on Tuesday 5 June. In an announcement by team leader Witek, SP9MRO, the group's call sign was confirmed as 3B6DX. Operation will be for ten or more days, with the team leaving the area on Monday 18 June.
For more details and updates, visit www.3b6.godx.eu/.

Maciek, WQ7X, will be active as VP5/WQ7X to the 5 June. He plans to operate CW and SSB on 10 to 80 metres. QSL via home call.

Jim, VQ9JC, ND9M, will be active as VQ97JC through to the 5 June from Diego Garcia. Jim can only operate during his spare time, which normally means 1200 to 1730 UTC although he will try and arrange occasional evening working. QSL via ND9M, direct or bureau, but cards will not be printed at least until after he returns home in August.

3 Special event station TM2RHC, which stands for 2nd Regiment Helicoptere Combat, will be active on 10 to 24 June before and during an air show at Le Luc le Cannet, France. QSL via F4EUN.

ARI Versilia will activate special event station II5MD on 11 to 13 June for the "Meucci Day". Antonio Meucci was recognized as the first inventor of the telephone by the United States Congress in its resolution 269 dated 11 June 2002. QSL via operator's instructions.

The Yankee Clipper Contest Club celebrates its 30th anniversary and its members may sign homecall/30 (eg K1RX/30) for the rest of the year. A special certificate will be available for contacting at least 10 members; details can be found at www.yccc.org.

Richard, M0EAZ, is currently sailing across the Atlantic and regularly checks in to the Maritime Mobile net on 14.300MHz at 2100z each evening. His signals are reported as good, despite using just 100W to a back-stay antenna, and would welcome calls.

Celebrating the 750th anniversary of Krakow's city rights is HF750C, which will be active until 30 June. QSL via SP9BRP. Expect also a large number of local operators to use special prefix SN0 during the year.

Now the contest news

The RSGB 80m Club Championships takes place between 1900 to 2030 on 4 June on the 3.5MHz band, data modes. The exchange takes the form of the RST and serial number. The ANARTS RTTY contest takes place between 0000 and 2359 on 9 and 10 June on 3.5 to 28 MHz bands. The exchange takes the form of RST, Time UTC and CQ.

The RSGB 144MHz activity and club championship takes place between 2000 to 2230 on 5 June, all modes. The exchange takes the form of RST, serial number and locator.

The RSGB 144MHz Backpackers contest takes place between 0900 to 1300 on 10 June on 10 June, all modes. The exchange takes the form of RST, serial number and locator.

The Practical Wireless 144MHz QPR contest takes place between 0900 to 1600 on 10 June, all modes. The exchange takes the form of RST, serial number and locator.

Now the solar factual data for the period from 21 to the 27 May compiled by Neil Clarke, G0CAS. Despite a magnetically complex sunspot group that was visible it failed to produce any solar flares. Solar activity was very low. Gradually the sunspot group decayed and by the 24th it had disappeared. Solar flux levels declined from 73 units on the 21st to 67 by the 27th. The average was 70 units. The 90 day solar flux average on the 27th was 73, that's one unit down on last week.
X-ray flux levels was A2.2 units on the 21st but then declined to below the A1 level for the remainder of the period. Geomagnetic activity started at quiet levels with an Ap index of 6 units on the 21st.
Activity increased to sub-storm levels on the 23rd, this disturbance is possibly due to a filament disappearance on the 19th of May. A high-speed coronal hole disturbance caught the original disturbance and this lasted through to the 27th. The most disturbed day was the 23rd with an Ap of 42 units. The average was Ap 19 units. The ACE spacecraft

saw solar wind speeds increased from 430 kilometres per second on the 23rd to 750 by the 26th. Particle densities were low except for the 22nd, which increased to 36 particles per cubic centimetre on the 22nd.
Bz varied between minus 11 and plus 7 nanoTeslas during the disappearing filament disturbance and between minus and plus 7 nanoTeslas during the coronal hole disturbance the next day.

4 The magnetic disturbances resulted in periods when HF propagation was markedly degraded, particularly over the North America path. Auroral propagation occurred at 50 and 144MHz from late morning on the 23rd, resuming on the 24th. Sporadic-E was reported at 28 and 50MHz on most days. There were several reports of double-hop contacts with the eastern Mediterranean area on Six, while the new Athens 4-metre beacon was heard in the UK for the first time.

And finally the solar forecast. This week the quiet side of the Sun is expected to be looking our way. Solar activity is expected to be very low. Solar flux levels should slowly decline and by next weekend be around the 70 mark. Geomagnetic activity is expected to be unsettled today and tomorrow due to a recurring coronal hole. Activity will then decline to quiet levels for the remainder of the period. MUFs during daylight hours at equal latitudes should be around 18MHz for the south and 15MHz for the north. The darkness hour lows should be about 10MHz. Paths this week to Australia should have a maximum usable frequency with a 50 per cent success rate of around 20MHz. The optimum working frequency with a 90 per cent success rate will be about 16MHz. The best time to try this path will be between 0900 and 1200 hours UTC. Sporadic-E should take place almost daily with openings on 28MHz and 50MHz. Openings on 70MHz can be expected on some days and openings on 144MHz cannot be ruled out. And that's all for this week from the propagation team.

SOUTH AFRICAN RADIO LEAGUE

SARL NEWS SUNDAY 10 JUNE 2007

You are listening to Amateur Radio Station ZS6SRL of the South African Radio League, the National Body for Amateur Radio in South Africa, with a news bulletin that is broadcast every Sunday at 08:15 CAT in Afrikaans and at 08:30 CAT in English. This broadcast can also be heard on Echolink by connecting to ZS6FCS. To listen to a web stream go to www.sarl.org.za, click on ARMI and follow the links. This, and previous bulletins, can be downloaded from the web site of the SARL i.e. www.sarl.org.za. You can also read or download previous bulletins from there and subscribe to receive future bulletins by email.

This transmission is by Hans, ZS6KR, on 145,725 and 7,066 MHz from Pretoria with relays on 3,695, 10,135, 14,235 and 51,400 MHz as well as 438,825 MHz in the Pretoria area. (Other newsreaders please change to suit).

In the news today:

GET READY FOR YOUTHDAY 2007

CALL FOR BURSARY APPLICATIONS

LAST CHANGE TO ENTER THE 2007 CONSTRUCTION COMPETITION

SARL FAX NUMBER

You are listening to ZS6SRL. Stay tuned for more detail on these and other important and interesting news items.

GET READY FOR YOUTHDAY 2007

Is your club and are you ready for Youth Day 2007? The objective of this year's June 16 activity day is to get as many young people to experience amateur radio by operating an amateur radio station under your supervision and talking to other young people on the air.

The emphasis should be on operating an amateur station, not on just handing the microphone to your young guest to say a few words.

Spend some time, showing how to operate the transceiver and how to go about calling CQ or another station. After that you sit back and keep a watchful eye on the operation and give guidance as required. Don't take over.

To make it all legal, simply complete the registration for an educational station. It is available on the web at www.sarl.org.za, click on SARL forms and download the registration as an educational station form, complete the form and fax the completed form to the number on the form. The next step is to send an email to y...@sarl.org.za and give details of the youth day activities you or your club are planning.

The SARL is also planning a special event where the youth can talk to an interesting personality. It was planned to have Mark Shuttleworth as the guest, but due to last minute changes in Mark's travelling schedule he had to pull out. The SARL is talking to other personalities and once finalised details will be available on the web. The special event will be between 10 and 11:30 CAT and to ensure that your group is given an opportunity, it is advisable to register by sending an e-mail to y...@sarl.org.za. Although there will be some open time, there is a better opportunity if you have a booked slot so you don't have to compete with other stations.

Guidelines on how to make Youth Day 2007 a great success will be available on the web from tonight at www.sarl.org.za, click on youth activity at the bottom of the left hand side column. Also look for regular updates.

CALL FOR BURSARY APPLICATIONS

The Itchen Valley Radio Club has made three bursaries available for Students under the age of 25 to become radio amateurs. The bursaries are each valued at R650 and will assist students to enter the October 2007 Class A Radio Examination. The bursaries are known as the Itchen Valley Radio Club YARP 2007 Bursaries and cover the examination enrolment fee and one year's junior membership of the SARL upon passing the examination and R150 towards tuition costs levied by local clubs teaching the RAE. The tuition manual is available free of charge from the SARL web at www.sarl.org.za

"We decided that as part of our outreach we would make a contribution to the development of amateur radio in South Africa, particularly amongst the younger generation", Quentin Gee, the Itchen Valley Radio Club Secretary, told SARL News.

The SA Amateur Radio Development Trust administers the bursaries. The closing date for applications is extended until 30 June 2007. Applications forms are available on www.amateurradio.org.za.

NEXT PRESIDENT'S NET AND INTECNET ON 1 JULY

The next President's Net and Intecnet will be held on Sunday 1 July starting with the President's Net at 19:00 followed by the Intecnet at 20:00. The subject for discussion on the Intecnet will be about home construction. Stay tuned for more details.

SARL FAX NUMBER - PLEASE CHANGE YOUR RECORDS

Some time ago the SARL fax number at the NARC was converted to a faxmail system which allows faxes to be received on the office PC with the facility to email the fax to councillors if the fax requires their attention.

The new number is the old number with a 088 prefix. The full fax number is thus 088 011 675 2793.

Please use the full 13-digit number, failing to do so means that your fax will no longer arrive at the NARC.

LAST CHANGE TO ENTER THE 2007 CONSTRUCTION COMPETITION

The closing date for entries is Monday 11 June. The competition is an open competition where the entrant decides what he or she would like to enter. Once all the paper entries are received, the judging committee will meet to evaluate all the paper entries and select five finalists.

Each finalist will have up to R1 000 at his/her disposal to construct the project.

The closing date for the completed project is 31 July 2007 and the prizes will be presented at the SARL RTA in Johannesburg on 18 August. Verstay, Yaesu distributors in South Africa, will present the two overall winners with a Yaesu 2 metre mobile transceiver. Full details on www.amateurradio.org.za.

YOUTH DAY ACTIVITIES

The Magalies Radio Amateur Club invites everyone to the official opening of the new radio centre at The John Vorster Technological School situated in Meyer Street, Rietfontein, Pretoria. Activities commence at 08:30 with the official opening of the radio centre by Hans van de Groenendaal, ZS6AKV, where after the new ZU licensees will operate their own radio station under the call sign ZS6JVT. All radio amateurs are invited to make contact with the youngsters on 40 and 80 metres as well as on VHF.

Call-ins for directions to the school will be available from 08:00 on the 145,750 repeater. Please visit us on youth day and experience the excitement displayed by the young radio amateurs, it is contagious.

The Alberton Amateur Radio Club (AARC) will be setting up a special event field station at the Dalview Primary School in Brakpan as part of the Youth Day festivities. A station will be active on HF, VHF and UHF from Friday 15 June and again from 08:00 to 12:00 on 16 June. An APRS station will be on show and a foxhunt will form part of the activities.

CLUB NEWS

ZS6PTA Mega Flea market. The Pretoria Amateur Radio Club wil be hosting their winter flea market on 30 June 2007 at the South Campus of the University of Pretoria, on the corner of Lynwood and University roads. The starting time is 09:00 and all are welcome. There will be the usual tasty eats and drinks available. For more information, or to book a table, contact Almero, ZS6LDP, on 012 567 3722 or on 082 908 3359.

Website of ZS6POT. It is with pleasure that the Potchefstroom Amateur Radio Club announces that it now has its own website, www.zs6pot.za.org. The webmaster is Mike Brink, ZR6BRI, and the management of the club and all its members thank Mike for his outstanding effort. Please visit this exciting new website and give your comments!

CONTEST NEWS

The SARL Digital Contest will be run on Sunday 24 June 2007 from 15:00 to 18:00 CAT. Following a suggestion from the SARL VHF Manager, the contest has been changed to include 6 and 2 metres as well. The rules can be found in the 2007 SARL Contest Manual.

PROPAGATION REPORT

Hannes Coetzee, ZS6BZP, reports that the expected solar activity will be at low to moderate levels with a slight chance of high activity. The geomagnetic field is expected to be quiet. The expected Effective Sun Spot number for the coming week will be less than 15. The higher sun activity in conjunction with a quiet geomagnetic field may lead to a bit of excitement.

20 and 40 metres will provide best opportunities for DX. There is a possibility of 20 metre openings towards India from about 16:00 CAT. 20 metre may open towards Australia from 07:00. From about 17:00, there may be 20 metre openings towards Europe. At about 16:00 short 20 metre openings towards the West Coast of the USA are possible. Otherwise, contacts to the USA are going to be very challenging. For the CW and digital enthusiasts, it may also be worth monitoring 10 MHz.

Remember that HF always has the capability to surprise you. You will never know what you are missing unless you switch your rig on, listen and call CQ.

Please visit www.spaceweather.co.za for further information.

DIARY OF EVENTS

16 June - SARL Youth day; 24 June - SARL Digital Contest; 30 June - Closing date for updating of SA DX Survey; ZS6PTA Flea Market 1 July - President's Net and Intechnet; 2 August - Class B RAE; 18 October - Class A RAE.

SARL News depends on clubs and individuals for news items of importance and interest to radio amateurs. The one and only way to ensure that your contribution will reach the SARL News team, is to place it in www.sarl.org.za/newsinbox.asp not later than the Thursday preceding the bulletin date. It will be appreciated if you will do it in both Afrikaans and English.

The SARL also invites all listeners to listen to the program Amateur Radio Mirror International this Sunday morning at 10:00 CAT on 145,750 MHz in the Pretoria area with relays on 7 082, 7 205 and 17 695 kHz. Audio is also streamed on www.zs6mrk.org and on Echolink from ZS6FCS as for this bulletin. A repeat transmission takes place on Mondays at 21:00 on 3 215 kHz. Telkom and Sentech sponsor the ARMI transmissions on the non-amateur frequencies.

You have been listening to a news bulletin by the South African Radio League, which was compiled by Dennis, ZS4BS.

A prosperous week to all, 73.

EA8 - CANARY ISLANDS, AF-004
The Teide National Park (Tenerife, Canary Islands) shall be added to the UNESCO World Patrimony List and this campaign is supported by a group of radio amateurs who will activate the special callsign AN8TID operating from the volcano La Rambleta (Pico del Teide, 3555m above sea level). They will work in CW/SSB/digital on HF/VHF/UHF on June 9/10.
The QSL manager EA8NQ confirms direct and via the bureau. See also:
http://www.ure.es/ea8arg/an8tid.htm

FO/C - CLIPPERTON ISLAND, NA-011
The DXpedition announced in the last DXNL opened a website now at:
http://clipperton2008.org/ There you can find many useful information like the 30th anniversary of the 1978 Clipperton DX Club's DXpedition.
Approximately 24 OPs plan to make 100.000 QSOs.

FY - FRENCH GUYANA
FY/G3SXW and FY/G3TXF announced to be active from Jun 8-10. As usual the two fresh elected "DX Hall of Fame" members will work in CW only on 80-17m. QSL cards are confirmed reliably via their homecalls, also via the bureau.

OD - LEBANON
Jean-Marc,ON4JM, is working for the Belgian army and will be based at a field hospital in South Lebanon from Jun 6 until the mid of August.
He will try to hit the airwaves in SSB/CW/digital modes on 10-160m signing OD5/ON4JM during his very rare leisure time.
QSLs via homecall, via bureau preferred.

TA - TURKEY
TA1HZ and TA2RX are very active as TC800YOM mainly in SSB on 17/20/40m until Jun 30. This activity shall remember the poet and theologian Mevlanas who would celebrate his 800th birthday now.

TI9 - COCOS ISLAND, NA-012
"After the big success of TI9M we start again! The next DXpedition to TI9 will depart in February 2008! Become part of an exciting adventure!
Write to: ti2...@qsl.net" This is the text on the website and you can even fill out an application form to become a team member of this DXpedition at: http://www.qsl.net/ti2hmg/cocos.htm

V2 - ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA, NA-100
V26HS will be the call of Howard,WB4WXE, on NA-100 from Jun 9-26.
Howard prefers to work on 6m, with 350 watts and mainly on 50.125 MHz or 50.110 MHz. QSL via homecall.

3A - MONACO
Luc,ON4LUC, and Paul,ON6DP, can be found on the air signing 3A/ON4LUC and 3A/OP0P since Jun 3. They are working with 100 watts and inverted V in RTTY/PSK/SSB on 20/40/80m until Jun 8 or 9. QSLs via ON6DP.

3D2 - ROTUMA ISLAND, OC-060
Tony,3D2AG, writes that his trip to Rotuma has been delayed. He plans to stay on Rotuma for several months now starting in Nov or Dec 2007.

5N - NIGERIA
Marek,5N2/SQ8JCA, is working in Cogi during the whole month of June and will be QRV in SSB on 6-80m especially from 1000-1600 UTC.

QSL via SQ8JCA.

GERMANY, SPECIAL EVENT STATIONS
DH150HZ (with the special DOK HZ1857) is a special event callsign to celebrate the 150th birthday of Heinrich Hertz. The QSL manager DL5KUA writes that the decision how many QSLs have to be printed is not made before this autumn and the shipment is going to start not much earlier than in the beginning of 2008. However all QSO information is uploaded to the LotW regularly. Other special event calls active from Germany are DK150HZ (Karlsruhe, DOK HZ1885), DR150HZ (Bonn, DOK HZ1894) and DB150HZ (Berlin, DOK HZ1878). The licences are valid until Jan 1, 2008.

PORTUGAL, SPECIAL EVENT STATION
CQ4IPY will be the call of Marq,CT1BWW, during the 4th International Polar Year in SSB/CW/PSK31/RTTY/SSTV on 80-10m from Jun 9-15 and once again from Sep 8-14. QSLs via his homecall.

HUNGARY, SPECIAL EVENT STATION
The "Danube River Day" is held in Hungary every year. HG7DANUBE can be found on the air from Jun 1-30. QSLs direct via HA2MN or as a eQSL.
Check also his homepage at: http://ha2mn.dsgnet.hu

The 46th Firac Congress takes place in Hungary as well from Sep 13-17.
For this reason Tibi,HA5BSW, will use the special call HG46FC between May 30 and Sep 30. QSL via HA5BSW, also via LotW. The Firac is the international radio club of HAMs related to railways.

SPAIN, SPECIAL EVENT CALLS
The URE and the Spanish commmunication authority DGTel have an agreement which allows the URE to apply for all special callsigns of its members at once. All Spanish HAMs interested in a special callsign from July 1 until Dec 31,2007, should send their request to the URE secretary until Jun 10. The prefixes ED, EE and EF are reserved for minor events completed with the suffix of the applicant's call. The prefixes

AM and AN are reserved for major national events and the prefix AO for major international events. Three letters suffixes starting with UR, RC
or RK may only applied for by radio clubs or amateur radio societies
and suffixes with one letter are reserved for special contests but may be completed with any of these prefixes: ED, EE, EF, EG, EH, AM, AN,AO.
These contests are considered:
Jul 14/15: IARU HF Championship
Aug 11/12: WAEDC CW Contest
Sep 1/2: All Asian DX SSB Contest
Sep 8/9: WAEDC SSB Contest
Sep 29/30: CQ WW RTTY DX
Oct 27/28: CQ WW DX SSB Contest
Nov 24/25: CQ WW DX CW Contest
Dec 8/9: ARRL 10m Contest

DXCC: The approval of the 7O1YGF cards (activated in April 2000) is still refused by the DXCC. Rumours from the USA say that the "files" are not closed yet, so there is still some hope that this may change some time.

Amateur Radio Newsline(tm) Report 1556 - June 8, 2007

Amateur Radio Newsline report number 1556 with a release date of Friday, June 8, 2007 to follow in 5-4-3-2-1.

The following is a QST. A Manassas Virginia ham proves RF ingress can seriously hamper BPL, South Africa's ham community takes a stand on BPL, and the FCC takes another step toward an enhanced Emergency Alert System. All this and more on Amateur Radio Newsline report number 1556 coming your way right now.

THE BPL FIGHT: MANASSAS VA HAM PROVES BPL INGRESS AT PROBLEM EVEN AT QRP

A simple test conducted by a ham radio operator in Manassas, Virginia, has provided proof positive that even flea-power Q-R-P ham radio operations can shut down Broadband Over Powerline Internet access operation. Amateur Radio Newsline's Don Carlson, KQ6FM, reports:

--

The revelation comes on the website of George Tarnovsky, K4GVT. On it, Tarnovsky shows the results of tests made using only 40 watts and QRP
at 2 watts on the 80 through 10 meter bands.

The gear used in his test was an Icom 706 transceiver, with Outbacker Perth antenna on his car parked curb side. The vehicle was approximately 70 feet from his house, and more than 100 feet from the BPL power pole interface. Inside the home a laptop with BPL interface repeatedly downloading a 40 Megabyte file.

Tarnovsky: "Well, what we found is that when we were within reasonably close proximity -- I would say within 100 feet or so of any of the BPL installations -- when we transmitted on E-CARS on 7.225 that we actually had an affect on them. The way ewe knew that we had an affect was that as soon as you released the microphone (PTT), rather than hearing the typical BPL noise, you knew the system was backed up with data and consequently became very aggressive and just blanked (the band). If you looked at a spectrum display of it -- it just covered the entire spectrum. Its almost as though all the stops were off. In other words the band stops were off. Just rip and get the data out and that's exactly what it did."

What K4GVT found was that on all bands the connection suffered at least a major slowdown when he transmitted at the 40 watt level. On 80 through 15 meters the 40 watts caused the download to stop altogether and requiring it to be restarted. But the biggest surprise was on 40 meters where 2 watts of R-F rendered the BPL connection numb. He says that the 2 watts at 7 MHz caused the BPL data transfer to stop.

--

Tarnovsky: " With the original G1 installation, 2 watts would have an affect on it. Since then they have made some changes in their firmware to the G1. The G2 has agile notching so they can go in and they can notch it (the spectrum), but being agile they can also remove them and that's the problem that we are facing here."

--

Tarnovsky notes that regardless of what carriers a BPL provider might notch out of a system, the system operator cannot filter its input. As such, R-F ingress to the BPL system is wide open, and susceptible to all near field RF from 2 to 29 MHz. Even one that only 2 watts and more than 100 feet away.

For the Amateur Radio Newsline, I'm Don Carlson, KQ6FM, in Reno.

THE BPL FIGHT: LATEST SOUTH AFRICA REPORT NOTES INTERFERENCE POTENTIAL

South Africa's ham community has confirmed what so many others know already. That Broadband Over Powerline Internet access is a major source of interference to High Frequency communications

During a recent net, South African Radio League President Graham Hartlett, presented an update on the society's position of powerline telecommunication in South Africa. The latest tests have confirmed that BPL has an inherent interference potential and that this must be taken care of in new type approval specification for powerline data communications systems.

Hartlett noted that telecommunications regulator ICASA has recognized that it will need to strengthen its interference complaint handling capability and has asked the EMC working group to develop type approval specifications and how to deal with interference should it occur. These specifications would be an interim measure and in no way pre-empt international specifications. Once international standards have been agreed, the interim specifications would be revised and brought into line. (WIA News)

THE BPL FIGHT: ARRL SAYS FCC MUST SHUT DOWN AMBIENT

Still with BPL news, word that the ARRL has again demanded that the FCC shut down Ambient Corporation's broadband over power line pilot project in Briarcliff Manor, New York.

In a May 31 letter to FCC Spectrum Enforcement Division Chief Kathryn S. Berthot, ARRL General Counsel Christopher D. Imlay, W3KD, says that it's long past time that the Commission enforce its own rules, and again objected to the Commission's inexplicable inaction in the face of evidence the system is noncompliant.

On May 21 the FCC called on the BPL equipment maker and system operator to demonstrate it's complying with all terms of the Part 5 Experimental license authorizing the system, or face possible enforcement action.

Imlay's letter pointed out that the FCC's May 21 letter made no mention of Condition #1 of Ambient's Part 5 Experimental license. That condition requires that if any interference occurs, the holder of the authorization will be subject to immediate shutdown. (ARRL)

RESCUE RADIO: FCC MOVES TOWARD AN UPGRADED EAS

The FCC has adopted a Second Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking that strengthens the nation's EAS or Emergency Alert System. The Commission's Order promotes the development of fully digital Next Generation technologies and delivery systems that will better serve the American public.

According to the CGC Communicator, the Order requires EAS participants to accept messages using a messaging system called Common Alerting Protocol. CAP as it will be known is the groundwork for what's being called the Next Generation EAS delivery systems. This protocol will need to be in place no later than 180 days after FEMA makes a key announcement.

The Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making is the second part of the decision. It seeks comment on whether participants should be required to deliver EAS alerts originated by local, county, tribal, or other state governmental entities. More on the Report and Order is on-line at http://hraunfoss.fcc.gov/edocs_public/attachmatch/DOC-273458A1.pdf (CGC)

HAM RADIO IN SPACE: RAFT DE-ORBITS

The US Naval Academy's RAFT ham radio satellite has reached the end of its orbital life. Data compiled from stations monitoring its 145.825 MHz downlink indicates that RAFT de-orbit occurred between 02:00 and 03:00 UTC on May 30th. Its final beacon was heard at 01:45 UTC that day. (ANS)

TELECOMMUNICATIONS LAW: BROADCASTERS WIN APPEAL ON INDECENCY AND PROFANITY
RULES

A federal appeals court has overturned an indecency ruling against the Fox Broadcasting and has broadly questioned whether the Federal Communications Commission has any right to police the airwaves for offensive language. Mark Abramowicz, NT3V, has more:

In a 2 to 1 decision on June 4th, , the U.S.
Court of Appeals for the 2nd Circuit in New York ruled that the FCC went too far in issuing a 2006 decision against Fox for separate incidents in 2002 and 2003 after two personalities each uttered an expletive on live television.

In 2004, the agency reversed years of policy and effectively branded even "fleeting," or one-time,
use of an expletive off-limits on broadcast television and radio In its ruling the court found that that the FCC had not adequately, or constitutionally, explained why it changed its mind on the fleeting use of profanity and ordered the agency to retool its regulations.

Because the Fox incidents occurred before the FCC's 2004 ruling on fleeting profanity, the agency did not fine the network, though it did rule that the broadcasts were indecent. Fox appealed the FCC ruling to the 2nd Circuit, saying the new rule set a dangerous precedent for clamping down on free speech.

According to the Washington Post, the decision is likely to be looked on as a rebuke to the FCC and a victory for television networks, which in recent years have pushed back against the regulatory agency's crackdown on indecency. It could also bolster the broadcasters argument that parents need better tools such as channel-blocking technology rather than more government regulation to police the viewing habits of their children.

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin said that he was disappointed in the court's ruling. He added that FCC attorneys were reviewing the agency's options and might appeal the decision to the Supreme Court. Lawyers who specialize in the First Amendment issues told the Washington Post that such an appeal could easily become a test case to determine whether the federal government still has the right and responsibility to police the public airwaves.

For the Amateur Radio Newsline, I'm Mark Abramowicz, NT3V, in Philadelphia.

What affect this ruling might have on indecency and profanity issues in other FCC administered services is unknown. (ARNewsline(tm) from published news reports)

RESCUE RADIO: TSA VOLUNTEER TRAINS NEW HAMS

30 Transportation Safety Administration volunteers have been trained to use emergency high frequency radio equipment during disasters. The 30 have also qualified for Amateur Radio operator licenses.

According to news reports, TSA employees participating in the May 9th training traveled to Pensacola, Florida for the session. Volunteers came from as far away as Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Arizona and New York State.

Spokesman Steve Earnest said that Pensacola is fortunate that it has a Transportation Safety Officer who is also a highly experienced Amateur Radio operator, trainer and examiner.

Earnset says that this radio amateurs volunteer efforts have given the agency tremendous in-house capability. One he says would have been expensive for the agency to replicate using contractors. More is on-line at

RESCUE RADIO: TENNESSEE RED CROSS CHAPTER GIFTED RADIO GEAR

Within the next 18 months, the Treis-County Tennessee Chapter of the American Red Cross should have a new emergency communications station. One with improved capabilities ready to use in the event of a disaster.

According to the Tullahoma News Guardian, the emergency communications station is being made possible by a donation by the wife of the late Bill Bearden, a former Red Cross volunteer and ham radio operator. Mrs. Bearden has donated two antennas and numerous pieces of Amateur Radio equipment that is being refurbished. One of the antennas will be installed on a new tower at the local Red Cross headquarters where the station will be installed.

Chapter Executive Director Alice Cano thanked Mrs. Bearden and noted that the new station would better enable the Red Cross to stay in touch with drivers of emergency response vehicles. She also noted that Bryan Marlowe, KE4LPL, a member of the Red Cross chapter's information technology team, Jimmy Floyd, NQ4U and other radio amateurs make up the Treis County chapter's disaster communications committee. RESCUE RADIO: ATV AT SANTA BARBARA EM COMMS DRILL

Fifteen California Amateur Radio Emergency Service volunteers equipped with slow-scan television assisted with a voluntary wildfire evacuation drill on Saturday morning, April 28th. An exercise involving residents of over 900 homes near the city of Santa Barbara.

During the event, five ARES teams were stationed at key intersections where winding, narrow roads merged into the main street out of a mountain community. The amateurs sent slow scan photos in a pre-arranged rotation, with the camera number appearing in the picture. Each number corresponding to the assigned intersection so officials could easily identify the location on large area maps.

Receiving stations were set up at the City's Emergency Operating Center. According to Santa Barbara City Fire Battalion Chief John Ahlman, the amateur television pictures were the only continuous, real-time information his department received from the field.

This is not the first time ham radio has been a part of Santa Barbara emergency communications drills. Fire officials were so impressed with the information provided by the ARES slow-scan TV at a smaller drill two years ago, that they invited the ham radio group back to participate in this one as well.

ENFORCEMENT: BEHRINGER FINED $1,000,000 FOR UNAUTHORIZED GEAR SALES Electronics supplier Behringer USA, Inc. has been dinged with a proposed one million dollar fine by the FCC. This, for marketing 50 models of unauthorized radio frequency equipment in the United States without prior consent from the regulatory agency.
The gear in question is described as digital audio music devices. This says the FCC was a willful and repeated violation of Section 302(b)
of the Communications Act of 1934, and Section 2.803(a) of the Commission's Rules. (FCC)

REGULATORY NEWS: ARRL VEC TYPO LEADS TO LICENSE CLASS CORRECTION

The FCC has rescinded an Extra class upgrade accidentally granted to W5VXJ of Phoenix, Arizona, who had only filed for a General class upgrade. And it's doing so with the implied consent of the radio amateur involved. Bill Pasternak, WA6ITF, has the details:

--

The story goes this way. On February 2, 2006, the Commission received from the ARRL VEC an electronic data file that contained an application requesting modification of John R.
Ure, W5VXJ''s license to upgrade his operating privileges from Technician Plus Class to Amateur Extra Class. The license was modified to authorize Amateur Extra Class operator privileges on February 2, 2006.

On April 19, 2006, the ARRL VEC requested that the Commission rescind this modification. This,
on the grounds that the earlier data file it submitted contained a typographical error and that the requested upgrade was intended to modify the operator privileges for Amateur Radio Service Station W5VXJ to General Class operator privileges.

Based on the new information, the FCC contacted Ure and proposed to modify the license to change
the license class from Amateur Extra Class to General Class.

For the Amateur Radio Newsline, I'm Bill Pasternak, WA6ITF, in Los Angeles.

--

W5VXJ did not protest the proposed modification of his license within the requisite thirty-day time frame s the FCC says that Ure is deemed to have consented to the modification. (FCC)

TELECOMMUNICATIONS LAW: SPOOFING CAN GET YOU 5 IN JAIL

Spoof and you could go to jail. So says one house of Congress. Jim Davis, W2JKD, has more:

The House of Representatives has voted to make phone "spoofing," the use of fake caller ID
information to defraud people, a felony subject.
The bill makes it a federal crime to use false caller ID information with the intent to defraud or to deceive the recipient about the identity of the caller. A conviction brings a 5 year prison sentence and forfeiture of any gains from the offense, or of the software or technology use to commit the crime. Exemptions are made for the activities of law enforcement and intelligence agencies.

The bill now goes to the Senate for action and debate. (Technology

HAM HAPPENINGS: "AMATEUR RADIO TODAY" IS #1 HAM VIDEO ON YOUTUBE

"Amateur Radio Today" the ARRL video produced by Dave Bell, W6AQ, Bill Baker, W1BKR, Bill
Pasternak, WA6ITF and the late Alan Kaul, W6RCL
-- and written by W6RCL-- has today become the most watched ham radio video on www.YouTube.com

As this is written, there are three postings of "Amateur Radio Today" of this show on YouTube. The one posted by "Tomintexas" has to date garnered some 24,423 people screening
it. Another by a user named mranticocialguy has been screened 3,727 time and the third by user VA3CSS that has been viewed 1859 times. Adding all three postings together, "Amateur Radio Today" has been viewed on YouTube a total close to 30,000 times.

In second place in the most viewed ham radio YouTube videos is "The Ham Band" singing "Come and Join Us On The Airwaves." The video featuring Andrew John Huddelston, Oh-Zed-1-X-J and his wife Lissa Ladefoged on a 100 foot high tower has so far racked up an impressive 20,676 views.

Third place goes to the on-line programmer 88 SLIDE whose "Ham Radio Field Day" video has garnered 6785 views. It uses footage shot around Los Angeles and Orange County California on Field Day weekend, 2006.

While none of these shows have set any YouTube viewing records their numbers are still very respectable for a special interest such as Amateur Radio.

COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY: DAB STANDARD BEING CHANGED

A major change is coming to a digital broadcast radio near you. Jeramy Boot, G4NJH, is in Nottingham in the U-K with the latest on DAB standards and the future of digital receiver design:

Current DAB radios may be unable to receive anything in a few years time, according to Pure Digital.

This is due to the introduction of DAB Plus, which uses the new AAC Plus audio coding. The new DAB standard is incompatible with existing DAB receivers, and will render them obsolete. The new coding system is twice as efficient as the MP2 system currently in use, meaning that the number of channels per multiplex could double.

Manufacturers are expected to quietly switch to producing dual standard receivers before any changeover occurs.

I'm Jeramy Boot, G4NJH.

The switchover only affects terrestrial DAB radio and not satellite delivered services such as Sirius or XM. (GB2RS)

The Japan Amateur Radio League's QRP Club will be running five special event stations, 8J1P, 8J3P,

8J4P, 8J5P and 8J6P on June 17th to celebrate the International QRP Day. International QRP Day was designated by the IARU Region 1 Conference held in April 1984 in Italy to stimulate QRP operation worldwide. It was reaffirmed by the IARU Region 3 Conference in New Zealand in December of 1985 (JARL)

WORLDBEAT - UK: GB3RAL PROPOSED 40 AND 60 MHz BEACONS ON THEIR WAY

In VHF news, work from the United Kingdom that the new GB3RAL 40.05 and 60.05MHz beacons are due to receive government clearance in mid-June but both have already cleared their key Primary User stages. Assuming that regulatory clearance is also obtained the sponsors will go forward to for final clearance and approval sometime this summer.

If approved, it brings ham radio in the UK closer to the prospect of a unique 40, 50, 60 and 70 MHz co-located beacon system at the Rutherford Appleton Labs location near Oxford. While not in amateur bands, the 40 and 60 MHz beacons should prove to be extremely useful propagation study markers both in the UK and world wide. (GB2RS)

ON THE AIR: CELEBRATING IN INDY WITH HAM RADIO

Back in the United States, Indianapolis, Indiana has been a hotbed of special event stations during May and it continues in June. Fire up that new HF rig and get ready to copy. Jack Parker W8ISH has this report from the Circle City.

If you have your HF rig fired up and your antenna pointed toward Indianapolis you many score some great contacts in the next few weeks. Beginning Friday evening June 8th the Indianapolis Radio Club will begin making contacts from the site of the USS Indianapolis Memorial. The USS Indianapolis was sunk during World War Two after delivering atomic bomb components that were later used in the attack on Hiroshima. Listen for the W9IND call sign during the 44 hour event or check the Indianapolis Radio Club web page for more information.

The pace continues to quicken as the United States Grand Prix rolls into town on Fathers Day weekend, June 17th. Special event station W9IMS will be on the air, taking check-ins, during that weekend . This world class special event station operates during each one of the major races at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. If you don't catch W9IMS during the Formula One race you have another opportunity to snag a special QSL card during the Brickyard 400 NASCAR race the weekend of July 29th.

And last but not least, many central Indiana clubs report gearing up for Field Day 2007 on June 23rd and 24th. Maybe we'll catch you on the HF bands.

Reporting for Amateur Radio Newsline this is Jack Parker W8ISH.

The USS Indianapolis Memorial station will join nearly 70 other special event stations around the world as part of the Museum Ships Weekend. (W8ISH)

THAT FINAL ITEM: THE LONG SAIL

And finally this week the story of a voyage by sea and the role played by Amateur Radio. Rob Mt Barker, VK5MM, of the W-I-A News has the details:

--

"Sometimes we could hear them, but they couldn't hear us. But we knew they were out there."

They were the words of John Hackney of Orono, who joined the crew of a Trans-Atlantic sailing expedition in the British Virgin Islands.

A father and son crew from Bangor, along with an assortment of additional mates, completed the last leg of a journey that took them from Bangor to ports throughout Europe and back again over the course of two seasons of sailing.

Dan Cassidy, 58, and his son David, 23, left Bangor in May 2006 to start the voyage that would cover nearly 18,000 miles and take them to 10 different countries. And Amateur Radio went along for the ride.

In a smaller boat, rotating watches have to keep an eye out for other, larger vessels and an ear out for the weather forecasts. For those communications, they relied on a Ham radio contact with an inland operator who monitors weather conditions for mariners.

The Ham radio also allowed Fleana's crew to send e-mails, which sometimes were more reliable than voice communications. Those e-mails were a godsend for family members.

"We were getting some information," said Deena Cassidy, Dan's wife.

"We knew things were going well, so I didn't really worry."

Good day. I'm Robb, VK5MM

As we go to air, the voyage continues. (WIA News)

NEWSCAST CLOSE

With thanks to Alan Labs, AMSAT, the ARRL, the CGC Communicator, CQ Magazine, the FCC, the Ohio Penn DX Bulletin, Radio Netherlands, Rain, the RSGB, the Southgate News and Australia's W-I-A News, that's all from the Amateur Radio Newsline(tm). Our e-mail address is newsl...@arnewsline.org. More information is available at Amateur Radio Newsline's(tm) only official website located at www.arnewsline.org. You can also write to us or support us at Amateur Radio Newsline(tm), P.O. Box

660937, Arcadia, California 91066.

Before we go, the results of our on-line poll
that asked the question of what are your upgrade plans now that Morse is no longer required. Well 38.8% of those who responded said they planned to upgrade while only 15.8% said they will stay with the license they now have. And a whopping 45.8% clicked the box that said that they wished everyone would stop talking about the Morse exam going away. We tend to agree.

The new poll now on line regards your ham radio reading habits. It asks what is your favorite major U.S. ham radio magazine. You vote at www.arnewsline.org.

For now, with Bill Pasternak, WA6ITF, at the editors desk, I'm Jim Damron, N8TMW, and I'm Jeff Clark, K8JAC, saying 73 and we thank you for listening.

and this year it is carried out in Europe for the first time off the shore of Valencia. Pascual,EA5FKQ (AO5FKQ), and other OMs from this region will use the special prefix AO5 instead of EA5 until Jul 7.

UKRAINE, SPECIAL EVENT STATION
The town of Slavutych was founded to be the new home for those persons who had to be evacuated after the nuclear accident in Chernobyl back in 1986. The special event station EO20R is working during this small jubilee from May 28 until Jun 3. QSLs as usual via UY2RO.

CQ DX HALL OF FAME
Thirty years after Geoff Watts (BRS-3129, publisher of the legendary
"The DX News Sheet") was elected into the CQ DX HALL OF FAME the first Italian HAMs received this honour as well. Mauro,I1JQJ, and his XYL
Valeria,IK1ADH, publishers of the Italian "425 DX News" were both elected into the CQ DX HALL OF FAME this year. The other new entries are Roger Western,G3SXW, and Nigel Cawthorne,G3TXF, who are travelling together almost all the time. Nigel activated 44 DXCC entities
and
Roger 37 and both are founding members of the "Voodoo Contest Group".
Congratulations!

The ARRL has sent out more than 100 letters to repeater owners/trustees who have repeaters affected by the "Pave Paws" radars (PPR). Citing an increasing number of interference complaints, the US Air Force has asked the FCC to order dozens of repeater systems to either mitigate interference to the Pave Paws radars or shut down. The ARRL is working with the US Department of Defense (DoD) to develop a plan to mitigate alleged interference from 70 cm ham radio repeaters to this military radar system on both coasts.

The situation affects 15 repeaters within less than 100 miles of Otis Air Force Base on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, and more than 100 repeaters within some 140 miles of Beale Air Force Base near Sacramento, California.

ARRL Regulatory Information Specialist Dan Henderson, N1ND, stresses that the Defense Department acknowledges Amateur Radio's value in disasters and emergencies and is being extremely cooperative -- and a wholesale shutdown of US 70 cm Amateur Radio activity is not on the table.

The Amateur Radio Service is a secondary user in the 420-450 MHz band, both by the Table of Frequency Allocations and the FCC Part 97 regulations. As such, Amateur Radio licensees, jointly and individually, bear the responsibility of mitigating or eliminating any harmful interference to the primary user, which in this case is the Government Radiolocation Service that includes the DoD Pave Paws systems.

The letters sent to affected repeater owners/trustees give them an up-to-date briefing on the ongoing negotiations with the US Air Force, as well as outlines the DoD's plan. The DoD has indicated a willingness to try a mitigation proposal, but they have also indicated their need is for these issues to be resolved sooner rather than later. With that expediency in mind, the proposed mitigation strategy is as follows:

* All repeaters on the DoD list in the affected areas will immediately reduce power to 5 W transmitter power output (TPO). Each repeater licensee/trustee should contact Henderson to confirm this once this has been done for their system. Confirmation of this being done is needed from each repeater owner by Friday, June 15, 2007.

* The ARRL will provide the Longley-Rice calculations for each repeater to the DoD by June 15, 2007. The DoD will provide engineering data to the ARRL and FCC by June 15, 2007. These studies will be reviewed by the DoD, the ARRL Lab and the FCC to determine the amount of mitigation necessary for each repeater. Based on this review by the DoD, additional mitigation proposals for individual repeaters (including further power reductions, lowering of antenna heights, use of more directive antennas and other possible mitigation techniques) will be provided by the ARRL as needed to individual repeater owners. If there is a disagreement on the conclusions, a conference call will be held to resolve any outstanding issues.

* All interference must be resolved no later than August 1, 2007.

* Beginning in August 2007 (and continuing on a periodic basis), the DoD will have a follow-up engineers study at each PPR site to ensure corrective actions have been taken and the interference and to ensure that successful mitigation continues.

According to the DoD, the in-band interference from Amateur Radio fixed FM voice repeaters has increased to an unacceptable level. Pave Paws radars are used for national security functions, including early detection of water-launched missiles. They are critical to our national defense and are in use 24 hours per day, seven days per week.

The goal of the ARRL has been to develop and implement a plan that would mitigate the interference, and at the same time to permit the repeaters to continue operation and to operate on as liberal a basis as possible.
To do so, the League has offered to work closely with the two involved repeater coordinating groups, as well as the individual repeater owners, sharing information and dealing with this issue on a coordinated basis with all stakeholders.

The League has also been in contact with representatives of the FCC. They have the ultimate responsibility for enforcing any mitigation plan, up to and including ordering specific repeaters to shut down operations.
The FCC is aware of the complex nature of this problem and the mitigation strategy being proposed by the DoD.

Since Amateur Radio operators are secondary users on the band, the ARRL has few options, and all options involve cooperation with the DoD. It is hoped the Longley-Rice calculations from the ARRL and the DoD's engineering studies will provide enough data to allow as many of the repeaters in the affected areas as possible to remain on the air at reasonable power levels.

It is entirely probable that even with extreme mitigation techniques, some repeaters in close proximity to the PPR sites may have to be shut down permanently. If that happens, official notice would come from the

FCC. It is also possible that some repeaters might be required to operate permanently at a lower power level in the areas near these Air Force bases. In those cases, the League will be in contact with the individual repeater owners with that information and the FCC will be notified.

Henderson requests that all repeater owners/trustees affected by this issue immediately implement the 5 W TPO for your repeater/s; please contact his office by June 15 indicating if you have implemented the power reduction. This will allow the ARRL to have voluntary compliance on hand that can be used to show the cooperation of the amateur community.

Henderson stresses that it is to each repeater's long-term advantage to implement the power reduction as soon as possible. The DoD indicated they will be collecting engineering data during June. This presents the opportunity to assess a repeater's actual impact at the lower power level and a more honest determination of its continued potential for harmful interference to the PPR sites. If any repeaters are running at higher power levels, then the determinations can only be based on assumptions rather than on actual data.

==> ARRL/IARU TEAM TO REPRESENT AMATEUR RADIO AT ITU MEETING IN GENEVA

ARRL Chief Executive Officer and IARU Secretary David Sumner, K1ZZ, will be representing the IARU at a meeting of ITU-R Working Party 1A next week in Geneva, Switzerland. WP 1A is responsible for spectrum engineering techniques within Study Group 1 (spectrum management) and will be working on a document that may eventually become what's called a "preliminary draft new report" on the impact of power line telecommunications (PLT, what we call BPL on this side of the Atlantic) on radiocommunication systems operating below 80 MHz. Of course, the IARU's interest is in ensuring that the report accurately reflects the sensitivity of the amateur services to interference from this source. Jon Siverling, WB3ERA, of the ARRL Technical Relations Office is on the US delegation.

Also meeting at about the same time (June 12-20) is ITU-R Working Party 8A, which is responsible for most of the land mobile services, plus the amateur and amateur-satellite services. WP 8A hopes to complete work on a "draft new handbook for the amateur and amateur-satellite services" to be published by the ITU. This isn't competition for The ARRL Handbook

--
it is simply an overview of the activities of the amateur services
along with existing ITU texts that relate to the two services, and is intended to be a helpful guide for administrations that may not be familiar
with Amateur Radio. IARU President Larry Price, W4RA, will represent the IARU, and Sumner will assist as time permits. ARRL Chief Technology Officer Paul Rinaldo, W4RI, is on the US delegation and is chairman of the working group that will deal with the amateur handbook.

After these meetings, Sumner, Price and Rinaldo will travel via train to attend the Friedrichshafen convention in Germany the following weekend.

==> FCC ANNOUNCES ENHANCEMENTS TO ULS LICENSE ARCHIVE

The FCC has announced a redesign of the Universal Licensing System (ULS) License Archive Search. Users can access this new functionality via
the
"Archives" button under "SEARCH" on the ULS page.

"Each time a license is acted upon, the current version is captured within ULS," the FCC explained this week in a public notice. "The License Archive allows users to view the current and prior versions of a license."

In the redesigned License Archive, the search interface, results screen and detail pages will use the same display as ULS License Search. On
the detail pages, users now will be able to directly access license information.

"There will be no need to 'drill down' -- follow link after link -- to reach the information you need," the FCC noted. "This enhancement increases functionality and improves compliance with Section 508 of
the Americans with Disabilities Act."

The redesigned License Archive search interface allows a user to search using most of the criteria available in ULS Advanced License Search except for Radio Service Group, Licensee City, State and ZIP Code and Frequencies. Users will have the same ability to sort and restrict their archive search results that they have in ULS License Search, the FCC said. Licensee ID no longer will be available as a License Archive Search criterion, however. Users should now search by the Licensee's FCC

Registration Number (FRN).

The search results display will be similar to the search results in License Search, with a few minor exceptions: There will be no display
of a "Pending Applications" icon, a column titled "Version" will display
"Archived" or "Current" depending on the version of the license and a
"Last Action Date" column will be used instead of "Expiration Date."

In general, the License Archive Search details will look similar to License Search details. However, the following additional fields will be displayed for all archived licenses: Last Action Date, Version, Licensee
ID, and Sub-Group Identification Number (SGIN).

Also, other License Search functions that previously were not available in the License Archive have been added, including a "Printable Page" link that allows the user to print the contents of the page pre-formatted for most common printers. A "Reference Copy" link now allows the user to print an unofficial copy of the license. A link to view "Related Applications" from the current version of the license has been added, as has the ability to view attachments and automated letters
in a PDF file.

License Archive will display termination pending components similar to the manner in which they are currently displayed in License Search.
Additionally, License Archive will display all terminated components
of
a license, regardless of when it was terminated. These components will indicate a status of "Terminated" on the component's summary and detail pages. Under the previous License Archive system, terminated components
were not displayed unless the license itself was terminated as well.

For additional information or assistance, visit the FCC's at <http://esupport.fcc.gov/index.htm> or call the FCC Support Center,
(877) 480-3201 or 717-338-2888 (TTY 717-338-2824) and select Option
#2, Forms or Licensing Assistance. Hours are weekdays, except federal holidays, from 8 AM until 6 PM Eastern Time.

==> IT'S KD5PLA IN FOR KD5PLB ON INTERNATIONAL SPACE STATION

NASA has given the go-ahead for the launch of the space shuttle
Atlantis

Friday, June 8. The STS-117 mission will carry US astronaut Clay Anderson, KD5PLA, to the International Space Station to succeed Suni Williams, KD5PLB, as ISS Expedition 15 Flight Engineer. Anderson will join Expedition 15 Commander Fyodor Yurchikhin, RN3FI, and Flight Engineer Dr Oleg Kotov.

Williams will return to Earth aboard the Atlantis. She arrived on the ISS last December and has been among the most active ISS crew members on Amateur Radio. NASA originally planned the astro-swap for the STS-118 shuttle mission, now targeted for an August launch.

Atlantis Commander Rick Sturckow and his six crewmates will spend 11 days in space and take part in three spacewalks. Work planned for this mission will increase the ISS's power capability in preparation for the arrival of new science modules from the European and Japanese space agencies.

Joining Sturckow and Anderson on STS-117 will be Pilot Lee Archambault and mission specialists Patrick Forrester, Steven Swanson, John "Danny" Olivas and Jim Reilly.

==> LEAGUE STAFFERS CRISSCROSS THE COUNTRY PROMOTING AMATEUR RADIO

ARRL Membership Manager Katie Breen, W1KRB, was in Rochester, New York for the Atlantic Division Convention and Rochester Hamfest May 31-June 3. ARRL President Joel Harrison, W5ZN; Atlantic Division Director Bill Edgar, N3LLR, and Vice Director Tom Abernethy, W3TOM, were there as well. Katie reports that both attendance and spirits were high at the event, especially on Saturday morning with long lines and standing-room-only for the VE test sessions. More than 100 test elements were given with over 70 passes. Many excited new hams came to share their good news at the ARRL Booth and have their pictures taken with President Harrison. Katie gave a forum on Saturday afternoon that included a tour of HQ, highlighting the Special Event blogs and videos on youtube.com.

ARRL Regulatory Information Specialist Dan Henderson, N1ND, attended the Georgia State Convention in conjunction with the Atlanta Hamfest on June
2. Dan spoke about the changing face of Amateur Radio since the 2006-2007 rules changes.

ARRL Chief Development Officer Mary Hobart, K1MMH, attended the Northwestern Division Convention led by Division Director Jim Fenstermaker, K9JF, and Vice Director Bill Sawders, K7ZN. The event, held in Seaside, Oregon last weekend, attracted about 2500 people from Oregon, Washington, Montana, Alaska, Idaho and California. The special event stations, W1AW/7 was operational for the duration of the convention, which also offered flea market opportunities and key ham radio vendors. More than 300 people attended the Saturday night banquet where Steve Johnson, N7VIC, received a scholarship. The ARRL table saw brisk business as publications and Field Day T-shirts and other paraphernalia flew off the table.

==> ARISS MILESTONE: 300TH CONTACT

On Thursday, May 31, Amateur Radio on the International Space Station (ARISS) made its 300th contact since its inception back in December 2000. This milestone QSO was to the NASA Teacher Conference in Houston, Texas. The first contact was on December 21, 2000 to Burbank School in Burbank, Illinois.

The United States leads in the number of ARISS contacts with 153. Japan is next with 25; Australia has 18, Canada has 16, Belgium has 10, the United Kingdom and Germany have 8 and France has 7 contacts. A total of 28 countries have made contact with the ISS through ARISS.

For schools interested in setting up an ARISS contact, first check with your local school! See if the school's Amateur Radio school station is sufficiently equipped to enable a successful contact (i.e., general technical level, transceiver + power, steerable antenna, tracking programs and such). Please take into account the expected level of deployment of the Amateur Radio equipment operated onboard ISS. Next, carefully fill out the application form (this can be found at <http://www.rac.ca/ariss/arissapp.htm>. Please make sure to include the school's educational proposal. The educational proposal should include answers to these questions: How will you: a) integrate this activity into the school curriculum and b) involve as many grade levels as you can, participating through essay contests, poster drawing, letter writing and so on? How will you get as much media coverage as possible?
For US schools, e-mail your completed application to a...@arrl.org.

For more information on the ARISS program, please see <http://www.rac.ca/ariss/faqariss.htm.>

==> SOLAR UPDATE

Tad "There's a Little Black Spot on the Sun Today" Cook, K7RA, Western North Carolina, this week, reports:

After five days of no sunspots from May 24-28, spots returned on May 29, and have increased since in number and size. There are currently several sunspots visible, and the sunspot number for the past five days (Sunday through Thursday) was 58, 58, 63, 47 and 59. Coupled with quiet and stable geomagnetic indicators, this is good for HF propagation. Our reporting week for this bulletin (the numbers reported at the end) runs from Thursday through Wednesday, and the average daily sunspot number for May 31 to June 6 rose nearly 43 points to 46.1 when compared to the prior seven days. Average daily solar flux rose nearly 15 points to 83.7.

Last week the latest projection looked like no sunspots around Field Day
with a declining geomagnetic disturbance, but this week the forecast looks a little better. Including the Friday before (the event doesn't begin until Saturday) the projected solar flux last week for June 22-24
was 65 for all three days, with a planetary A index of 20, 12 and 5.
This week's prediction for those dates shows the same A index, but a solar flux 10 points higher, at 75 for all three days.

A check of recent sunspot numbers alongside solar flux values on the same dates at <http://www.sec.noaa.gov/ftpdir/indices/DSD.txt> shows no
sunspots when the solar flux was down around 65, but at 75 the sunspot number can be in the forties.

For the next few days expect continued quiet geomagnetic activity,
with the same moderate (for the low point of the sunspot cycle) sunspot count.

Sunspot numbers for May 31 through June 6 were 11, 41, 45, 58, 58, 63 and 47 with a mean of 46.1. 10.7 cm flux was 74.6, 79.4, 83.2, 87, 85.7,

88.8, and 87.1, with a mean of 83.7. Estimated planetary A indices were 4, 6, 7, 10, 8, 3 and 2 with a mean of 5.7. Estimated mid-latitude A indices were 2, 5, 5, 7, 8, 2 and 2, with a mean of 4.4.

For more information concerning radio propagation, visit the ARRL
Technical Information Service Propagation page
<http://www.arrl.org/tis/info/propagation.html>.

==>IN BRIEF:

* This weekend on the radio: The ARRL June VHF QSO Party is June 9-11.
On June 8, it's the NCCC Sprint Ladder and the Digital Pentathlon. The

ANARTS WW RTTY Contest, Portugal Day Contest, the Asia-Pacific Sprint (SSB), the GACW WWSA CW DX Contest and the REF DDFM 6 Meter Contest are all on June 9. Coming up on June 13 is the SKCC Sprint, the NAQCC Straight Key/Bug Sprint, the RSGB 80 Meter Club Championship (CW) and the NCCC Sprint Ladder. Next weekend plays host to the Digital Pentathlon, the All Asian DX Contest (CW), the SMIRK Contest, SARL Youth for Amateur Radio, the West Virginia QSO Party, the AGCW VHF/UHF Contest, Kids Day, DIE Contest, Run for the Bacon QRP Contest and the RSGB 80m Club Championship (SSB). See the ARRL Contest Branch page <http://www.arrl.org/contests/> and the WA7BNM Contest Calendar <http://www.hornucopia.com/contestcal/index.html> for more info.

* ARRL Certification and Continuing Education course registration: Registration remains open through Sunday June 17 for these online courses beginning on Friday July 6; Technician License Course (EC-010), Amateur Radio Emergency Communications Level 1 (EC-001), Radio Frequency Interference (EC-006), Antenna Design and Construction (EC-009), Analog
Electronics (EC-012) and Digital Electronics (EC-013). These courses will also open for registration Friday May 15, for classes beginning Friday July 3. To learn more, visit the CCE Course Listing page <http://www.arrl.org/cce/courses.html> or contact the CCE Department <c...@arrl.org>.

* New England ham honored for work with Handiham program: Phil Temples, K9HI, ARRL New England Assistant Director and Affiliated Club Coordinator for the ARRL Eastern Massachusetts Section, was recognized by Boston College for his work with the Courage Center Handiham program and participation in the Read Aloud program in the Boston school system.
Temples, an employee in the Boston College Computer Science Department and a Handiham volunteer instructor, received BC's 2007 Community Service Award at a recognition dinner in May. "You have been recognized for your efforts in recruiting, organizing, teaching and mentoring at the non-profit Courage HandiHam System Camp in Lake George, Minnesota and Cupertino, California," wrote William R. Mills, Jr., Director of Community Affairs at Boston College. "We know you consider yourself a privileged man to be able to serve others because you believe that people should have the right to live, work and learn in a community based on abilities, not disabilities."

* Local Radio Club to Honor John Hennessee, N1KB (SK): The Newington Amateur Radio Club (NARL) will operate Field Day this year with call sign W1H in honor of John Hennessee, N1KB (SK). John, a long-time ARRL

Headquarters staff member, died last year. He was 42. A Headquarters employee since 1986, Hennessee was a regulatory information specialist in ARRL Field and Educational Services. In addition, Hennessee was an active member of NARL where he was a Field Day regular; he also belonged to the Quarter Century Wireless Association. Over the years, he enjoyed operating various bands and modes, often as a guest operator at W1AW or at the Headquarters club station W1HQ. John enjoyed CW and low-power operating (QRP). For more information contact E. Jonathan Hardy, KB1KIX, NARL Field Day Chairman, at kb1...@arrl.net. Field Day is June 23-24, 2007.

* ARRL Staff Relays for Life: Team ARRL joined in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life of Newington last weekend, raising almost $3500 to help find a cure for cancer, well over their goal of $3000. Team ARRL remembered those who have lost their battle with cancer, and walked in honor of our survivors. There are more than 4600 Relays this year world-wide. To find a Relay near you, go to <http://www.cancer.org>. You can visit Team ARRL at <http://www.acsevents.org/relay/ctnewington>.

* ARISS warns of pirate activity: Amateur Radio on the International Space Station (ARISS) reports a rumor that the ISS was making direct contacts on the 40 meter band. ARISS stresses this is not happening, as there is no HF radio equipment on board the space station, although the HF antenna is mounted. Sometimes the Goddard Amateur Radio Club, WA3NAN, retransmits shuttle audio.

* ARRL seeks new Assistant Editor: The ARRL is currently seeking applicants for an Assistant Editor to join the publications group at Headquarters in Newington. The successful candidate will fulfill a variety of responsibilities related to preparing material for publication. The primary responsibilities of the position include preparing general interest and some technical material for publication in QST and on the ARRL Web site; ensuring that manuscripts are well written and engaging, conforming to the rules of grammar, spelling, usage and ARRL style; taking photographs for publication in QST and on the ARRL Web site and writing material for publication. Other responsibilities as may be assigned, and include the possibility of some weekday and weekend travel. Those interested in the position should send a cover letter and resume to LouAnn Campanello at <lcampane...@arrl.org>.

* We stand corrected: The Contest Corral column in the July 2007 issue of QST, which will be arriving in ARRL members' mailboxes soon, lists an incorrect date for the IARU HF World Championship. It will be held July
14-15.
* The resonance probe article listed on the front cover of the July 2007 issue (now being mailed to ARRL members) does not appear in that issue.
The article will appear in an upcoming issue.

Thos are stick mics. They sound rather lame. In a truck, you want a noise canceling mic. That cancels the background noise like the engine revving, but allows your voice to be heard. The Road Devil does both, cancels noise and amplifies your voice.

The fact is, UnWiseman, that Mark's knowledge of wave propagation looks encyclopedic when compared with yours. The S-9 signal from VK9NS last night after 0400Z must have been imaginary.

Where was any "radio content" in your followup, hypocrite?

In Leviticus 18:22 and 20:13, the Torah prohibits "mishkivei isha", a man laying with another man as he would lay with a woman. Historically Judaism has understand this mitzvah as directly or indirectly prohibiting homosexuality. Outside of Judaism, most of Western civilization has usually seen homosexuality as a willful perversion, or a rebellion against God's will.

The Torah states "Do not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it is a to'evah" (Leviticus 18:22, New JPS) and "If a man lies with a male as one lies with a woman, the two of them have done a to'evah; they shall be put to death." (Leviticus 20:13, New JPS).
The word to'evah is usually translated as "abomination" and is used in the Bible to refer to a variety of forbidden acts including incest, idolatry, eating unclean animals, and acts of economic injustice.

In Leviticus 18:22 and 20:13, the Torah prohibits "mishkivei isha", a man laying with another man as he would lay with a woman. Historically

Judaism has understand this mitzvah as directly or indirectly prohibiting homosexuality. Outside of Judaism, most of Western civilization has usually seen homosexuality as a willful perversion, or a rebellion against God's will.

The Torah states "Do not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it is a to'evah" (Leviticus 18:22, New JPS) and "If a man lies with a male as one lies with a woman, the two of them have done a to'evah; they shall be put to death." (Leviticus 20:13, New JPS).
The word to'evah is usually translated as "abomination" and is used in the Bible to refer to a variety of forbidden acts including incest, idolatry, eating unclean animals, and acts of economic injustice.

Please refrain from doing this. There is noone posting here that claims to be an employee of HughesNet. And even if there were, it's doubtful they would be in a position to do anything about this issue. Whatever it is.

Wrong, stupid. You used a Hughes next proxy server to post your read message headers and able to trace the IP numbers listed.

Except for the fact NOBODY lusts after you, Marqueer, but the reverse just isn't the case, is it?
Tell everybody how you found one of your former wives, in the throes of lovemaking with TWO black men. I'd say you'd scraped the dregs at

"ontoic?" More like "onus," with you blaming everybody yourself.

Wrong, you did spam and whine quite a bit, though.

2336. Mark Morgan kb9rqz, why can't you keep your abnormal sexual behavior to yourself?

I haven't said a word about your using other people's calls, I could care less. Calls don't mean anything on the internet. Why don't you go out and find a post on RRAP where I said anything about you using other people's calls. You know what, you can't, just another Mark Morgan KB9RQZ lie, I just noticed something, good thing you don't work
CW, your call kind of sucks.

Dloyd

www.kb9rqz.blogspot.com

with the proof being right there

Another lie, because I didn't say a thing on RRAP about you using another persons call. So using kb9rqz is perfectly within my right, unless you do one thing, then I would have to give it up, but you don't have the knowledge to do that one thing.

other example exist such as you instistance that it is improper from me to keep asking the same question when it is ignored and yet you did quite a lot yesterday

Big deal I did it once out of a year, you've done it so many times I've lost count. Nevertheless, look how much you didn't like it, you were squirming like a worm on a hook, and spamming like a rabid monkey. So now you know why we don't like your behavior.

Look everybody, Mark doesn't like getting a taste of his own behavior, and is whining about it, The irony.
It must suck being Mark.

I use an Astatic 636L. Never needs batteries!

While it's not as loud as the stock mike on my radio, folks report it sounds a lot better then the stock mike. Just to qualify my statement, the stock mike in question is a Radio Shack on a TRC-451.

FWIW, I also get good audio reports on 10 meters with my RCI-2950 and a Sadelco ME-3 with the echo turned off. I haven't tried skipping while moving, but if I remember right, that combo would pick up a moth fart back when I used it on 11 meter AM! I always wonder when my battery will die...

Larry, the problem is that with Mark's third grade education, he can't comprehend a damn thing you just explained to him and he can't conceptualize the bearing your explaination has to being anonymous or not so anonymous.

I attempted to point out to Mr. Unwiseman that 20M, like any other HF band, can be unpredictable.
There have been one or two in these groups who have commented on late night propagation on 20M, but Mr. Wiseman refuses to believe that 20M can be open at night. (as it is now)
Of course living in a virtual hole with inferior antennas prevents Woger from "hearing" anything but local signals. In Un Wiseman's mind if he can't hear propagation, he stupidly surmises that it doesn't exist.

Don't expect Mark to be rational. That is beyond his capabilities. Don't expect him to think his allegations through. Morkie has a penchant for accusing others of performing "ilgeal" acts, none of which are based on laws of the land, but on-the-fly, made-up "laws" that exist only in Mark's misfiring head.

Did you know that Mark is now claiming that, besides being in the "chmcal crops" in the Army, that he was also a Military Policeman? His alleged military experience seems to grow ever more expansive with each post.

Mark will return in force later this morning. He is incapable of allowing a post, any post, to slip past him sans a Mork Morgan response.
Give him a minute or two and he will most assuredly not only crap on the post, but will hijack the thread as well.

Please forgive Mark Morgan for his transgressions. He has never fully recovered from his alleged violent rape at the hands of four, fellow Army enlistees. (His fantasy, not mine.)

Of course it is highly doubtful that Mark ever served in the Army, though the "rape" story may have a grain of truth, if only due to Mark's wishful fantasies.

Mark is a congenital liar who lives in a fantasy world of his own making.

Mark wants "his" blog back. You big meanie. You purposely teased him when you said that you would consider relinquishing the blog under his call sign. You dangled the proverbial carrot and Mark salivated while looking forward to regaining the blog he so stupidly lost. Then, after he accused you of theft and "frogery", and when you told him to pound sand, he became petulant. He claimed that you did not honor your alleged promise to return "his" blog to his control.
Mark went on to claim that you had agreed to a "contract", which is Mark Morgan speak for Bullshit. Now, as usual, Mark is once again whining about his lost blog, the blog he lost due to his own ineptitude. (I am being kind by referring to Mark as "inept". Others would call him stupid.")

Gee whiz, Dloyd. Don't you feel even so much as a shred of pity for Mark? (I don't) You have disrupted Mark's life by usurping his blog and poor Mark has gone into a permanent whine mode because of you.

Far be it from me to suggest that you return his lost blog...I would never dream of saying so. In fact, Dloyd, I am of the opinion that you should continue to dangle the KB9RQZ blog spot before Mark's eyes. Let him twist. Let him whine. If you can do so, reduce him to begging, which he has already done a time or two.

Thanks for the humor, Dloyd. You have not only kept Mark dangling with "maybe" promises of a blog page returned, but you have an uncanny talent that keeps Mark dancing to whichever Dancing Monkey tune you choose to play.

When you post, Mark dances to your tune. It doesn't get much more fun than this.

Now please excuse me while I gloat over Mark's discomfort.

The newest U.P. hot spot, the Greenlight Lounge, is IN and all kewl pple know it. For a good time watching local thespians and magickal pple, come to

The Greenlight Lounge
Phone: 906-523-4417
22095 7th St
Chassell, MI 49916

Be sure to bring yer cents of humor with you.

Instead of karaoke, the Greenlight has a thespian showcase ever Saturday nite at 11 pm sharp. Each year they have a different theme for the showcase, and this year the theme is Native American berdaches and their customs and costumes. Right now, the thespian who has won the last seven showcases is Mr. Morkie, and so he is Greenlight's reigning champion and the one to beat.

Besides that, the Greenlight has an enema room with its own beer keg and floor drain so that you can enjoy beer yer own way. This is a feature to be found in no other U.P. bar.

We have fun, fun, fun, fun, fun ever Saturday night, so put on yer leotards and get to stepping. Be thier or be square.

I do pity him on the level that his view is so twisted, It must be difficult to function in day to day life. But on the other hand, he has given so much grief to me and others, all that pity is ignored.

At one point, I actually considered returning his blog domain name to him. I felt a little sorry for him and he truly seemed to be upset about the fact that he had lost the name through an honest mistake, but of course it took him hours to admit that it was his own error.
So I decided to give it a day or two and see if he could be cordial.
Instead it took about ten minutes before he started acting like his usual "asshole" self and went on a tirade about me, so I kept the name. He truly had a shot at getting it back, but he could not maintain control.

That's simply incorrect, UnWiseman. Anyone who really wants to know about 20m propagation could care what I wrote. It counters the erroneous information giving out by you.

All of the French ops I worked from Tanzania were in the 6m band. They called me. If they were out of their 6m allocation, you may take it up with the French authorities--if you can supply them with callsigns, dates and times.

Does it excite you to think of such things, UnWiseman? Do you think That's not correct, Rog. I post as no one but myself on usenet or

I have no need to post as another.

Here's some info on your medical problem, UnWiseman:

from: http://faculty.ncwc.edu/TOCONNOR/428/428lect16.htm

quote
DETAILED ANALYSIS OF THE SOCIOPATH

From the wild Irish slums of the 19th Century Eastern seaboard to the riot-torn anomic
neighborhoods of Los Angeles, our society has always produced sociopaths
who are quite often the products of illegitimacy, broken homes, and a lack of any bonding with male
or societal authority. Some 70% of sociopaths come from fatherless homes. Father absence
produces many consequences similar to the symptoms of sociopathy --
early, precocious
sexuality; antagonistic, deprecating attitude toward the opposite sex;
lack of interest
in bonding with a durable, stable mate; aggressive acting-out; excessive
boasting;
and risk-taking behavior. Some 30% of children today are born
out-of-wedlock, and another 30% live in divorced homes. These conditions - a problem of unsocialization -
produce sociopathy. Furthermore, sociopaths tend to reproduce

themselves, that is,
they produce more than own their share of illegitimate offspring themselves.

So what is a sociopath? You won't find criteria in the DSM IV or official psychiatric nomenclature, but the construct refers to the largest subgroup of APDs.
Most are males,
but an increasing number are female. They have otherwise normal
temperaments (as opposed
to psychopaths who have abnormal temperaments). Some are aggressive, fearless sensation
seekers, and others are Machiavellian manipulators. A Machiavellian is a personality
type who is a cross between an antisocial personality and a narcissist, and someone who also has an extremely high sense of entitlement. The one thing that all sociopaths have in common is that they are "too much" to handle for their parents or anyone else. It's common to refer to them as unsocialized, but the dyssocial sociopath does socialize to the mores and values of a dyssocial outgroup, like a gang. Let's explore the four (4)
subtypes of sociopaths:

COMMON SOCIOPATHS are the largest subtype and have a weak or unelaborated conscience.
They are not ashamed by the same things as you or I would be ashamed of.
They are like feral children grown up, taking pleasures and gratifying impulses at every opportunity or temptation. They especially enjoy and take pride in bending or breaking the rules.
As teenagers, they are often runaways. As adults, they are often geographically mobile, living in shelters, or taking advantage of welfare systems. They are experienced shoplifters. They have quite active sex lives. They are usually of average intelligence, but don't do well in school and never seem to break out of low-paying dead-end jobs. Nevertheless, they seem genuinely happy with their lives, unburdened
by any sense of negative self-worth or the fact that they have not been a functional,
contributing member of society.

ALIENATED SOCIOPATHS have never developed the ability to love, empathize, or affiliate in real life with another person. They will show more emotion toward their pet or a personal artifact than toward a person. Or, they may hate animals and live out their emotional life by watching TV (identification with soap opera characters is a common pattern). Dating and marriage relationships will be very barren and empty. They won't get along with the neighbors. They live in a shell. They have a cold, callous attitude toward human suffering or any social problem in the society they live in. They just don't care because it's outside their range of empathy. Most will believe they are justified in this because they feel they were cheated in some way themselves by society, and a few will be more than happy to rant and rave about it to anyone who listens. They are chronic complainers, and underneath it all, they would like to see nothing better than all of society destroyed.

AGGRESSIVE SOCIOPATHS derive strong, yet nonperverse gratification from harming others.
They like to hurt, frighten, tyrannize, bully, and manipulate. They do it for a sense of power and control, and will often only drop subtle hints about what they are up to.
They polish their aggressive, domineering manner in such a way to disguise any intimidation others might feel. They seek out positions of power, such as parent, teacher, bureaucrat, supervisor, or police officer. Their style is one of passive aggression as they systematically go about sabotaging the ideas of others to get their ideas in place. In their spare time, they like to hunt or occasionally do sadistic things like find stray dogs and cut them up. They are usually effective at getting their way, and are especially vindictive if resisted or crossed. They don't follow the social norm of reciprocity like others do.

DYSSOCIAL SOCIOPATHS identify and hold an allegiance with a dyssocial, outcast, or predatory subculture. Any subculture will do, as long as it runs counter to established authority. They are capable of intense loyalty, and even a feeling of guilt and shame, within such limited circles. They seem to continually fall upon bad luck and bad companions, however. While they will constantly complain that none of this is their fault, behind it all is a kind of self-defeating mechanism in the poor choices they made themselves.

The proof is right there in the Path and in the NNTP-Posting-Host headers, to name just two. Any sane person can look at the k4yz-1 posts and see that they were made from your IP address.

You, on the other hand, do not possess the requisite qualification (sanity) to realize that you were caught with your pants down. You continue to think that you can cover your ass by telling lies.

Hmmmmmmmm corn hole. Now thats a term I have not heard since my high school days.....I guess its yet another reason why TYNK aka Kelly lives in the land of corn (Illinois) probably dab smack in the middle of a corn field no less. She probably uses more than the cob to wipe her shit hole with too.....READ: Cheap disposable dildoe! She likes those big huge field corn ears the most...

TYNK wuld toss the homo's in the window just to get corn holed!

If you understood the concept of propagation to begin with, and the concept of not spending Saturday nights alone listening on HF because you aer too stupid to even pass the General, you'd see what a moron you are.

The only thing Mark ever threw out the window was his reputation when he opened it to allow the queers to crawl in.

Translation: Your situation is so sad that even if 20M was wide open during darkened house all day and telling everybody that the sun is not shining because you can't see it.

No need to, Roger. I'll let the facts speak for themselves. Weasel your way out of this one.

GLENDALE, WV: The FCC sent a Warning Notice November 9, 1999, to General licensee Roger L. Wiseman, KC8JBO, citing evidence that the licensee had been "deliberately and maliciously interfering with the radio operations of other licensed amateurs" on 20 meters. "This interference has occurred at various times in the last several months and includes broadcasting music and other unidentified transmissions," said a letter from FCC Special Counsel for Amateur Radio Enforcement Riley Hollingsworth. Hollingsworth warned that continued operation of the type described could result in a fine or license revocation proceeding, and he requested that the licensee contact him to discuss the allegations.

GLENDALE, WV [UPDATE]: The FCC had written General licensee Roger L. Wiseman, KC8JBO, on March 29, 2000, advising that it had been made aware of "an ongoing personal dispute" between Wiseman and Advanced licensee Steven A. Tunder, N8WGM, that included allegations of interference or jamming on 20 meters. FCC Special Counsel for Amateur Radio Enforcement Riley Hollingsworth cautioned Tunder and Wiseman to review §97.1 of the Amateur Radio rules and "to make certain that whatever disputes that may exist are not carried over to Amateur Radio frequencies." Hollingsworth invited the two licensees to contact him to discuss the matter. Wiseman alleged in a subsequent communication to the ARRL that Tunder had been harassing him and that he had made the FCC aware of it in the first place. Wiseman indicated that he had been in touch with Hollingsworth to clarify the situation. The FCC had sent Wiseman a Warning Notice last November in response to allegations of deliberate and malicious interference on 20 meters.

GLENDALE, WV: The FCC requested July 11, 2000, that Roger L. Wiseman, KC8JBO, retake the General examination elements under the supervision of an ARRL-VEC volunteer examiner team. Wiseman must appear for retesting by September 11, 2000, or his license will be canceled. Applicants appearing for re-examination are granted an Amateur Radio license consistent with the elements passed. The FCC had written Wiseman on March 29, 2000, advising that it had been made aware of "an ongoing personal dispute" between Wiseman and another licensee that included allegations of interference or jamming on 20 meters. FCC Special Counsel for Amateur Radio Enforcement Riley Hollingsworth invited the two licensees to contact him to discuss the matter. Additionally, the FCC had sent Wiseman a Warning Notice last November in response to allegations of deliberate and malicious interference on 20 meters.

"mak e?" Muwhahahahaha!

Marqueer Morgan confesses his homosexual and tiny dick status
when he talks about why his first wife left him
(the more plausible scenario) in http://nimbusters.info/info/read.php?board=1&id=284391:
"no I left her after catch in bed with 2 nigger bucks while thought I was on an army field exercise"

Oh, that's right, Markie, you prefer it being gangraped by 4 guys instead, Don't you, "killer?"

2530. Marqueer screws up again!

The fact is, fatty, it was still ONE warning letter, one advisory letter to Roger AND Steve Tunder, and ONE retest letter.
This has been discussed before, but apparently, you are too obtuse to let it sink into your defective brain cell.
Roger never lost his license nor was it ever suspended. Now, answer why YOU never did pass the General, (or learn cw) even after they lowered the standards, while Roger upgraded to Amateur Extra.

Bullshit, you are so full of shit.

We are in the bottom end of the solar cycle are we not?

http://www.amateurlicense.org/page6.html
"The 20-meter band usually support worldwide propagation during daylight hours at any point in the solar cycle."

Key words during DAYLIGHT HOURS.

ARRL Operating Manual, Ch. 3, "Picking a Band"
"While many hams think 20 meters is the workhorse band, it always isn't reliable. At the bottom of the sunspot (solar) cycle, 20 meters may be usable for only a few hours a day. During years of higher solar activity though, 20 meters may be open all night."

Key words: Years of highest solar activity.

Since we are currently in the bottom end of the solar cyle, Yours, Marqueer
and others' claims of 20 meters being open all night is just unsubstantiated bullshit.

Poor Dave, he hasn't got the knowledge or training on his own, he has to live as a Psychologist vicariously through other's writings about such topics. Davey the ex State dept errand boy and ex lackland public release copy boy is so frustrated his "writings" don't get the same accolades as a real writer, like for instance, Steven King.
That's why Dave has such a dislike for Steven King.
And what about Dave's stalking of Roger, threatening to post copies of his posts on utility poles (which is quite illegal) at ham meetings, at Roger's home, just about anywhere you hear Dave on the radio, you hear him discussing Roger. Looks like Dave is just the psychopathic pot calling the kettle black.

No fucknuts, you fucked up again, since we are at the bottom of the solar cycle and even the ARRL says 20 meters isn't open then.

No I didn't try to tease you. The only thing I did was register the domain name when it came available as a goof. I honestly even considered giving it back to you after you complained, but only if you could have maintained control, and not went on the attack. But we all 2545. Marie Wiseman's nephew, Ron, is now a celebrity, but Woger is a failure.

Ron Wiseman has become famous for his Jewish Reggae and has a web site at http://www.ronwiseman.com. You can click on one of the links there and listen to Ron's latest album if you want.

He's Marie Wiseman's nephew (and Woger Wiseman's cousin, of course), but Woger doesn't want to admit that he's Jewish, and so he pretends that his Canadian cousin doesn't even exist.

Part of the problem may be due to the fact that, when Ron lived in West Virginia, Marie would bundle Woger into the car, drive past Ron's mansion, and tell Woger that one day, if he worked hard, he could live as well as Ron did.

Unfortunately, Woger never escaped from his 50 square foot home in Glendale, and he has now become a bitter man about the whole thing. These days, Woger spends almost all of his spare time at The Shipwreck Lounge drowning his sorrows in cheap booze. The last straw came when a Glendale appraiser mistook Woger's house for a neighbor's outhouse.

After that, Woger started hanging out at the lounge all day and betting on games of horseshoes.

He is a broken man. Pity him.

He is not Marie Wiseman's nephew, Lardass, go to the about section and it tells all about Ron's family.

Ron has never lived in West Virginia, so you must be trippin' off the

No, YOU are the one who lies about everything, Marqueer, like that lie you said you took out 4 guys in a fight..
Roger certainly did get an Honorable discharge, while you got court martialed for Sodomy.

Sine? Sine wave?

Apparently, you got thrown out for Sodomy, according to the VA. You sure were more than 2 pounds over the weight limit, too.

Heives???

What does kindness have to do with acting like an adult and taking responsibility for your own actions. Such as admitting your mistake, instead of going on a lie spreading tirade.

I can read and write in English without any problems, it is you that cannot correctly author a post. Nevertheless, I didn't try to "tease"

you. I just wanted you to be cordial, but know, you are way too kooky to act normal.

2611. Site that allows you to make QSL cards online

A very interesting US website about QSL cards just came out. www.iqslusa.com

This is what's interesting. You can actually make your own petty cool looking QSL card online without downloading any software. You choose a template style (there are almost 30 that I found) add your callsign, move text around, add new logos, change colors est. The only thing you can't change or replace is the background template (nicely done). Yet this does not allow cards to look ugly even if you try to screw the up (very thoughtful)

Thing I liked the most; you can make your card look either ultra modern or vintage looking (there are couple 1930 style templates) Once again all this is done online without need to download any software or sign up for anything. Its nice to see that someone has actually done quite a bit of work on this thing.

Afterwards, I sent myself a newly created QSL. It says there that you can use it as e-qsl or order actual printing (printing is done in US, price list looks descent)

Another neat feature; they will automatically fill in your QSO table during printing process if you send them your log (this is apparently free, or a least it says so on the website) That will save a bit of time, would not it?

Anyways, check it out. Beats sitting there and trying to make your own card in Word or Power Point, which in my case always turns out ugly.

Cheers , 73!

Are you on crack cocaine? Your parents must have used your head for a soccer ball when you were a child. If you keep money that just shows up in your mail box from an illegal enterprise, you are guilty of theft and possbily fraud after the fact. You can't keep funds that just show up in your mailbox, Nevertheless, from what I've read, there was electronic transfer of funds i.e. paypal, which is easily traced. Furthermore, I haven't maintained anything about this case. I never said anybody was guilty of anything, I said allegedly, but obviously, LE believes there was enough evidence to file charges, and the prosecutor thinks there is enough evidence to get a conviction.

Mark, just keep thinking that any money which shows up in your mailbox would be legally yours. Now that the world knows you are stupid enough to keep it, it would be easy for someone to set you up for a fall. Please, don't be so stupid.

Amateur Radio Newsgroups: Total Meltdown
Paul W. Schleck (K3FU) on April 26, 2006
View comments about this article!

Way back in 1972, before there was a World-Wide Web, even before there was Usenet News, amateur radio enthusiasts on the then-ARPANet organized a mailing list known as Info-Hams. In 1979, a couple of researchers at Duke and UNC developed a system that used "Unix to Unix File Copy" or "uucp" to copy files from one system to another, to make a broadcast bulletin-board system called "Usenet." The Info-Hams mailing list eventually gatewayed to this system, becoming fa.info-hams (fa = "From ARPANet"), then rec.ham-radio, then rec.radio.amateur.*.

Fast-forward to the present, and the newsgroups rec.radio.amateur.misc and rec.radio.amateur.policy are now in complete meltdown (the *.antenna, *.dx, *.equipment, and *.space newsgroups still seem to be in good shape, though). Both forums are almost completely bereft of any topic discussion. Instead, one can find run-on threads consisting of short, sniping, and personal attacks containing obscene language from what must be fewer than a dozen, mostly anonymous, users.

What happened? -- Maybe too many run-on arguments about code, or attacks on individual ham's personal character. Maybe just the anarchy and Tragedy of the Commons that is encouraged by totally-open, unmoderated forums where no one is obliged to obey any rules, and no competent authority seems able or willing to enforce them if there were any. Further fanning the flames are free, and anonymous, news posting sites like Google Groups, Yahoo, etc., as well as any news site that simply doesn't care to enforce any net etiquette among its users. Some hams have even offered the explanation that better enforcement of amateur radio regulations by Riley Hollingsworth at the FCC has had the unintended consequence of driving problem hams off the bands and onto a less restrictive forum to wreck.

As for Google Groups, it certainly deserves credit for archiving most newsgroup discussions since 1981 (thanks to old backup tapes meticulously maintained by Henry Spencer at the University of Toronto), but also a big raspberry for contributing to this problem.

This hasn't happened to every newsgroup. Even though other newsgroups have trolls, there seems to be a "immune system" of constructive users who step in both to ostracize problem users, and continue positive contributions in the face of such troublemakers. Certainly this behavior is not tolerated on web logs such as qrz.com and eHam.net. The site owners simply would not allow it. There is at least one example of a licensed radio amateur who is Dr. Jekyll on the blogs, but Mr. Hyde on rec.radio.amateur.policy. There may even be others.

I'm sure some would argue that Usenet is obsolete, and we are all better off going to moderated blogs. Still, I can't help but think that something is being lost here. For example, 20 years into the future, will we be able to read archived and indexed articles from most web logs that exist today, as we now have with Google Groups? Are there constructive solutions to the meltdown on rec.radio.amateur.*, such as converting newsgroups to moderated status, even if such moderated status is simply a self-approval, or anonymous user filter, mechanism?

If I might answer your question, what did we lose: what you lose on the moderated web blogs is annonymity. Yes, you can have annonymity more or less, but somebody somewhere has to approve your posting and your password, and they have your email, it is a bit more of a digital paper chain than on usenet.

You also lose the ability to go off topic. Some fora are more strict in this regards than others, but there it is: sometimes relating one issue to something seemingly off-topic is lost, with it, the freedom to address big picture questions.

You lose the ability to cross post.

Etc... there are many others

Sure you were, sure you were. You've been watching too many Steven Segal DVDs.
How does one "take "at" (@) people" in a fight? More like you took several people up your bunghole, like you do at the Greenlight men's room.

> just anopther examply of YOUR lying woger

"examply?"

No, Marqueer, it's an example of YOUR lying, and you know it. That is just another one of your lies and unsubstantiated bullshit.

nope, or more accurately it is not a crime for the reciever to keep and cash it it is crime but the criminal is the one that placed the flase ad or uction not the one set up to receive the proceeds, unless it can be proven the receiver KNOWS the chceck ill gotten

You first, whiner.

"one useless man is Marqueer, 2 becomes Marqueer and "wife", 3 or more becomes Marqueer's wet dream"

2658. why do you continually bring up yours and your shemale wife's abnormal sex life, Marqueer?

Why does it bother you, after all, you outed your wife's perverted sex proclivities as well as your own for having sex with underaged boys. I notice you didn't deny using k4yz's call as if it was your own.

The fact that I have heard VE7KFM from the west coast of Canada (according to him) carrying on conversations at midnight and later on 20M with W8 stations is meaningless to Roger, who has gotten himself in too deep to admit he was wrong.
In fact I have worked a station in Hawaii on 14.244 at three a.m. and a station in Sofia, Bulgaria at 11 p.m. and dozens of late night foreign stations on 17M.
But of course if Roger can't hear it, it doesn't exist. That is his story, and he's sticking to it.

If you accept stolen money knowingly or not Mark, you are in posession of stolen property.
That is a crime.
This is not unlike driving a stolen automobile that someone gives you. You may not know it is stolen, but ignorance of the law is no excuse and you will be charged with a crime.

Go ahead. Take the money. Please.

well had out that issue sometime ago here in Michigan a person was sold a stolen cars wih keys the charge against the vechile driver was not even alowed to go to trail. he, the drive,r did have to surrender the car of course a count of Frad was added to the list against the man who stole it in the first place

In this case howver the issue is clearer the money would be stolen in the first it would be freely given by it owner. posscession of something given you by its rightfull owner is NOT ilegal >find it hard to believe that they would bargin back down.

again you porve you have little knowledge fo real LE Dloyd

I have indulged you I don't supose you would Indulge ME by answering why you seem to have Delusion I want to be "normal" ? that has NEVER (except for a monets of weakness) been an ambition of mine.

Aspire to far more than that, and I have to guts to go for it

If I end up looking like Don Quoxte (soory that may be mispelled)from tiem to time that is the price of aspiring to greatess

when I die dloyd it will be after having lived my life in something otrher than an endless fear of dying, that at leats will give something in comon with great Men. Like Ceaser Alexander Napeolen Hitler, Satlin Moes and the young rabbi from Judea

No, I claimed that in this particular case (based upon the information posted by indivduals who were defrauded, that the individual in question offered for sale amateur gear, and once payment was made, the gear was never mailed. Your the one that came up with the bogus ad defense.

I actually have something you don't have, which is real knowledge of the Law. FYI I have worked directly with the United States District Court system for well over 25 years, which means that I know a hell of a lot more than you about the Law.

No, you prove that you don't know squat because DA's aren't LE, Mark.
DA's work with LE to adjudicate the law and Judge's aren't LE either, Judges are the finder of fact.

I have no delusions and never said that I thought you wanted to be normal. Stop making shit upt again. At least me and you can agree on one thing, that you are not normal, and by your own rationale your are not sane either.

I don't know anyone who lives in endless fear of dying. How crazy is that, I think you've read too many bedtime stories and other extrapolations from the truth. Half of the men you mentioned were nothing more than deranged tyrants or cowards, and in the end, these people didn't stand in the face greatness on their deeds, but instead coward down like the sniviling scumbags they were, and died cowardly meager deaths.

If your looking for greatness, you better get started, because most of the individuals you mentioned were well on the paths to their destiny of "greatness" before age 40.

Sure , liar, sure, that why you use k4yz.org in your sockpuppet using Hughes.net?
Your sanity which is on shaky ground to begin with is slipping away, otherwise you wouldn't have made up that bullshit story about fighting 4 guys. The only way you ever ruptured another guy's balls is by your vacuum cleaner like sucking on them.

You don't deal, Marqueer, you whine , backpedal and lie and hope nobody notices.

You've yet to answer any questions. Like why did you out your wife and her sexual practices here! Or your own for that matter? And how do you answer a "woger"? Oh, I know, you would answer it like Linda Lovelace would.

No, Roger's antennas are quite visible. You just have your head up

Just because you want to have sex with Lloydie, Marqueer, doesn't mean you have to agree with his know nothingness. He can't even get on HF, even after the FCC lowered the standards by eliminating cw.
He knows nothing about propagation and being at the bottom of the solar cycle, 20 meters is not open at night, it would be at the top of the cycle.

ARRL Operating Manual, Ch. 3, "Picking a Band"
"While many hams think 20 meters is the workhorse band, it always isn't reliable. At the bottom of the sunspot (solar) cycle, 20 meters may be usable for only a few hours a day. During years of higher solar activity though, 20 meters may be open all night."

Since we are currently in the bottom end of the solar cyle, Marqueer and others' claims of 20 meters being open all night is just unsubstantiated bullshit.

Hmm......How strange.
Roy's post from another group copied and cross posted to even more

Sounds to me like Roy (Pondmeister and A.Paul.Ling) is once again
replying to himself as another person, and trying to stir up trouble

You keep chanting that mantra, UnWiseman. Facts say otherwise.

I worked VK9NS on 20m, after midnight local time just a few days ago.
I worked 3B7SP on 6/19 at 0427Z on 20m. If your fine antenna, the Alpha Delta DX-CC can't hear 'em, just say so.

So your interpretation of those words tells you that 20m can't be open at night, huh?

If you didn't live in the Ohio River Valley and had something besides a trap dipole at 35 feet, you might be able to substantiate the claims for yourself, demented one.

You certainly have a few antenna, Rog. Your DX-CC trap dipole at about 35 feet stands out really well against a clear sky. How's that working

Roger has himself a dilemma. The UnWiseman has only to check the DX spots on the DX Summit to see which 20m DX stations are being spotted in the United States. Roger's view is that 20m can't be open at night during periods of low solar activity because that's the way he interprets the ARRL's statement about the band.

Here's some info on your medical problem, UnWiseman:

from: http://faculty.ncwc.edu/TOCONNOR/428/428lect16.htm

quote
DETAILED ANALYSIS OF THE SOCIOPATH

From the wild Irish slums of the 19th Century Eastern seaboard to the riot-torn anomic neighborhoods of Los Angeles, our society has always produced sociopaths who are quite often the products of illegitimacy, broken homes, and a lack of any bonding with male or societal authority. Some 70% of sociopaths come from fatherless homes. Father absence produces many consequences similar to the symptoms of sociopathy -- early, precocious sexuality; antagonistic, deprecating attitude toward the opposite sex; lack of interest in bonding with a durable, stable mate; aggressive acting-out; excessive boasting; and risk-taking behavior. Some 30% of children today are born out-of-wedlock, and another 30% live in divorced homes. These conditions - a problem of unsocialization - produce sociopathy. Furthermore, sociopaths tend to reproduce themselves, that is, they produce more than own their share of illegitimate offspring themselves.

So what is a sociopath? You won't find criteria in the DSM IV or official psychiatric nomenclature, but the construct refers to the largest subgroup of APDs. Most are males, but an increasing number are female. They have otherwise normal temperaments (as opposed to psychopaths who have abnormal temperaments). Some are aggressive, fearless sensation seekers, and others are Machiavellian manipulators. A Machiavellian is a personality type who is a cross between an antisocial personality and a narcissist, and someone who also has an extremely high sense of entitlement. The one thing that all sociopaths have in common is that they are "too much" to handle for their parents or anyone else. It's

the mores and values of a dyssocial outgroup, like a gang. Let's explore the four (4)
subtypes of sociopaths:

COMMON SOCIOPATHS are the largest subtype and have a weak or unelaborated conscience.
They are not ashamed by the same things as you or I would be ashamed of. They are like feral children grown up, taking pleasures and gratifying impulses at every opportunity or temptation. They especially enjoy and take pride in bending or breaking the rules.
As teenagers, they are often runaways. As adults, they are often geographically mobile, living in shelters, or taking advantage of welfare systems. They are experienced shoplifters. They have quite active sex lives. They are usually of average intelligence, but don't do well in school and never seem to break out of low-paying dead-end jobs. Nevertheless, they seem genuinely happy with their lives, unburdened
by any sense of negative self-worth or the fact that they have not been a functional,
contributing member of society.

ALIENATED SOCIOPATHS have never developed the ability to love, empathize, or affiliate in real life with another person. They will show more emotion toward their pet or a personal artifact than toward a person. Or, they may hate animals and live out their emotional life by watching TV (identification with soap opera characters is a common pattern). Dating and marriage relationships will be very barren and empty. They won't get along with the neighbors. They live in a shell. They have a cold, callous attitude toward human suffering or any social problem in the society they live in. They just don't care because it's outside their range of empathy. Most will believe they are justified in this because they feel they were cheated in some way themselves by society, and a few will be more than happy to rant and rave about it to anyone who listens. They are chronic complainers, and underneath it all, they would like to see nothing better than all of society destroyed.

AGGRESSIVE SOCIOPATHS derive strong, yet nonperverse gratification from harming others.
They like to hurt, frighten, tyrannize, bully, and manipulate. They do it for a sense of power and control, and will often only drop subtle hints about what they are up to.
They polish their aggressive, domineering manner in such a way to disguise any intimidation others might feel. They seek out positions of power, such as parent, teacher, bureaucrat, supervisor, or police officer. Their style is one of passive aggression as they systematically go about sabotaging the ideas of others to get their ideas in place. In their spare time, they like to hunt or occasionally do sadistic things like find stray dogs and cut them up. They are usually effective at getting their way, and are especially vindictive if resisted or crossed. They don't follow the social norm of reciprocity like others do.

DYSSOCIAL SOCIOPATHS identify and hold an allegiance with a dyssocial, outcast, or predatory subculture. Any subculture will do, as long as it runs counter to established authority. They are capable of intense loyalty, and even a feeling of guilt and shame, within such limited circles. They seem to continually fall upon bad luck and bad companions, however. While they will constantly complain that none of this is their fault, behind it all is a kind of self-defeating mechanism in the poor choices they made themselves.

You have an HF antenna, Rog. It is a modest, low, trap dipole. It sits on low ground, surrounded by hills. You're perfectly capable of maliciously QRM stations in the hundreds of miles away, by virtue of the properties of low antennas: they are good high angle radiators. You won't be doing much interfering with DX stations though.

That's incorrect, UnWiseman. The ARRL has issued no edict that the 20 meter band remain closed during periods of darkness. Get a location.
Get an antenna. Get some information.

Even you have no obligation to check the license status of anyone you work on the amateur bands. I'm okay as long as I'm operating where I'm supposed to be and am called by someone with what seems to be an amateur callsign. Riley Hollingsworth had no jurisdiction whatsoever in

No, UnWiseman, it isn't.

You DO post under other names than your own.

No, Rog, I do not.

If you think I'm "Dloyd", my writing must not be easy to spot. A sane

Why no, Rog, I don't have the training. That's why I took the trouble to research the issue. Read the material, Rog. It describes you.

> ...he has
> to live as a Psychologist vicariously through other's writings about Vicariously? There's no vicariously to it, UnWellman. I looked up the term "sociopath" on a number of authoritative websites. I found information which describes your behavior as sociopathic.

> Davey the ex State dept errand boy and ex lackland public > release copy boy is so frustrated his "writings" don't get the same

Does Stephen King (not Steven) know much about sociopathy? You could surely pass as one of his characters, Rog. You even resemble the man to an extent. You're the shortened, troll doll version.

I've never been an errand boy nor have I ever been a "public release copy boy", whatever that is. I'm not at all frustrated as a writer.
Everything I've ever submitted for publication has been purchased.
That's all beside the point. How does my writing or even Stephen King fit in with my looking up your mental condition on the internet?

> That's why Dave has such a dislike for Steven King.

A dislike? I own almost everything he has written. How does your veering off course effect my looking up the reasons for your inability to fit into society?

> And what about Dave's stalking of Roger...

You seem to have the cart before the horse, UnWise and UnWellman.

> ...threatening to post copies of his posts on utility poles (which is

Fess up, Rog. I asked you once, how you'd like it if copies of some of your more odious posts were tacked to utility posts in your neighborhood. You didn't seem to like the idea of your neighbors knowing what they had living in their midst. That isn't stalking, Rog.

> at ham meetings...

My attendance was requested by N8FQN for purposes of joining Marhsall County ARES. That you and I attended the same meeting, can hardly be considered "stalking".

> at Roger's home...

My wife and I visited your home to discuss the vile things you wrote about my wife and posted to usenet. You hid behind your front door. That isn't stalking either.

> ...just about anywhere you hear Dave on the radio, you

Did you hear me working VK9NS or 3B7SP on 20m late at night? Your name didn't come up. Did you hear me in the VHF contest this month? Your name didn't come up. I can tell you that you're considered a pariah among local hams who aware of you.

It likely looks like that to a sociopath. I submit that you have trouble seeing the reality.

Your written corruption of words is legend, Rog. You're second only to Mark Morgan and he is dyslexic.

My wife has never worked as a prostitute, UnWiseman. She has never engaged in sex with an animal. What prompts these thoughts from you?
Did you see something you weren't supposed to see as a child?

I'll gladly take credit for the term, Rog. Your surname is "Wiseman", yet you are perhaps the least wise man I've encountered on usenet.
Hence, your very special name: UnWiseman. It suits you. Wear it well.

> LIke all

"LIke", wow! I'll happily compare my life to yours, UnWiseman. What have you achieved outside of being a really good usenet and amateur radio pariah?

I've provided absolute fact. Anyone can search DX Summit and see what stations were spotted on 20m late at night, by U.S. stations.

Is there some sort of prohibition on long distance 20m propagation at night, UnWiseman?

Get an antenna and a QTH, Rog.

There were no lies at all, UnWise and UnWellman. I've provided you gospel.

Len Anderson isn't a consensus. If a real consensus were to be taken in a r.r.a.p. poll, you'd be first with Mark Morgan a close second.

I made no such admission, UnWiseman. I provided you information which describes your mental condition. In fact, some parts of it seem to have been written about you in particular.

> Too bad your stalking of Roger > makes you the sociopath.

I don't stalk you, Rog. What I do is make certain that you know that for each unpleasantry you commit, there are consequences.

I don't find it necessary to hide, to post as others, to refer to myself in the third person. I haven't had problems with law enforcement or amateur radio regulators. You don't get it because you're a sociopath.
I'm outgoing. I have friends. I interact with society. I like society. I enjoy living in a society with rules for behavior. I don't care much for you.

And he's an Extra?
The ARRL quote he gave, " 20 meters may be usable for only a few hours a day". Apparently Un-Wiseman missed the "may" part.
Psssstt! Woger. The ARRL says 20M "may" be usable for only a few hours a day. Darned if I can find any information source (other than your misinformation) that says 20M IS usable for only a few hours a day.
I expect you to now apologize to us, be a man and admit your gaffe.

You should also apologize to Mark for berating his alleged inability to comprehend simple English, since you quite obviously suffer from the very malady of which you have accused him.

Oh, that's ther pot calling the kettle black, Assheil.

You were the one going to illegally put copies of internet posts on telephone poles, you drove by Roger's house to post pictures of it when Roger's house wasn't even on the internet unlike yours at your website, and let's not forget your stalking of Roger remember?. Oh, and the fact you worked out of banders and pretend to be such an a-1 operator to the ham community.

Maniac

(Michael Sembello/??)

Just a small town ham on a Thursday night
Lookin' for the fight of his life
In the real-time world no one believes him at all
They all say Dave's crazy

Posting insults in a beat of his heart
Changing cyberspace into life
He has danced in rec.radio.amateur.policy
Then a dancer becomes the netcop of the "velley"

Posts can cut Dave like a knife
If they're about his Finnish ex-whore wife
On a wire between will and what will be

He's a maniac, maniac at your door
And he's whining like he's never whined before
He's a maniac, maniac at your door
At the behest of his Finnish ex-whore

On the internet sanity is a place Dave never sees
It's a hard cold place of mystery
He can read it, but he can't control it

You work all your life for that moment in time
It could come or pass you by
It's out of band, but there's always a chance
If Dave's delusions stays the night

There's a cold connective heat,
Struggling, stretching for defeat
Never stopping with his head up his fat ass

He's a maniac, maniac, I sure know
And he's whining when you don't answer the door
He's a maniac, maniac, I sure know
And he's whining on the newsgroups like never before

(Solo)

Posts can cut you like a knife
Especially ones about your Finnish ex-whore wife
On a wire between will and what will be

He's a maniac, maniac, I sure know
And he's whining like he's never whined before
He's a maniac, maniac at your door
Hiding behind his Finnish ex-whore....
(repeats out)

Oh, that's right, you never had any to begin with, is that why you have a section 8?

No, stupid, you made up the whole thing, because the story is not to be believed in the first place.

Poor Dave, he's had a dilemma ever since he was molested by his priest daddy. That accouhntws for him being such an asshole.
Assheil knows all about working ourt of band Frenchmen though.

Apparently, you don't know what the fuck you are yammering about. And you lack any reading comprehension, since like Heil, you see nighttime at high noon since your head is so far up your ass.

Now, go find a job, fatty Davies, and quit licking Heil's fat ass.

No, I claimed that is what the people who were defrauded claimed. I don't care what he/she says. However, if he/she has proof then why hasn't the case been dropped If there is evidence which proves the defendant is innocent. This case has been going on for almost six months, what is he/she waiting for if he/she can prove they are innocent.

What break, I told you once before I have multiple business ventures.
Unlike you, I don't limit myself to just one occupation and unlike you I don't view dyslexia as a disability. I view it as something which just drives me further to succeed. Where others see limitation, I see oppourtunity.

No, DA's aren't LE they are prosecutors. Look in any law dictionary, such as Black's or google the term, LE is defined as Police.

No they are not known as LE. If you knew anything about the law, you would know why there is a noted distinction between the titles used and the role each plays in the judicial system. Even first year law clerks know the reason for the distinction.

Not lying at all, you said on RRAP that if I went to prison, you would contact the inmates so I would be abused including gang rape, yet on NIM you said that a sane person would not wish that on anyone. So therefore, by your own admission you are not sane because you wished me to be gang raped.

If you think this is any degree of "Greatness" you really need to get a life. There is no significance to this, only words that will wash away with time.

As they say Mark, proof is in the pudding. So post a link where I have posted anything about my sex life on RRAP, or are you making up shit again?

Actually, Woger, it is not at all unusual for ANY HF band to be open at odd hours, ARRL publications and your uneducated "expertise" notwithstanding. While these odd openings are certainly not the rule, but the exception, they happen nonetheless. If you had any knowledge at all of the HF spectrum you would know that.
Obviously it is YOU who has not a clue about that which you "yammer". Perhaps you should upgrade your antennas.

I'm sure you, of all people, know well what "nighttime at high noon" looks like, since you hide in a darkend house all day.

I've noticed that you, Mark, go to lengths to remove any cross posts to the direcpc group, though you have no qualms about posting to others.
Clearly you are uncomfortable about drawing attention to yourself by the direcpc group users.

Could it be that you don't wish them to be aware of your abuse of Hughes'
TOS?

Roger is fully cognizant of the fact that he made statements that are in error regarding 20M propagation. The problem with Roger is that since he has now placed his feet firmly in his mouth, he cannot retract his claims and do so gracefully. He thus finds it necessary to maintain that WE are in error regarding the occasional openings on late-night 20 meters and that WE are the ones making inaccurate statements.
So, in response, Roger will continue to issue tawdry, filth-laden responses when he could instead bolster his standing in these Groups by simply admitting that he was partially in error.
But of course doing such is well beyond the scope of the Roger Wiseman mentality.

I guess this means that any forthcoming apologies from Roger are but wishful thinking on my part.

I should also go on record by informing Roger that I am not Lloyd. My Amateur license allows me full use of ALL of the Amateur HF spectrum and, unlike Roger, I've yet to be sent even a single letter from Riley Hollingsworth.

Roger should try 14.322 usb. There is a station from Puerto Rico (KP4ZQ) calling CQ at 0437 Zulu. This is 12:37 a.m. local time and I hear a station from Oklahoma City trying to QSO. His name is Ramone.
Ramone is also talking to a station in North Carolina and many others who are trying to contact him. He is likewise making contacts with stations in Michigan.

Maybe Roger should inform Ramone that he cannot make DX contacts on 20M late at night since the band, according to Woger, is not open. That would be news to Ramone who is, as I type, talking to a station in Las Vegas.

You should look up Ramone's email address Roger and tell him that, according to you and the ARRL, he cannot possibly be talking to all of these responding stations from the United States. Maybe the K9RJ station he just reported as being 5/9 is only an imaginary contact.

But wait. There's more. Ramone is now talking to station KI4MBU. How can this be????

After all, Roger says that this is an impossibility on 20M.

Care to rethink your stance, Roger?

No need to apologize, Roger. Most of us already know that you are sorry.

Additional. The Puerto Rico station, Ramone, just gave his name phoenetically. There is no "e" at the end of his name. He is Ramon.

Now, Roger, care to rethink your stance?

He claims to know things, 20 meter propagation, Glen Dale "lockups"
where ther are none in Glen Dale, etc.
Or how about his use of "maqurading" instead of "masquerading."
No, he worked out of band Frenchmen and got away with it. He hasn't

"our society has always produced sociopaths who are quite often the products of illegitimacy, broken homes, and a lack of any bonding with male or societal authority. Some 70% of sociopaths come from fatherless homes. Father absence produces many consequences similar to the symptoms of sociopathy -- early, precocious sexuality; antagonistic, deprecating attitude toward the opposite sex; lack of interest in bonding with a durable, stable mate; aggressive acting-out; excessive boasting;
and risk-taking behavior.

Yep, that's our Roger.

COMMON SOCIOPATHS are the largest subtype and have a weak or unelaborated conscience. They are not ashamed by the same things as you or I would be ashamed of. They are like feral children grown up, taking pleasures and gratifying impulses at every opportunity or temptation. They especially enjoy and take pride in bending or breaking the rules.

Wiseman to a "T".

They are usually of average intelligence, but don't do well in school and never seem to break out of low-paying dead-end jobs. Nevertheless, they seem genuinely happy with their lives, unburdened by any sense of negative self-worth or the fact that they have not been a functional,
contributing member of society.

An apt description of Roger's life.

ALIENATED SOCIOPATHS have never developed the ability to love, empathize, or affiliate in real life with another person. They will show more emotion toward their pet or a personal artifact than toward a person. Dating and marriage relationships will be very barren and empty. They won't get along with the neighbors. They live in a shell. They have a cold, callous attitude toward human suffering or any social problem in the society they live in. They just don't care because it's outside their range of empathy. Most will believe they are justified in this because they feel they were cheated in some way themselves by society, and a few will be more than happy to rant and rave about it to anyone who listens. They are chronic complainers, and underneath it all, they would like to see nothing better than all of society destroyed.

Did the author actually interview you at length, UnWiseman?

Poor sociopathic, confused Roger. He thinks I'm any number of people posting to usenent, despite what message headers indicate.

Sometimes there are late night voices which are SSB DX. Other times, there are no voices, just a series of dits and dahs. Not all of those, nor all of the voices are on 20. Some are on 40, 75, 80 or 160m. Apparently you have a problem with that wonderful DX-CC trapped dipole, since you can't seem to hear the 20m voices.

Maybe one day you will admit that I am more knowledgble than you about many subjects, not because I am better than you, but because I don't view my impairment as a crutch, but as a tool to motivate and succeed.

I just built a new ham radio website that has ebay listings of ham equipment, the latest ham radio news from all over the world, some articles about the big three and more.
Come and visit and use the contact page to contact me and tell me what you think, suggestions or comments would be appreciated.

Let me remind you again, Woger. I am NOT Dave Heil. Nor am I Lloyd.
What part of this do you fail to comprehend?
Apparently those little demons you hear are telling you otherwise. It may behoove you to lay off those doctor prescribed psychotropic drugs for a week or two.

> He claims to know things, 20 meter propagation, Glen Dale "lockups"

There is no "He". There is, however, ME. I claim to know whereof I speak concerning 20M propagation because, unlike you, I have been there and done that. Obviously you have not.
The fact that you are an Extra means only that you were able to answer a few questions and halfway understand Morse Code. Obviously that is all you did, for you have shown that you have no grasp of how the HF bands work...aside from malicious interference, that is. After all, it was you and Tunder who turned a portion of the 20M band into a CB-like debacle. Fortunately for the rest of us, Riley brought your idiocy to a screeching halt.
By the way, Rog. What was the cost of the embarassment you brought upon yourself?

Still using the third person, Roger? I understand your denial. It is what you do best.
Heck, if I were you I'd be ashamed and would hide behind a third person entity, too.

The hammies want us to leave their prescous 10 meter band and some guy with the ham handle arnewsline qrz.com is tryin to organize them to fight us. Go read this.
Unca Glenn

Fighting the 10 meter freeband invasion

If you are wondering what all those conversations without call signs are on 28.085 MHz, well it appears to be a small invasion of unlicensed truckers and so called Freeband operators of our 10 meter band. We have more in this report:

Originally confined to portions of the mid-West, the pirate trucker and Freeband epidemic appears to be spreading nationwide. This, as more and more of these illegal operators are making their unauthorized home on 28.085 Megahertz and several other 10 meter frequencies.

And what is the Amateur Radio community doing about this invasion? On the surface at least, very little. With the upper High frequency bands not offering very much D-X these days, the majority of hams are sticking to 20, 40 and 80 meters with few stations heard in the 15, 12 and 10 meter spectrum. So the truckers and Freebanders see this is fair game for their unlawful operations and are busy establishing squatters rights in these bands.

What about the FCC? Well its doing what it can. There have been several well publicized violation notices sent to trucking firms. They request owners to instruct their drivers to curtail any operations for which they are not licensed and threatening punitive action such as fines. But that’s about it. With the FCC enforcement folks stretched thin and Freeband operations being among the lowest of priorities on the enforcement agenda, there is no reason to believe that there is going to be any sort of massive sweep by the Federal government to clear these pirate operators out of the ham radio bands.

In the end, it will be the ham radio community that will have to defend these frequencies. And it does that by using them. If hams load up 10 meters or any band with legitimate Amateur Radio operations, there will be no place for the illegals to play and they will go elsewhere.

In the case of 28.085, there have been suggestions that this frequency become a national CW or RTTY Calling Channel. That’s a pretty good approach. Another is for every ham with the capability of operating 10 meters to start holding QSO's on that frequency. As any Morse enthusiast will tell you, CW can get through even when faced with all sorts of QRM including pirate operators using voice.

The bottom line. if licensed radio amateurs fill up 10 meters even for local chats, the truckers and Frreebanders will soon be looking elsewhere for a new home.

Evi Simons
Amateur Radio Newsline

About two decades ago, then 73 Magazine editor Wayne Green, W2NSD, coined the phrase "Use it or loose it." Back then, it was applied to the pending transfer of 220 to 222 MHz away from Amateur Radio. Today the same words ring important in fighting those without licenses who are trying to take 10 meters forcibly from hams.

I'm sure you can't hear them, but would you care to once again tell us, and them, how this cannot be so?
I bet these Field Day operators would be more than interested in hearing you explain to them that 20M is not workable in the evening and early morning hours.
If they doubt you, tell them that you are a twice-tested Extra and that you know whereof you speak.

Tell them Roger sent you.

Oh sure, a "10 Meter Radios for the Professional driver" with "echo" and "talk back".

That's NOT a 10 meter radio with a 40 channel selector knob! That's a CB in disguise.

We need the FCC to make the CW/SSB split voluntary on this band, so we can tell the truckers where to go! As long as they are using phone in our CW subband most of us won't be able to legally warn them off. I don't even have a Morse key with a jack plug on it that fits any of my rigs.

You mean you can't use your mike as a CW key? Damn, what kind of ham are you? ;-)

Yeah, that'll work ... <cough!>

With truckers running 200-1KW continuous power and within a mile or two of each other ... all you end up doing is trashing 10 meters like you do this ng.

This should make everyone think, be you Democrat, Republican or Independent

>From a California school teacher - - -"As you listen to the news about
the student protests over illegal immigration, there are some things that you should be aware of:

I am in charge of the English-as-a-second-language department at a large southern California high school which is designated a Title 1 school, meaning that its students average lower socioeconomic and income levels.

Most of the schools you are hearing about, South Gate High, Bell Gardens,
Huntington Park, etc., where these students are protesting, are also Title
1 schools.

Title 1 schools are on the free breakfast and free lunch program. When I say free breakfast, I'm not talking a glass of milk and roll -- but a full breakfast and cereal bar with fruits and juices that would make a Marriott proud. The waste of this food is monumental, with trays and trays of it being dumped in the trash uneaten. (OUR TAX DOLLARS AT WORK)

I estimate that well over 50% of these students are obese or at least moderately overweight. About 75% or more DO have cell phones. The school
also provides day care centers for the unwed teenage pregnant girls (some as young as 13) so they can attend class without the inconvenience of having to arrange for babysitters or having family watch their kids.
(OUR TAX DOLLARS AT WORK)

I was ordered to spend $700,000 on my department or risk losing funding for the upcoming year even though there was little need for anything; my budget was already substantial. I ended up buying new computers for the computer learning center, half of which, one month later, have been carved with graffiti by the appreciative students who obviously feel humbled and grateful to have a free education in America. (OUR TAX DOLLARS AT WORK)

I have had to intervene several times for young and substitute teachers whose classes consist of many illegal immigrant students here in the country less then 3 months who raised so much hell with the female teachers, calling them "Putas" whores and throwing things that the teachers were in tears.

Free medical, free education, free food, day care etc., etc., etc. Is it any wonder they feel entitled to not only be in this country but to demand rights, privileges and entitlements?

To those who want to point out how much these illegal immigrants contribute to our society because they LIKE their gardener and housekeeper and they like to pay less for tomatoes: spend some time in the real world of illegal immigration and see the TRUE costs.

Higher insurance, medical facilities closing, higher medical costs, more crime, lower standards of education in our schools, overcrowding, new diseases etc., etc, etc. For me, I'll pay more for tomatoes.

We need to wake up. The guest worker program will be a disaster because we won't have the guts to enforce it.
Does anyone in their right mind really think they will voluntarily leave and return?

There are many hardworking Hispanic/American citizens that contribute to our country and many that I consider my true friends. We should encourage and accept those Hispanics who have done it the right and legal way.

It does, however, have everything to do with culture: A third-world culture that does not value education, that accepts children getting pregnant and dropping out of school by 15 and that refuses to assimilate, and an American culture that has become so weak and worried about "politically correct" that we don't have the will to do anything about it.

If this makes your blood boil, as it did mine, forward this to everyone you know.

CHEAP LABOR?

Isn't that what the whole immigration issue is about?

Business doesn't want to pay a decent wage

Consumers don't want expensive produce

Government will tell you Americans don't want the jobs

But the bottom line is cheap labor. The phrase "cheap labor" is a myth, a farce, and a lie. there is no such thing as "cheap labor."

Take, for example, an illegal alien with a wife and five children. He takes a job for $5.00 or $6.00/hour. At that wage, with six dependents, he pays no income tax, yet at the end of the year, if he files an Income Tax Return, he gets an "earned income credit" of up to $3,200 free.

He qualifies for Section 8 housing and subsidized rent

He qualifies for food stamps

He qualifies for free (no deductible, no co-pay) health care

His children get free breakfasts and lunches at school

He requires bilingual teachers and books

He qualifies for relief from high energy bills

If they are or become, aged, blind or disabled, they qualify for SSI. Once qualified for SSI they can qualify for Medicare. All of this is at taxpayer's expense

He doesn't worry about car insurance, life insurance, or homeowners insurance.

Taxpayers provide Spanish language signs, bulletins and printed material.

He and his family receive the equivalent of $20.00 to $30.00/hour in benefits.

Working Americans are lucky to have $5.00 or $6.00/hour left after paying their bills and his.

The American taxpayer's also pay for increased crime, graffiti and trash clean-up.

Cheap labor?

YEAH, RIGHT.

Wake up people

That is a better point. If we use CW they will ignore us anyway - after all. they can't read it. So, yes, we need phone privileges in the parts where they are intruding.

I'm a 20 wpm Extra, but never liked CW. I could send CW using the mic, For some reason it didn't occur to me! The other OM is right, though, It wouldn't do any good if it wasn't said on phone. Probably not even then, but it might be worth a try if we were allowed to do it.

Packet distribution of GB2RS news to end

The Radio Society of Great Britain has announced that GB2RS News will no longer be distributed via Packet. This week's bulletin will be the last.

Amateur Packet Radio has been in decline for the past decade. The loss of the GB2RS news is a further indication that traditional Packet Radio, developed in the 1980s, is increasingly irrelevant in today's world.

Wrong kind of license. Your thinking of drivers license and the discussion is about a license to transmit on federally controlled frequencies.

You can now go back into your hole and vegitate.

Wayne probably did coin the phrase "Use it or loose it", because that phrase makes no sense. He certainly didn't coin the phrase "Use It or Lose It" however.

I do not mind offending the old-timers who are living in the past and struggling to hold ham radio captive (they have never minded offending new or future hams). The future of ham radio is likely to include digital (possibly D-star, possibly others). It is likely to make extensive use of computers and the Internet. It is just not likely to include much along the lines of Morse. The Morse zealots have already lost the fight for the issue that means the most to them - code testing. The reduction of the dedicated CW segments is probably a harbinger of things to come. My guess is that they know (and have always known) that anything that Morse can do, digital can do better. For that reason, they have fought to stop digital (I remember when it was dismissed and disparaged as wideband "pulse").
Do this simple calculation: multiply what you consider to be a good sending rate in words per minute by the number of letters in a word by 7 (there are 7 bits to an ASCII character). The result will be bits per minute. Divide that by 60 to get bits per second. The result will be quite laughable. I have seen people throw in the garbage old modems that were capable of 1,000 times that speed.

As far as starting a new organization by myself is concerned, I have started a small business, a political action committee and an Internet users group. Be careful what you ask for; you just might get it. My guess is that a new group could be started in a single region and then bootstrapped into a national organization, within five to ten years. The obvious constituency would be people who would, more or less, agree with my (admittedly inflammatory) comments above. I would make no attempt to capture the telegraph key cohort of the ARRL, but the more progressive members might change sides. Nevertheless, people who are dissatisfied with an existing organization are always the greatest asset of a new or rival organization. The prospect of offending the core loyalists of the old group is just not an issue.

Ya think the queer hams her can understand the importance?

More Assheil backpedaling. Glen Dale has no lockup, a call to (304)

I don't know what a "conjital" visit is supposed to be in your mind, Woger. Is that where you go on weekends? Is that why you keep bringing it up?

And who is this Kevin Alfred Strom person? Is he someone that's important to you in some way? Never heard of him before you mentioned the name, and it's not anywhere on CNN or Fox's web pages, so he must be unimportant to the world at large. Why do you worry about him, Woger?

A few years ago, Troma released what I still consider to be the best DVD of all time, Citizen Toxie. An entertaining film, with so many worthwhile extras it redefined 'collector's edition,' and all at a really reasonable price. So, it was with much anticipation I awaited the next DVD release of a Troma helmed film (as opposed to those they acquire the rights for). That film was Julie Strain's Tales From the Crapper.

Julie Strain's Tales From the Crapper was a real labour to bring to the small screen. The film was originally meant to be two movies for the short lived Tromaville website. Directed by India Allen, the two films turned out to be incoherent shit. Not only that, but the two films were quite expensive by Troma standards, costing somewhere around $100,000 each. Obviously, Troma is not a studio to spend money, let alone squander it. To get something back, Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, and his cohorts tried to salvage the footage in post production, and even did some reshooting. I did not know all this going in, but the mess that the film is makes more sense if you know that beforehand.

The disc begins with nudity. Literally, you press play, and you get a topless woman. Now, THAT is a good start! The nudity is part of the intro with Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger and 'Michael Herz' (re: Joe Fleishaker playing Herz). The intro pretends to explain why the following movie is shot on video. The intro has the usual cheese, but also some funny, utterly tasteless, jokes.

Tales starts with Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, dressed as The Crapkeeper. This is without question the most expensive, elaborate Troma costume to date. Just imagine all the money Troma must've spent to make it look like The Crapkeeper was just a guy with a rubbish bag on his head! James Gunn, currently winning over genre fans' hearts with his movie Slither, arrives to discuss a movie deal with The Crapkeeper, and then we cut to the first tale in this anthology.

The first story is entitled The Case of the Melon Heavy Alien Man Eater. An alien crash lands, and runs around muttering. The alien sounds an awful lot like Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, being back-masked. Anyway, the alien is looking for someplace where it can raise money to repair its ship and also kill Earthlings at the same time. Naturally, it heads to a strip club. When the alien's murder spree begins, tough cop Julie Strain starts tracking it.

Despite a few jokes 'borrowed' from The Simpsons; Teenage Mutant Ninja Creator, and real life Mr. Strain, Kevin Eastman in a bit part; and a man being killed with his own cock, there's not a lot going on here. The Case of the Melon Heavy Alien Man Eater remains a confusing, jumbled mess, perhaps having TOO MUCH added to try to clarify the confusing, jumbled footage Troma had to work with. There is a series of narrators, who I guess are explaining gaps in the 'story.' The problem is that with virtually everything being poorly ADRed, the narrators only add to the confusion. There are some ADRed jokes as well, but most of these are fart noises. A lot of the ADR 'clarification' actually makes things harder to follow, because with the sound so cluttered and poorly mixed, it's hard to tell who's talking. The most amusing bits of this segment are the ones with the least amount of post-tinkering.

However, because Troma knew the movie was shit, they included something called 'Boner Vision.' Boner Vision is a popup screen within the film that features nudity, and it appears frequently in this segment. This actually DID its job, and distracted me from how bad the movie was.

The end tally for The Case of the Melon Heavy Alien Man Eater is lesbians, cheap as fuck gore, those funny newsmen from Citizen Toxie, and more naked flesh than ever before. I will never watch this section again without commentary, though.

After that ordeal, Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, comes back to essentially do a mini version of his Make Your Own Damn Movie project. He shows the viewer how to create a memorable lesbian, trannie, Fleishaker, splatter scene.

Then it's on to the second story of this anthology, called Tuition of the Terror Twat. Subtle. This time, Strain is a vampire stripper. When a guy has trouble getting into college, his friends set up a risky business, holding a stripper party to raise tuition. Unfortunately, they use Strain and her friends, which results in orgy of violence, rather than the type of orgy they were no doubt hoping for.

Tuition of the Terror Twat is the section that benefited the most from the reshoots, and is far better than the mini-movie that preceded it. This segment starts out with more and better gore than the entire first one, and has the BEST dig at George W. Bush I've ever seen. What really helps this section is that rather than try to make it better, Troma totally deconstructs what's happening on screen. Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, plays the parent of the young man who can't get into college, and he keeps calling in to leave messages on the machine and yell about the 'plot.' When it would make no sense for the father's voice to be there, faux commentaries are inserted to completely cover up boring dialogue or to make fun of the footage. Even with narrators explaining, the movie makes no sense, but given The Crapkeeper's on screen response to critics of the film's plot, I just have this to say: Tuition of the Terror Twat is a masterpiece of logic and gentle poise.

This segment features the bulk of the cameos, including Ted Raimi, Ron Jeremy 'look-alike' Ron Hyatt, Count Smokula, and Trey Parkï¿½erï¿½Juan Schwartz. This segment also has New Found Glory, which is too bad, because they suck.

I actually enjoyed Tuition, and wouldn't have minded if it had been released as a solo mini-movie. But, if it had been on its own, there'd be far less Boner Vision. It has all the plusses of The Case of the Melon Heavy Alien Man Eater, but is far funnier.

Video

Tales from the Crapper's mini-movies are presented full frame, with wraparounds that are letterboxed. The whole thing is shot on video, but the wraparounds are higher quality video. Both of the movies have video grain, soft images, and there are video glitches in the movies and the wraparounds. There is the occasional artefact, but they're hard to spot because of the lesser video quality. The second mini-movie is slightly clearer than the first.

Audio

The audio is available in a two channel track. Case's audio quality fluctuates, as does the volume, and it suffers from painful ADR. Distortion can occur in either mini-movie, and the overall audio is too loud. Case's audio is very slap shod, but Tuition's is better due to a proper mix. Keep an ear out for recycled Toxic Avenger sounds. The score is actually an eclectic collection, with quite a few funny, original songs.

Extra Features

The best extra, as usual for a Troma disc, is the making of. This making of is shorter than some of Troma's others, at roughly 60 minutes, and actually is based around the reshoot. Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, hosts the making of, and also appears to be filming himself for it. He explains the history of the project, and what went wrong. What's very interesting is that here we get a rare glimpse of Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, in serious business mode. It's also interesting to watch the breakdown of the reshoot, mostly the result of Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, having little control and flat out abandoning the reshoot. The behind the scenes also has bonus footage of Raimi and Schwartz, as well as getting to see Wes Craven, who stopped by the set, and Chad (Unspeakable) Ferrin. One thing I REALLY disliked was the mockery made of Craven by some on set (including Ferrin). Craven was obviously not interested in being filmed, but remained polite, and even contributed $100 to the project. While I don't personally feel it's fair to lump Craven in with Tobe Hooper and John Carpenter as directors who've lost it, I think it's shitty to insult the man after he showed support to their project. But I guess when those on hand aren't even showing respect for their own project, how can they be expected to respect anyone else's? The apathy for the film they were making obviously really upset Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, as well. But then, seems virtually everything on a Troma film set does!

The DVD also has an extra called Julie Strain's Topless Comedy Jam. This is mostly a tour of Strain's house that runs about four minutes long. She freestyles, which is terrible, but is topless for a lot of this feature. This extra isn't funny, and there're no ninjas, turtle or otherwise.

Tales' original trailer and new trailer are both included, as are deleted and extended scenes. These scenes have the two other countries the DVD sleeve boasts about production being filmed in, more gore, extended rabbit fetish footage, an Osama Bin Laden blow job, and more nudity. The Cannibal Lesbian Hoedown video clip that everyone in Tales keeps watching or listening to is here, as well as the web comics.

There are two commentaries. One features Julie Strain; Tuition director Brian Spitz; and Lizzie Strain, Julie's sister. Julie makes bad jokes, seems to think the first half is good, and doesn't know who Ted Raimi is. The track is not particularly informative, though Spitz does provide some details about things, and isn't all that entertaining either. The main commentary is much better, and features Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger; Troma editor Gabe Friedman; and a young man named Timmy they claim is the director. This track is funny and satirical. It's not the normal loving mockery you get from Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, for a movie he was involved with, but is filled with faux praise that is really picking the film apart. I was hoping for a full on breakdown of the breakdown of the film, so maybe someday Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, will record a new track to give us further insight into what went wrong.

The DVD also has some of the usual Troma extras, like ads for the website and Make Your Own Damn Movie. The trailer for Citizen Toxie has been removed for this Australian release, but oddly the trailer for Parts of the Family is still present. I thought the Troma trailer nonsense had been sorted out with the OFLC, but I guess not. Also, making its 10 zillionth appearance isï¿½yep, you guessed itï¿½THE RADIATION MARCH.
The Verdict
A few of the extras are lacklustre, but this is another required DVD for Troma fans. I can't imagine anyone revisiting The Case of the Melon Heavy Alien Man Eater. Other than that, Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, and company have done a commendable job of turning utter shit into entertaining shit. The extras may not be up to Citizen Toxie standard, but then, neither is the main feature. Hopefully Lloyd Kaufman, president of Troma and creator of the Toxic Avenger, will vent some of his frustration with this project artistically in his upcoming Poultrygeist.

I didn't bring it up. No one is ever retested without reason. There were no irregularities in your initial testing session. That can't be the reason. Why don't you tell us why you were forced to retest, Rog?

I'm not Mork, Dloyd, Lloyd, Chris or anyone but myself. You've been told repeatedly. You aren't rational.

He? He does? Why do you persist in writing of yourself in the third person, UnWiseman?

Are you in customer service? Are you a greeter?

I'm retired, Rog. The Department of State has no errand boy positions. It never has.

The Department of State has Diplomatic Couriers. They travel first class and stay at the best hotels. The escort the classified diplomatic pouch. I never worked as a courier. I worked in communications/information management, Rog. If you're looking for a job, why not apply on line. Good luck with the psychological exam.

It isn't opinion, UnWiseman. I didn't write the post to which you originally replied.

There aren't any sock puppets, Rog. I didn't write the post. You're delusional--still.

I don't know anyone named Bertie. I've never engaged in homosexual acts. If that's the kind of thing which lights your fire, don't judge others by your own behavior.

One of the problems encountered by a sociopathic individual is that he can't tell the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behavior. You don't know how to live in society, UnWise and Unwellman.

I don't teach psychology, UnWiseman. I can teach you about MW and HF wave propagation. You don't seem to have much experience with HF propagation. You keep making statements which make you look foolish.
Don't worry about it too much though. After all, your usual statements make you look insane.

you, as usual, have it backward. You're the delusional guy and you run

On the other hand, if I took your response as a threat, you could end up being a guest of the police. You want to tread very, very carefully, fruit cake.

I married no one who was ever employed as a prostitute, Rog. I've never hidden behind her at any time. We can discuss it when I run into you.

Anyone present can disprove your claim. I sat right next to you at said meeting. There was no one but your invisible friend between us. I don't believe you were very comfortable sitting next to me. The fact is, you attended the one meeting and never returned. You allowed your membership to lapse.

Did you do well on Field Day?

I didn't say I wanted you to acknowledge anything, you just need to admit the fact to yourself and move on. Control freak, no but I am very picky about most things, but nevertheless, I don't know why you have to bring up sex issues in this NG with your BS "Phychopathic trait of voueyism", garbage. Here we go again, you have to bring up the sex garbage again don't you. Why do you keep bringing it up?

No lie, I just asked a question of why you have to include a sexual related term in the accusation in your response, when on the other hand you accuse others of bringing up sex in a radio news group, when it is you all along you just did the same. You shouldn't throw stones Mark.

If you want the NG to get better, you should set a positive example
